Blue springs ranch missouri

This campsite is not too shady and they want to pay for everything. In addition to the first two, there is an extra charge for each adult. Children over 8 years old will be charged extra. It's so weird. They're already asking for $40 a night for electrical, water and sewer connections. Oh, and if you want to raft, it costs extra to fill up the raft at full capacity. It may be a 6-person raft, but if you want to have 6 people in it, it will cost extra. Oh, and it costs extra to take a shower there as well. Look at what I mean, being asked to do everything. We like to camp and camp several times a year. This campsite was the least favorite and most expensive. Unfortunately, the last two experiences have been terrible! Something definitely charged me! Employees extremely rude, especially the owner and business practices bordering on the illegal? We were charged $200 for the credit card on which our booking booked after we left and called it a cleaning fee without approval. However before we left. . We booked a bus months in advance to go into town. When the night came, we were told we had to pay double salary or they wouldn't leave the building. Every family member who logged in had been goied for more money even though their reservations had been paid full for months. We thought we were just distracted when it happened to us, but realized we had to run a scam after it happened to several other people. The last straw came after booking the largest cabin a year earlier (before this past summer experience) with our family Xmas. There have been numerous attempts to contact BSR in the week before our booking, but to no avail. As a last ditch effort, the day we were due to log in, I made a plea on my Facebook page to recall the calls. Within an hour, a post appeared on Facebook that they were closed due to the weather. Family members of TX, OK, STL & KC were ... Several Blue Springs Ranch is a vacation destination offering cabins, camping, floating paths, zip line and trail riding.
