My husband and I celebrated our 8th anniversary and we were to support local eateries. I read a review of this restaurant and saw that the food was good, so I booked for 2. I was seated immediately upon arrival. Our glass of water was full and a waitress came over for our drink order. After pulling out our wine, the waitress will review the special and take a look at the menu a little more. She took our order back, my chicken parmigiana and minestrone soup and my husband chose gnocchi. The waitress was great. She just came around to check on us, not too much. The soup came out and was great! It was a different minestrone than I'm using, but it was flavorful and delicious! I thought the food was probably hot (the temperature was hot), so I cooled down a bit and ate a bite. same taste, or lack of what I should say. I ate about 5-7 or more bites and asked for a take-out box. I love chicken palm, but this dish didn't have enough taste. It's like an uns seasoned tomato sauce. No garlic, no basil or Italian condiments. I ate it the next day for dinner and it was still missing. I was disappointed, but I didn't count Garibaldi's outs. I've read too many good reviews on their food and will definitely give them another try on another dish next time. Around.
