Paratransit application form

Call us (203) 365-8522 iw. 2061 If you have a disability that prevents you from using a fixed Pace bus route or CTA bus or train, you may be eligible for the ADA Paratransit service. ADA Paratransit is a ride-share, advanced booking, start-to-destination service for people who, due to their disability, are unable to use cta or pace transit service for some or all of their travel. Under federal law, Metro is not required to provide ADA Paratransit. However, Metro is required to meet federal accessibility standards for its rail services and train stations and provides the P-8 service, which is a shuttle service from qualified origin to the next available station. The ADA Paratransit application process is designed for people whose disability or health condition may prevent them from using CTA and/or Pace fixed route services for some or all of their travels. If you are interested in using the ADA Paratransit service, you must apply and find eligible under ADA guidelines. The ADA Paratransit RTA certification program defines a person's functional capabilities and limitations in using fixed-route services. To apply for ADA Paratransit, call the ADA Paratransit RTA Certification Program at 312-663-HELP (4357) between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, to apply. Applications are available in regular or large Print English, Spanish, Braille, cd or audio tape. After completing as many applications as possible, call rta paratransit certification program at 312-663-HELP (4357) to schedule an interview in one of our two interviews and assessment sites. If necessary, we will provide free transportation for an interview and services of an American sign language or a Spanish translator. Please bring your completed application and take a photo for an interview. You can also bring additional information about your disability or health status, but this is not required. During the interview, we will review the Application Form and help you fill it out if necessary. We will also discuss your travel options and restrictions with you in more detail. You may be asked to take a mock bus trip. It will take about 30 to 45 minutes and will give us a better idea of your travel options and limitations. Please dress up for the weather as you may be asked to go outside. A decision on the proposal will be taken within 21 days of the end of the qualification and evaluation. If a decision is not made within 21 days, we will provide you with the ADA Paratransit service until a final decision is made. You will be notified of your rights by letter. If you are to be eligible for ADA Paratransit for some or all of your trips, you will receive a Certification Letter, Customer Guide with information on how to use the service and photo ID. Types of allowances There are three types of entitlements: Unconditional entitlements - your disability or health condition always prevents the use of fixed-route buses or L trains and you qualify for the ADA Paratransit service for all journeys. Conditional entitlements — You can use fixed buses or L trains for certain journeys and qualify for the ADA Paratransit service for other trips when your disability or environmental barriers prevent you from using the fixed route transit service. Temporary entitlements — you have a medical condition or disability that temporarily prevents the use of fixed-route buses or L trains. You can appeal any permission decisions made by rta that restricts your ability to use ADA Paratransit. For example: you have been found You are not eligible for ADA Paratransit You have been found conditionally eligible and you do not agree with the eligibility categories that you received or believe that the conditional status is invalid. The rights granted are Temporary Disability and you do not agree that your rights are temporary. All requests for appeal must be written and must be sent to: ADA Certifier Regional Transportation Authority 175 W.
