The following 57 pages are in this category, out of a total of 57. Most players start playing a game, do you often ask yourself questions like which profession to play? What profession is strong? Which profession suits me? Dragon Nest Mobile has a large and varied class/career system, suitable for every game, ranging from scuffle, long distance battle, physics, licensing, summons ... To avoid the case that you don't know which class to choose, this article by gamer Nguyen Quoc Manh will guide you. Warrior &gt; Sword Master &gt; Gladiatorarcher &gt; Acrobat &gt; Windwalker / TempestCleric &gt; Paladin &gt; Fennelassasin &gt; C&gt; Ripper. - CONS: If you don't know an easy-hitting Dodge, pvp needs high technology. Classy Dragon Ken Moby &gt; Sword Master &gt; MoonlordArcher &gt; Rainbow Master &gt; Sniper /Artillery &gt; Power &gt; Smash. - CONS: Easy to lose skill if soup is not standard. Engineer &gt; Academic &gt; Gear Master / Shooting StarAssasin &gt; Binger &gt; Light Rage / Abyss Treadmill: Stand from a distance watching students fight, no need to dip their hands much. - CONS: Fear of combos. Best DNM SupportChrrick &gt; Priest &gt; Saint (Role Healer Staff)Cleric &gt; Paladin &gt; Guardian (Tanker Role – Important When Walking to dragon's lair and guild scene)Essine &gt; Brings &gt; Light Fury (Medicinal Role, Sub-dps - Vascular and Some Lady)Academic &gt; Alchemist &gt; Doctor sub-dps, enthusiasts reduce CD skill - the blood vessels of the team, have a bit of a lady and an enthusiast to accelerate the skill (rating and rating heal ability : light rage &gt; st. &gt; doctor- advantages: the important position when going to a hard nest - cons: due to the need for a skill slot for healing should result in less lady than other dps. PvE grade game, PvP Dragon Ken MobieClass which pve good? – This question is like a class question that plays well. - For a good pvp , it should depend on your level and actual persistence in pvp. The motto of PVP is to eat more onions and would be good. No one was born well. But I can give some clues about the class that causes a pvp delay including: Academic &gt; Engineer &gt; Gear Master /Shooting StarAssasin &gt; Brings &gt; Light Rage/Treadmill Abyss Why These Lessons Are Delaying: Because of the possibility of summoning students to fight, you will meet Long subpoena categories have finished running around to allow students to kill enemies and win easily, but if your skills are tough, I believe you can still act because the downside of subpoena rates is the fear of being close and beating combos all the time. Which Moby Ken Dragons team plays best? - This is a rather unnecessary question, because the strong or weak depends on how hard your furniture builds, for Dragon Ken Mobile, whether you are dps or support, as long as your furniture is delicious, the lady you cause is still great, just depending on how the class fits your game or not. Is there a strong squad to win? - The answer is no. The Dragon's Nest is very balanced in the class system, there will be a time when he sucks up to this powerful class, then goes on again, and then lets another class get to the throne. Usually the repeat lessons will be stronger than the previous one in the first period, then slowly be gradually reduced. For example, in the new era, Essine will master that the skill is quite great and a great lady, but when Callie comes out, Callie will be stronger, so some time later, the game will give Bow Master the throne so that no class will be strong forever, choose your favorite class to play durable. If you don't like this squad anymore you want to play in another class but are afraid to plough again. - The game will allow you to switch lessons to other lessons with the same furniture you use. However, the downside when playing in another class is that it will take a lot of BP (fighting power) but force you to build things again. Besides, switching classes means you have to practice PVP from scratch with the new class, which can cost you a few dozen pvp battles to get used to the skill of the new class. The above are frequently asked questions when you start playing DNM and suggest choosing the class of gamer Nguyen Quoc Manh, you have questions about which class/profession to answer, just leave a comment. As we enter the third decade of the 21st century, all games seem to get their mobile port. Dragon Nest M is reimagining a portable Dragon's Nest MMORPG PC that was run a decade ago. Many people enjoyed the original game and it was particularly praised for its PvP aspect as well as some other things. The series had several other instalments, with Dragon's Nest World the last of the franchise, Dragon Nest M is the company's first blow to the mobile market, and here's an overview of how they did, with the guides section after that we prepared from various community sources. ★ ★ ★ ★ development site Ken M release date was in June 2018 and is offered by koramgame on Google Play... Dragon Nest M's release date was June 2018 and is offered by koramgame on Google Play, which are also game developers, while it is offered by Kunlun Global Sdn Bhd in the iTunes app store. On Google Play, this game has a very positive score of 4.4 stars out of over 100,000 votes, which is quite a lot and reliable. iOS users seem to be enjoying the game a little less with a 3.7 star score in the iTunes app store. While other famous studios, like Nexon, were in some of the titles of the next Dragon franchise, it deposited a koramgame who is well behind BLEACH Mobile 3D and These: Initial Chaos. There is another version of this game called Dragon Nest M – Sea. This is a remastered version for the English-speaking market, offered by SIAMGAME and it's pretty much the same game, but it came out later and when the original was translated by koramgame, it's one kind of dead, with its latest update being 2019. The official version, just named DN M, is regularly updated and very live, with players and community is strong and fresh updates. ★ ★ ★ ★ atmosphere this game feels very neat and tidy, as opposed to the chaotic atmosphere many similar titles carry... As far as action RPGs go, the atmosphere consists mainly of the environment like dungeons, scenery, and of course the monsters you encounter. At DN M, they abound, like this one MMO action packed. Also, compared to many other MMORPGs on mobile, this game feels very neat and tidy, as opposed to the chaotic atmosphere many similar titles carry. This is achieved with a well-organized user interface and other innovative game mechanics aimed at providing a better user experience. The rest is just made of animations, spells, and effects all popping up on the screen, which are all hallmarks of the genre and is all present here. The plot takes us into the fantasy world of Alterra, where stars who fell from the sky brought both salvation and the destruction of the people. While one of those stars brought the soul of the prophet, evil has also cost as well and now chaos abounds. The players are tasked with doing their part to stave off the rise of evil and bring order to the world. ★ ★ ★ ★ GAMEplay as stated, all the hallmarks of MMORPG are here, but right at first glance. DN M is much more organized and organized, with a clear user interface as stated... As we said before, all the hallmarks of MMORPG are here, but right at first glance. DN M is much more organized and organized, with a clear As mentioned above, but also other genre elements designed to make the user experience sediate and purpose-setting. For example, the automatic path feature, which is now a standard addition to MMORPGs, was pioneered only in 2018, when this title was released. The control program is also very advanced compared to many headlines two years ago. The player moves the character with one thumb sweep, while the other thumb uses skills and abilities in the slot on the other side of the screen (you can change which one it is). Furthermore, swiping on the other side of the screen (in front of motion) will also rotate the camera to any angle you want, rotating around your character of course. The user interface is cleaner than all the options, icons, suggestions, and all things. There is even a removable option that you can choose to set aside and clear your user interface even further. All these features help bring the focus to the game, where it belongs, and give the players a clear view of the game. One of R.P.G.'s trademarks is the class system, and character lessons in DN M are seven: Cali – medium and short term magic attacks and summoning tinker creatures – mid-range magic attacks and summoning cleric pets – scuffle range attacks magic fighter strong defense – scuffle physical attacks fast range of movement witch – magic attacks in the medium term and massive AOE damage Archer – physical attacks in the medium term and fast shooting assassin – physical DPS scuffle and heavy burst damage right from the start we see Traditional, character classes at DN M are all but standard., First, the cleric is both an supporter and a tank, while we also have nice additions of some less popular lessons like Tinker. All classes have a different score of difficulty in the action given by the entrepreneur, with scuffle lessons as the cleric and fighter being easier to master, and with the witch being the hardest, but not every one of them can be crowned as the best class, because everyone bring their skills to the table. All classes also have many different abilities that you can learn and master, while you have to choose which setting to equip slots available for use in combat. Classes have 9 basic skills, all of which have ranks (some 5 and 10). In addition, all classes also have special skills locked in at levels 15 and 45, and they can also reach the level of awakening. ★ ★ ★ ★ graphics with all the mess and unnecessary icons removed, preventing them from clogging up the user interface, it gives the player a view of the full 3D spectrum of this game of beautiful animations, character models, textures... With all the mess and unnecessary icons removed, preventing them from clogging up the user interface, it gives the player a view of this game's full 3D spectrum of beautiful animations, character models, textures, details, and more. DN M is a full tri-miw game, with Camera capabilities and an incredibly pleasant feeling all around, visually. The character's models are faithful representations of the old Dragon's Reed characters a decade ago, but are now more detailed and completely refurbished. ★ ★ ★ ★ compatibility game can be somewhat demanding at the high points in the game... Dragon Nest M is a full 3D game, with 3D characters, ambient and animations. The game can be so somewhat demanding at the high points in the game, like massive boss fights or PvP. However, the game will come out in 2018, so a smartphone isn't decent and won't have a problem with it. We recommend more than 2 GB of RAM for CPU speed. Android players will need os version 4.3 or higher and the size of the game app varies, while iOS users will need iOS 9.0 or higher, and the file size is predetermined at 3GB. ★ ★ ★ ★ free-to-play friendly microtraces are limited to the store, to which they belong... Cleaning the user interface we mentioned means there are no annoying suggestions popping up on the screen while you play. Microtrences are limited to the store, where they belong. Also, DN M is totally free to do download and play, and you can achieve everything in the game without spending real money. However, playing it competitively against other players will require cash, for people who want to be best spending a lot on these types of games. In-game increases and packages vary in price from $0.99 to $99.99, which is a standard price range for most mobile games. ★ ★ ★ ★ verdict many people who love MMORPGs choose to try Dragon Ken M and an overwhelming majority stick with it. Many people who love MMORPGs choose to try Dragon Ken M and an overwhelming majority stick with it. It may be one of the best looking mobile games of its genre, not only for full 3D quality but clear user interface. Also, the game is adapted to save us from the usual tired things in these types of games. For instance, this game was one of the first to pioneer an automatic path, just tap the journey and you find the NPC, no fuss. It's definitely worth the try and it will prove fun and engaging. Quick Links: Agriculture is a crucial part of DN M and farm you need seeds. All kinds of seeds are usually purchased from the old Murray's Tribute. The players plant seeds in the public farm field and they surrender various harvest items. These items are commonly used for cooking. Now, one of the more elusive seeds is the cocoa seeds, alongside peach and maybe another. And unfortunately, there's no way to guarantee his return. You get cocoa seeds by RNG. So, with any luck, if you experience regularly, you hope to get the amount you need. BP, or battle points, is the measure of your character's strength. As with similar games you upload it throughout all kinds of game activities. While the usual things are mandatory, like progress in the game, doing tasks, PvP, and stuff, there are a few other things you can do to further increase BP or increase it quickly if you start a new account. You can make an improvement for your equipment, for which you need gold and green goeths. You can then make the breakthrough, available after you cheat your equipment to +20 and then +40. You have to consider other things, like refinement, nicknames, battle medals and palace, heralds, and more. The easiest way to get wings is as a random reward. However, if you are truly unlucky, you can purchase wings for 12 Alliye Blessings in the Violent Bazaar. Just go to the Violent Bazaar, tap Wings, and choose your set. Today, it offers zodiac wings, greeting wings as well as some tails, but more can be added later. Collect 12 Greetings of Alteia Go Violent' Bazaar Tap Wings to purchase your set This is a problem most players encounter because they create a character by mistake, want to try other classes, or they want to change the class but keep the same character name. Unfortunately, you cannot delete your character. At least this option is not yet available. However, if that's the character name you want, you can change the name for free on your character easily, or also change the class for your end, but it will cost you. Level 120/130 equipment is the prestigious level for equipment and is highly sought after by late game players for competitive PvP and PvE content. There are several types of level 120/130 equipment in the game. The first is through weekly missions. It can also be purchased at the auction house for orange or diamond gems, which is earned through daily tasks and other sources. However, the best, fastest and most popular way to get equipment at this level 120/130 is from Nest Lair Enchanted to similar raids mode. We say easy, provided you're in a clot that challenges PvE content. Making the nest on the magical difficulty will yield type B equipment. however, there is also the PvP store where you can purchase Like the most wanted amulet. It is also awarded for PVP gladiators. There's first- and sixth graders Haraldr and 6th grader Haraldr, and Haraldr 2nd so far in the game. You may also try purchasing it at the auction house, but they may prove expensive. The best option for getting high-class equipment, like the amulet, is through consistency in the jamming of PvE or PvP. In order to be able to achieve the Dark Avenger, your class needs to be Swordmaster/Mercenary, which is called differently depending on whether it's from DN M or DN M Sea. So, change class if you're sure you're after it. After that, your main class journey will change to the dark Avengers journey. The journey line will guide you through the progress. First, you clear all the mobs in the search area. Second, you kill the bigger monsters, and then you have to kill the final boss Spectre. It's the first half of the Dark Avenger's journey line. In part two, you must defeat Velskud in a duel, which may prove challenging, but after the Dark Avengers department is over will be open and available for you. If you want to play silver hunter, you're going to have to pick the Hunter pedd? All hunters, upon reaching level 50, become silver hunters. This is a highly sought-after lesson because they are handing out crazy damage and have high mobility. Money hunters are acrobatics and artillery skills all put one, and they perform most of their skills in the air, which is amazing to see and incredibly effective against all kinds of opponents. At level 50, you start the Hunter Awakenings journey as well, which is your path to your residency. If you're looking for a way to combine lower-level outfits to get an A or S costume, it's done by creating. You have to use 2 permanent outfits of the same body part (formerly: head + head) found in personal stores or fame, but each experience has a chance of success. If you fail, your next chance of trial success will increase by 1%. Two of those ranks will give the higher level (formerly B+B=A). New costumes are constantly added to the game if you play. DN M Sea is no longer updated, and there are no S. Costumes there. There is no best squad, so naturally, you have to choose one best tailored to your game preferences. In the past it was impossible to change the squad in the game, unless you want to re-roll the entire character, but another class change later. Now, you need a coupon for a grade change, which is a general level 40 material, very rare. Once used, you'll go to the Change Class screen, where you can select a new class and even run it on trial, before deciding to commit. Perform.
