In Japan, Obon evolved from the religious custom of honoring the deceased with memorial services. During this time, similar holidays are observed throughout the Buddhist world. The traditional Obon dance, which expresses joy in the teachings of the Buddha, will be performed on Saturday and Sunday from 19:00 to 20:30 .m with a break. The movements show the livelihood of the villagers such as fishermen, miners and farmers. Their participation in the other temple dancers is highly appreciated. The Bazaar Carnival takes place on Saturday from 2 pm to 9 pm.m and on Sunday from 2 pm to 8.30 pm .m. This event will offer many games for young and old. This year's raffle offers many prizes, including the main prize is 2000 dollars. The draw will take place on Sunday at 8.30 p.m. Winners do not have to be present to win. We will have handicrafts and agricultural products at bargain prices. Delicious Asian dishes such as beef and chicken teriyaki, sushi, udon (Japanese noodles), won ton, corn, teri burgers, oriental chicken salad, Okinawa Dango (donuts), Imagawa yaki (sweet bean dessert), odes, soft drinks, snow cones and other treats are offered. The Hondo (sanctuary) is open to all interested visitors and hosts the Buddhist Education Center of the Buddhist Church orange County are available for questions. Books about Buddhism are sold at the entrance of the Hondo.Games and prizes for the children. Ball Rd., AnaheimNote here are more parking tips: could be packed. 1) Carpool2) Let your family & friends near the Obon3) Search for on the roadEditor: Hopefully in 2020 OCBC:1) Fix the huge parking demand next year.2) Anticipate the demand for food. The lines are few, but still do not say where the line starts, we were in the wrong line. Also can not hear the numbers called. The one-line approach to food is nice, but not recognized that you can get your napkins, utensils in another area. Also drinks are in another area. And to the left of the drinks is another food area. Didn't know what it was. Suggestion: Huge signs for food: Step 1: Fill in the form; Step 2: Pay; Step 3: Pick up food; Step 4: Drinks & Utensils.
