At the age of fifteen, we all have a dream of playing or sing ingesting with a rock'n'-rock band. But tell us why your dream would be a jot (or some other objection) ? Take in a bag of coins and talk about every speaker that happened or something they were doing in this year that is sealed on the skaka. Collect some products from the grocery shelf or hardware store. Each TT speaker selects one of the items out of a bag and has to do a TV commercial on its product. Cut pictures (a caption) from a newspaper or magazine. Select one of the speakers and tell this club what's going on in the picture. Everyone in the club knows that anyone writes a secret about themselves. Each speaker takes one of the notes, read it, and they think they write notes and why. Give every speaker a dear Yibi question and give them your opinion. This can be made by the tata table themes by master or genuine ones advice column. Each speaker will give a sheet of paper with strange pictures prepared by a child (or you) and the speaker discussing the importance of the work of an art critic (or lack thereof). Every speaker to talk about a simple situation, for example, your day at the beach or at the zoo. While he is the speaker, an unrelated word is shouting that the speaker should try to include it in his subject. (Depending on their experience, about six words per speaker). For example, the speaker could say that I was running along the sand and the blue sky was bathed, and then the theme master tiger out. This word should be included in the subject. The speaker could then say that I met someone I saw great in my lion colored bathing suite. Give the speaker a quotation of the interpretation. Give the speakers a strange and sunny word from the dictionary and ask them what they understand the meaning of the word. Finally, give real praise. Give the speaker a book title that they just write and are promoting the tour and their members explain that we should all hurry out and buy the amazing book. If people in your club are born in different areas (and/or different countries), try this: What do people think they know about your birth is true? If you can have any age again for a week, what age and why? If you can fly to any city in the world in a hot air blown, which city would you choose? If you can go back in time and talk to you at the age of ten, what advice would you give you? If you can travel in time to meet anyone in your family history, do you want to meet the most? What would it be if you had to wear a button with a maximum of five words and why? Danger! Come with the six question category and then create five questions for each type. Read a paragraph from different letters to your local paper editor and members have responded with their feedback. Some people say that a little white lies are sometimes okay. what do you think? Sometimes a pig like change wants to sing, it just asks you and has the sornoyes. When was the last time you taught a pig to sing? Sometimes when you look at a big task, it's important to approach it like you eat an elephant: one bite at a time. Which end will you start and why? Spend a minute reviewing either the basic introduction. Then take every speaker and take them. Object out of a bag, and introduce them to it that they have pulled. (Vegetables work well... This is to say that the difference between inclusion and determination is like a chicken or pig for a dissonant. Chicken is involved, and pigs are committed. It comes to life, who are you, a chicken or a pig? Think of 4 or 5 unusual situations that would normally be considered bad news. Instead challenge your speakers to make good news of them. Some ideas: (1) You are the mayor of Hamilton. Godzalla is just the trashad in the city area. Explain that it's good for the Hamiltonans. (2) Exotic only Behvi Vapurasad. You are the Prime Minister. Each speaker has made a story by taking four pieces of paper or card and using all 4 words. (You may also need to use the word of the day.) The different conditions of the word are fine (if the word is microscope, then the microstory can be used). You fly on the tail fine of a Boeing 747 that has been asleep. Wake you up and the plane is going 400 miles per hour! How do you feel? Writing some unusual or very defining colors on small slip of paper (day-to-day rose orange, Egyptian green, rajaness pink etc.), make a list of questions with lines: Explain why all his clothes will be in this color this summer why he/she should buy a car in that color. Ask the speaker the next question in the list to get the slip. You never know what you'll get.
