There is also a top trail system incorporating a super D course, a new Flow Trail and jaws for jumps and berms. If you have the time and stamina, make the extra black loops, Upper and Reveille Peak, this is the newest trail system in the Austin area that has just been built by the Ridgeriders on a private ranch. The big opening weekend is February 12-13 with race events. Trails open most weekends after that - when no race, the land access fee is $10. The trail is very tight in places and is considered an advanced trail. There's smooth earth here and there.
