M and m easter poem printable

Welcome to another FREE Friday! Many of you remember my Christmas M&M's Printable Poem, which was a huge hit in December. One of my amazing readers suggested a few line changes that would make the same poem apply to Easter and thought I should create a print bar out for you. I was thrilled to oblige, and here's what I came up with: I used some pretty pastel colors that go really well with Easter M&M's! This poem has such an amazing message and it's so easy to pair with some M&M's candy to make it a perfect little handout for friends, neighbors, teachers, kids or anyone! If you want to download this free 5X7 print, you can click on the image below: If you like the poem but don't love my design (hey, to each his own!) here are the words. Feel free to copy and paste to your delight! As you hold these candies in your hand, and turn them, you'll see they tell easter story ~ I'm sure it's one you know ~ It happened on the cross, The M is for miracles. Jesus performed signs and wonders. The 3 is for the third day He cleansed all sins of men! So when you eat these sweets or share them with a friend, remember the importance of Easter. It's a love that never ends! Keep in mind that you can print it out on plain paper and roll it up like a scroll, shrink a little to use as a tag, adhere to the front of a card, or frame for something extra special. The possibilities are limited only to your imagination! Happy Easter and keep crafting!
