Southern pines women's health center doctors

Welcome Welcome First Greeting to Carolina closely monitors the outbreak of coronavirus that causes COVID-19. In accordance with local and state health officials, we are committed to helping our communities stay safe and get up-to-date information about the outbreak. On June 17, 2020, FirstHealth will lift its visitor restriction policies in all hospitals and clinics that allow one supportive person or attendant in all facilities and clinics for acute care. Patients need to identify their support person to help them during care. The support person/companion must be 18 years of age or older. All patient communication must be through myCharta FirstHealth. Please do not use the MY PATIENT link to send messages to our staff. Patients should click here to visit their FirstHealth My Chart account. Click here to take our patient satisfaction survey. Your responses will help us serve you better. SPWHC is here to cater for the health needs of women in Moore and surrounding districts. The 15,000-square-foot center emphasizes comfort and confidentiality – dressed in soothing low-key earth colors and includes individual work rooms where patients can explain symptoms or the reason for naming them alone. The facility also provides the latest technology and a full range of health services in one place, reducing costs and reducing patient waiting times. The four halls have 14 exam rooms and two procedure rooms, plus three ultrasonic machines and laboratory services. The centre also has a whole body bone density scanner to help doctors diagnose osteoporosis. The conference centre offers new innovative projects, such as the Well-Woman educational series. Interesting presentations will include topics such as internal treatment of excessive uterine bleeding, preventive wellness for women of all ages and a number of issues of primary care for women; to name them. The SPWHCs facility, above, offers the latest amenities and services. The spacious living room offers a relaxed setting that opens up the surrounding wooded setting. There is even a fish napon and waterfall, which are especially popular with patients and children. Our providers Our providers Next is a list of our providers and where they are available. Leading OB-GYNS in Pinehurst, Southern Pines, Fayetteville, N.C. & Beyond.Listen to what our patients have to say about our truly specialized female comprehensive health providers. Actually, I'm dr. Since I started seeing her, my mother, sister-in-care, cousin and best friend have become patients. I think dr. He's going to be an amazing doctor. I recommend it to every rookie in the area I meet. I've been with him for 12 years, and I wouldn't think of seeing anyone else. Dr. Machin is always so polite and bold. I love coming to her! I never feel like I'm just another patient to check her list. She always takes the time to explain everything to me and feel like she really cares. I have complete confidence in her.
