It is mid-December, and SOS Brigade chief Haruhi Suzumiya announces that the Brigade will hold a Christmas party in its clubroom, with Japanese hotpot for dinner. Members of the Kyon brigade, Yuki Nagato, Mikuru Asahina and Itsuki Koizumi begin to prepare everything for the party, such as costumes and decorations. But a couple of days later, Kyon arrives at school only to find that Haruhi is missing. Not only that, but Mikuru claims that she had never met Kyon before. Koizumi is also missing, and Yuki has become the only member of the literature club. The SOS Brigade seems never to have existed, nor has Haruhi Suzumiya. No one at school has ever heard of it... except Kyon. KissAnime Review: Haruhi Suzumiya's disappearance is the most beautiful animes of the year 2010 I don't see many anime online in the science fiction genre, but this one was great. It's really hard to distinguish the good from the good. Best of all, you need to find out what makes this important. Write, direct, cinematography and take into account the effect of taking into account. The disappearance of Haruhi Suzumiya's one of the best anime films ever made, I love music. There isn't a single bad thing with this anime. Set the 10/10 standard for all other existing animes for me. Special effects, action and characters give this high rating. ... On December 17, Kyon's life was abnormal: he spent his spare time with an alien robot (Yuki), a time traveler (Mikuru), and an ESPer (Koizumi), trying to keep a strong classmate (the eponymous Haruhi) entertained so that he does not inadmantially destroy the world.
