Story of ganesha and kartikeya race

On one occasion Shiva and Parvati had received a fruit from the gods, and the two sons Ganesh and Murugan (Kartikeya or Skanda or Kumara Swamy) wanted it. Some legends claim that the dispute was about who was the eldest of the two. In any case, the parents then suggested that the one who circled the world three times and came back first would get it as a prize. Kartikeya climbed the peacock, his Vahana, and flew around the world, stopping in all the holy places along the way and offering his prayers. But at each major stop he found Ganesha in front of him and was perplexed. Ganesha understood that his vehicle, the mouse, would not be able to compete with Skadas Peacock and he could never beat Kartikeya. But he thought for a while and found a solution. Three times he walked around his parents Shiva and Parvati with great devotion. When his parents asked him why he wasn't circling the globe, he replied that his parents were the whole world. I don't need to go any further to travel the world. Skanda learned about it, accepted Ganesha's superiority, and bowed before him. There are many stories about Lord Ganesh and his later part of life. We will add more stories of Lord Ganesh in due order. GANAPATI BAPPA MAURYA!!! The stories I've heard over the centuries are the most interesting and it makes you feel like you're with them. The various Indians, especially those called from the east coast the Southern Indians have the most beautiful language the slow deep musical drawer was caught by many people who surrounded them. It is said that they can cure cancer, they can stop hurricanes, even just grow their hair thicker, but as indian people never believe that it will be said soon, everyone will not be the secret that we all no. It took thousands of years to translate this prayer into English, with the blood of the Jesus Christian who rejected the devil. It is when you are afraid, afraid or just stress, it calms the mind, body and soul. Religious is not, but I always use this phrase during daily life.kathy nease By- kathy aloysius nease ----- Very good side of Mahesh Purohit ----- Greetings! By- Ranger Slayer ----- WITH DEVOTION AND DEDICATION I VISIT YOUR SITE By- RAMASRINIVASAN ----- This is a very good website that shows a lot about Indian culture. I think it should be prayed for by the one who is interestdin in Indian mythology! By- Jack ----- a very good site to sign up. The quiz questions were amazing. By- sanskriti singhania ----- In this day and age, many of the Children lose the basic concept and the idea of mythology and history. It really is a nice website with good information abt mythology. Nevertheless, you can add a lot of abt the characters in Ramayana and Mahabharata, which are unknown to many and fade over time and some stories like Bhishma Yudhistara can be told if possible. Really good website. By- Gopi Krishna Kolluru ----- What does mythology have to do with yoga poses? like The Warrior 1 and 2? where could I find this information? By- trish ----- very good By- rajendran ----- insgesamt bist du cooooooool. By- Hillary Hillary Your website was very detailed and informative. The work is impressive. By- Aswani Shankar ----- I'm very inused with this site, it's corrected me in many places, and I've learned a lot from it, thank you who ever founded this. his big by-Rashila ----- Hello, I am looking for all the information you may have about a deity that originally came from Indian mythology and was accepted as one of the 12 gods in Buddhism. I am looking for a picture of this world and have searched for every known resource I have. The reason I'm looking for this world is because I'm working on a project to find images of each of the 34 characters on the Gohonzon enrolled by Nichiren Daishonin, founder of the Nichiren School of Buddhism. For more information about what I'm talking about, and to give you an idea of what I'm doing, you can follow this link: The only information I have about this deity is as follows from a glossary of Buddhist terms: Dai Myojo-tenno (Great Celestial King Stars, or the God of Stars): A Deification of the Stars in Indian Mythology, twelve gods is integrated into Buddhism. I would appreciate any help or search tips you might want in my study of this world animity, and finally appreciate a picture it (even if scanned from a book). Have a good day. Greetings, Chris Wheeler By- Chris Wheeler ----- Was looking for Vikram and The Vettala stories... Your website had helped me a lot.Thx. By- Sudha Chandran -----
