Gobble gobble turkey trot

Runners along the course of annual Morris Township Turkey Trot Thanksgiving morning. The race benefits the Interfaith Food Pantry and Literacy Volunteers from Morris County. Editor's note: Morris Township police advise motorists to avoid Woodland Avenue, Spring Valley Road and South Street in the Township between 8am and 10pm as the race unfolds on Thanksgiving. From the Interfaith Food Pantry: Interfaith Food Pantry (IFP) and Literacy Volunteers from Morris County (LVMC) announced the 13th Annual Morris Township Thanksgiving Day Turkey Trot. This event immediately begins at 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 28, 2019, at the Ginty Field Complex in Morris Township. The USATF-certified 5k, 1 Mile Fun Run and Children's Trot has become a Thanksgiving tradition for people of all ages and abilities. In 2018, the Turkey Trot drew more than 3,000 registrars. Registration on site for the rain-or-shine race opens at 7:00, but participants are encouraged to avoid the lines and pre-register. The Turkey Trot is sponsored in part by Atlantic Sports Health, the Official Health Care Sponsor. Atlantic Sports Health will hold a Running Workshop designed to increase performance and reduce the risk of injuries for both beginners and seasoned runners. In addition to Atlantic Sports Health, Dixon Energy and Lexus of Route 10, North Jersey Development Group and PBF Energy will serve as sponsors, among other things. Proceeds from the Trot are shared between the LVMC and IFP and benefit many Morris County families who need help. The IFP currently serves more than 1,300 families a month, providing food, nutrition education, counselling and referral services. LVMC offers free one-on-one and small group instruction in basic English and ESL to more than 500 Morris County adults. For more information visit morristownshipturkeytrot.org or call 973-538-8049.
