Join Date: June 2010 Location: Busy Vespuchia Posts: 10,441 iTrader: 26 / 100% Issue sizing Butler Creek flip-ups to Prostaff 3-9x40 I have a Nikon Prostaff 3-9x40 BDC scope. The eyepiece outside the diameter is 39.3/1.55, this fits BC 10/11 1.516-1.550 38.5-39.4. The problem is the objective diameter. Mine is 47.3/1.86. The BC chart has only these listed. There's a gap where my size should be. What can I do? Thank. Sooner or later, they will cost you an animal by not being able to get off a quick shot. I've seen this happen, so it's not BS. It may also be the only animal shooting on an expensive guided hunt like what happened to a friend of mine. For BG hunting the K.I.S.S. theory is the best. The same goes for domains that have 17 adjustments that need to be made before they can shoot. Also, you don't need the hubble space scope for hunting BG. A 30cal will reach and touch them. A 50cal will kick them in the ass. Watched a friend lose a nice dollar he scared the cover that way, had a nice broadside kick when dollar dollar for a moment, he picked up the rifle, realized that the lids were on, by the time he activated his flip-ups, buck was over the ridge and he was gone. 02-12-2013, 10:56 Calguns is my Facebook! I think I went smaller, but I need to check it out later. LGS said I can return them for the biggest, but I kept it. Laws and common sense is all up to interpretation for us humans... and guess what? Posts: 12,655 iTrader: 51 / 100% are you measuring with micro meter or calipers? If so, you might be a little off... The Nikkon website shows the outer diameter lens is 50mm and the outer eye diameter is 44mm: BC #30 or #31 for the lens and #19 for the eyes... or if you don't mind not having the button to flip open, use obj #21 or #23 for the eye piece. This is my first scope and I need to get some lens covers. I can't seem to find out exactly what the scope model is, so it's making it hard to know what cover I need to get. Does anyone have this gun or does anyone know what cover I need? Thank! If it's Nikon Prostaff 3-9x40, use Butler Creek 19 and Butler Creek 31 Feb 2, 2014 39 6 Southern IN I like Butler Creek flip up caps (covers). You should be able to measure or ask for help if ordering from bass pro/cabelas/GM etc. much more than bikini covers in my opinion. May 11, 2012 222 16 Muncie Thanks for the answers. I think I'd like to flip up the caps better. Please enable cookies are not currently enabled in your browser, and for this reason the functionality our website will be severely restricted.
