At the 2010 census, its population was 26,586. [5] The name reflects the existence of spas in the area, which has made Saratoga a popular resort destination for more than 200 years. It is home to the Saratoga Race Course, a perfect horse race track, and the Performing Arts Center Saratoga, a venue for music and dance. The city's official motto is Health, History and Horses. [7] History See also: Timeline of Saratoga Springs, New York The British built Fort Saratoga in 1691 on the west bank of the Hudson River. Shortly there, British colonialists settled the current village of Schuylerville, about a mile south; until 1831 it was known as Saratoga. Native Americans believed that the springs, about 10 miles (16 kilometers) west of the village—now called Rock Spring—had medicinal properties. In 1767, William Johnson, a British Indian affairs in the
