It is one of three bona fide church schools in Vicomico County, along with the Francis sale and Salisbury Baptist Academy. Fett Baptist School currently enrolls preschool grades through 12th grade. The mascot of the school is a falcon, and its colors are maroon and gray. Faith Baptist School is a school member of the Maryland Association of Christian Schools and the American Association of Christian Schools. History Faith Baptist School opened in 1983 with 17 students. Kindergarten in the sixth grade were offered first grade. The school's first administrator, Mark Iago, along with Ms. Martha Wood, and Ms. Kim Sterling made the school's original faculty. Mr. Jago is responsible for choosing falcon as the school's mascot, as well as a gray and maroon color scheme. In in the second year, the population of its student doubles. Every year after its creation, the school added a new class until it reached its full complement, which it retains today. [2] In the past, FBS students have participated in the community around them, such as local competitions, Handibel and Choir concerts and other volunteer opportunities. In 2014, John Jokol was recognized as an artist in the Geocache Daesh and Bash Art Competition. [3] A recent fourth class group placed in the essay region in the essay contest in the Maryland Municipal League If I Were Mayor.
