Firearms are a tool used to shoot and cause serious bodily harm. It's not a firearm, it's a legal definition of a law called firearms - a firearm that can't be shot, like a malfunction, as part of a firearm, but a firework stumbles. The M49 AI has no ammunition and is not armed - but if not allowed, it is also wrong. - Each part of a legal firearm must also be considered as a firearm, e.g. 1) a barrel, 2) a sleigh machine or key component of a sliding ball, 3) an actuation machine or a key component of a push machine. 2. Firearms, not firearms. People armed and armed with firearms must apply for a permit to the registrar for people domiciled in Bangkok, submit a request to the National Police Registration Office. For people domiciled in different provinces, apply to the local sheriff. Permission for the possession of firearms and the use of firearms must be requested in order – to protect themselves or their property – 3. Firearms offences, firearms-related offences, these firearms offences are 1) made without a licence, 2) purchased without a licence, 3) have, without a licence, 4) for use without a licence, 5) order from outside the Kingdom without a licence. All six offences, whether or not for any part of the firearm or ammunition were also considered offences. Those who are not allowed to possess and use firearms but possess firearms belonging to others who are allowed to have and use it in accordance with the law are also guilty. The term possession of a firearm means possession or possession of a proprietary weapon means possession of a firearm, possession means possession of a firearm for the purpose of possession means an acceptable, detained or maintained manner held for its own purpose, i.e. the manner in which the firearm is possessed, possessed or taken in a manner that indicates intent. This observance does not always require ownership. A short period of time or the arrest of someone else's gun. They are not considered firearms in possession of 4. There are three cases of unlawful possession of another person's firearm, namely: 1) Possession of another person's lawful firearm, as required to preserve that firearm from loss, and the passenger must possess the right to possess and use the firearm, for example - mr. Black is allowed to have and use firearms. Mr. Black's father died. Mr. Black was in possession of the gun and waited for the death notice within 30 days of the date of his father's death and legacy as follows: Mr. Black is not guilty - Mr. A is the recipient of the license and use of firearms. Mrs. B, Mr. A's wife, therefore possessed Mr. A's gun waiting to hand over the gun and permission to the secretary, Mrs. A. B, innocent - to collect registered firearms intended to be handed over to the secretary. However, if the collector is only 15 years old (there is no firearm) or a gun that can be stored as a weapon, the weapon will not be used. 2) Possession of firearms of military and police and governmental and state enterprises, 3) possession of firearms and ammunition in sea vessels. Trains and aircraft as usual. Please note that the law is exempt from firearms of state or state-owned enterprises, except for government officials or employees of state-owned enterprises. The guns are in town. Unless there is a reasonable and urgent need for the event, such as carrying a gun, but in any case, the law prohibits the use of firearms openly or in the community that has been held for worship, festivities, or otherwise. This means that even if a licensed firearm is allowed to carry a firearm openly or carry them to a rally, it is not for the law to be prohibited for officers who have a duty to maintain public order. Soldiers and police officers who are on duty, or individuals assigned to have or use firearms, are in the process of providing assistance to the government. For the authority to issue a portable license in Bangkok is the Director General of the Police Department in the province, i.e. the governor of the province. To have a firearm for storage, anyone wishing to have a firearm for storage must also apply for a permit. This means they are supplied without a firearm, such as a souvenir. The presence of a firearm for storage storage here means that there is no use of that firearm, such as a souvenir, for example, that anyone who wants to have a firearm for storage is required to obtain permission from the government. Police Department People who are domiciled in different provinces apply for a permit to the local registrar, permission to have a firearm for storage, will only be issued for the following firearms, that is, 1) firearms that the registrar considers to be defective to be non-lethal. 3.1) Prohibition of firearms 3.2) The use of ammunition machines for the storage of firearms is prohibited. Note: Any person who holds a gun to collect it without permission will be guilty. The licence to acquire a firearm and personal ammunition (Form 3) 2) is licensed for the acquisition and use of personal firearms and ammunition (Form 4) has two types: 2.1 Temporary licence, validity age 6 months from the date of issue, 2.2 permanent licences. Valid at any time by the licensee. He still owns the gun. Where to apply for permission for people located in Bangkok to apply for a permit to the registrar at the Registrar Police Department Those domiciled in the provinces apply to the local sheriff. Once the application is submitted to the government, the company will be able to apply for a license. The registrar will 3) To issue a license to have or use a firearm, it should be issued in 3 cases only, i.e. 3.1 for self-defense and property protection. If this does not enter any of the three cases, the government usually does not. 4) A license will only be issued for a firearm. Prohibited property such as minors (under 20 years of age), incapacitated or incapable persons (insane, mentally impaired), Persons who do not have a career and income In addition, the government will not issue permission to a person named for the local registration house where the person is located. The license is less than six months - the procedure for issuing a firearm or using a firearm, initially the registrar will issue a license to purchase a firearm (form 3) and a temporary firearm license (form 4 temporary). To obtain a firearms and ammunition purchase permit, please do not break the law and then the licensee will bring the firearm to the registrar to verify that the firearms and ammunition provided are provided. Are there types and dimensions specified in the 3rd and 4th 18th year? If the registrar will continue to issue a licence to have and use the firearm permanently (form 4 permanently), however, the firearm must be brought to the Registrar within 6 months of the date of issue of the provisional licence. *Please note that when purchasing firearms from an authorized Buyer must first obtain permission to purchase the firearm from the registrar, then the buyer will obtain permission to obtain the gun from the seller, or go to the registrar at the same time, both the buyer and the gun owner. 8. The Firearms Transfer Act prohibits the carriage of firearms to persons who are not licensed to possess and use firearms. However, if the firearm is transferred to a person without permission, the transferee is guilty. Transfer means the transfer of ownership of their firearm to another person as owner, the transfer of firearms through inheritance. In case the owner of a firearm already has a license is dead. The law requires the heir of the deceased or any other person holding a firearm, machine, ammunition, or license to possess or use the deceased's firearm to inform the registrar of the death of the holder of the weapon within 30 days of the date of death of the deceased. If you don't notice, you're guilty. A fine of not more than 1,000 baht for the registrar to report this death is 1). 2) Local registrar who issued a license to possess or use the firearm; 3) Local registrar at his residence. The local registrar to whom the death notice is domiciled. As soon as he informed the death secretary to the registrar, the heir of the heir who received the weapon, which is the deceased's inheritance, contacted the local registrar within 6 months of the date of death of the deceased (gun owner) to obtain a new permit. This is because, even if the heir owns the firearm, it is still considered Which is illegal. Therefore, an application must be submitted to the local registrar to obtain permission to have or use a firearm (form 4), which the government will determine whether the heir or applicant has the required qualifications in accordance with the law. If not, the license will be issued for the next 9. In the event of notification of the registrar, 1) Lost or damaged firearms must inform the registrar within 15 days. The heir must inform the registrar within 30 days of the date of the licensee's death. Otherwise, there is an offence. The migration must be transferred to the registrar within 15 days of the date of relocation, with 2 notices to the local registrar who has moved within 15 days of the date of removal and informs the registrar within 15 days of the date of removal. Who does not plead guilty 5) The licensee If you become ineligible for a later license, such as being insane or incapacitated, you must return the weapon. firearms and licences to the registrar without delay, otherwise there will be an offence. Firearms must be delivered without delay to customs personnel or to the local registrar. Otherwise, there will be power 10. The registrar has the power to revoke Allowed if issued astray or the licensee is a person who has been punished in the past. Once revoked, the licensee must give the registrar a gun and license without delay. However, allowing others to use another person's license or license. He was sentenced to life in prison.
