On the transfer Zulema tries to escape, albeit without good results. Mercedes constantly receives threats, so she gets scared and decides to inherit the drug business that used to be Anabel's. Sandoval becomes the new director of Cruz del Norte and begins to bring order in his own way. Zulema returns to Cruz del Norte, with Hierro as the new official, where Altigracia asks him for help in fleeing. The Mexican knows that she is not loved by prison officials and inmates, so she wants to leave immediately before she is killed. Zulema also meets Saray and they have a fight in the dining room. Rizos makes a decision that exposes her to Sandoval's retaliation. After Altigracia's escape, the prison becomes uninhabitable for the inmates. Sandoval is angry and knows that Zulema knows where the Mexican is. The director tries to get the information from Zulema, who says nothing. For this reason, Sandoval imposes strict and unfair rules until the dam wants to speak. Which ends with a great tension between Zulema and the rest of the loot. To find out Altigracia's whereabouts and the pressure to Zulema, Sandoval decides to oust Fatima (Zulema's daughter) from prison. Although Zulema does not give in at first, her maternal instinct soon appears when her daughter became Goya's target. While Altigracia has a plan in mind, he puts the entire prison on alert to get Zulema to flee. Palacios establishes a prison choir and plans to visit a nursing home for the premiere. However, this exit from North Cross is an opportunity for dams to make other plans. After being attacked by Goya, Fatima reaches for Sandoval's help and feels protected. This is not well seen with the other prey facing him. Meanwhile, Zulema is taken to Ms. Cruz to negotiate peace in prison, but the inmate does not give in. Sole's health is getting worse by the day, so Sandoval decides to move her to another center with better care. Despite Zulema's warnings to his daughter about Sandoval, Fatima uses the one he received to exact revenge. Practice. other inmates. Meanwhile, Ms. Cruz and Sandoval are taking their last chance for Zulema to talk about where Altigracia is. Tere also meets her former partner at her father's funeral. Officials in Cruz del Norte are conducting a search in which they find some pills That Sole has kept for suicide, and his transfer from prison is complicated by an insurgency that officials cannot control. After the raid, Fatima is released from prison and leaves a letter to her mother Zulema. On the other hand, Macarena wakes up from a coma and returns to prison, where she is greeted with a welcome party. He also encounters the prison somewhat chattering: curls in isolation and Zulema wants revenge on Sandoval. After Salvador's failed attempt to move brine to another center, the inmates control the prison and take prison officials like Palacios or Millon hostage. At this moment, Sandoval begins his escape because he knows that Zulema is seeking revenge and is pursuing him to end his life. Meanwhile, Maca sets out in search of Rizos, who is in solitary confinement. Outside, police are preparing to storm the North Cross, although Ms Cruz's presence inside complicates the plan. Score Season: Page 2 After being forced to flee prison by Zulema, just as she had to go to a hearing with the judge, Macarena will do her best to escape her companions despite their freedom. Her decisions will lead her to the goal of Zulema, who is unwilling to leave those who harm her, even though she is aware that they need each other in an emergency. Moreover, Macarena will enter a spiral of decadence in which much is at stake and will push her to the limits she could never have imagined. In Cruz del Sur, his escape had consequences for Macarena's former companions and his company. Among them, greater security measures have been introduced and Valbuena has become the new head of security. A position from which he does not seem gracious. The harsh measures will do nothing but grow the hatred of prey on their former comrades. Score Season: Page 3 After losing virtually everything, Macarena and her fellow inmates are moved to a new complex: Cruz del Norte. There, the one who had become Queen of Cruz del Sur will have to find her place, while she tries not to come from her now-familiar leader and assumes that she will never get out of prison. Zulema's return after waking up from the coma doesn't seem to make her any easier either, although the Queen, who entered the South Cross prefers to choose caution in an area that is new to them and fight their battles one by one. In the meantime, a surprising and unexpected event will put more than one of the loot against the ropes. A fact that will also test the prison officers themselves, especially Altigracia Guerrero, head of the complex. An aggressive woman with a fleeting personality and low empathy who exercises her control with an iron hand and even practices outside the law.
