Scholarships in arkansas for nursing students

All students find it difficult to pay their tuition fees in these troubling economic times, but there are scholarships and grants available to provide financial assistance. Scholarships and scholarships for Arkansas Students If a student wants to study nursing in Arkansas, they should be aware that there are scholarships and grants available that are either: exclusively available to residents of Arkansas; or available to residents of several states, including Arkansas (and some of these actually give preference to Arkansas residents). Arkansas scholarships and grants are offered by several types of entities, including universities, memorial trusts, student associations and The American Legion Auxiliary. Each grant or scholarship will have its own specific eligibility requirements, and although some requirements are summarised below, interested students should contact the grant delegate concerned for more information. Specific Scholarships and Grants America Legion Auxiliary Department of Arkansas Nurses Scholarship This scholarship specific goal is to provide financial assistance to the sons and daughters of American veterans who wish to study nursing at a post-secondary level. An amount of $500 is awarded each year, and the deadline for filing the scholarship application is in March of a given academic year. To be eligible to apply for this scholarship: The student and veteran parent must both be a resident of Arkansas; The veteran parent must have served during American Legion membership eligibility dates; and the student must be a high school senior or a high school graduate who has not yet begun their undergraduate studies. Other factors that will be taken into account to determine eligibility will be Americanism, character, financial needs and character. For more information on this scholarship, please contact The American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Arkansas, 1415 West 7th Street, Little Rock, AR 72201 (tel: 501-374-5836 and website: auxiliary.arlegion.org). The Arkansas Nurses Foundation Scholarships Fund offers two scholarships to student nurses, the Dorothea Funk Scholarship and the Mary Gray Scholarship and applications for these programs must be posted June 1 in the application year. Each scholarship is awarded each year, and their goal is to provide financial assistance to current members of the Arkansas Nurses Association. General qualification requirements relevant to both scholarships include: Applicants must have graduated from an NLN accredited programme and must be a current member of the ANS; and applicants should need funding to help pay for an advanced degree in another NLN accredited program. Applicants must also submit various documents to qualify for these grants, including two letters of recommendation, completed application form and and letter describing their short- and long-term goals in terms of their careers and how the new skills will help them achieve these goals. Students who wish to inquire about these scholarships can contact the Arkansas Nursing Foundation c/o Arkansas Nurses Association, 1123 South University, Suite 1015, Little Rock, AR 72204 (tel: 1-501-244-2363 and website: www.arna.org). Rosemary Berkel Crisp Research Award This is a postgraduate grant, and although it is not exclusively available to Arkansas residents, they are given priority when it comes to awarding the grant. This grant consists of a one-time annual award of $5,000 and applications must be submitted by December of a given academic year. There are several eligibility conditions to be met and these include: The applicant must be a member of the Sigma Theta Tau International organisation; The applicant must be authorised RN and must already have a master's degree or higher qualifications. the applicant should wish to carry out further studies in one of the following areas: oncology, infant/childcare or women's health. This is one of the many STTI small grants that are available, and anyone requiring additional information should contact The Research Service Specialist, STTI Honor Society of Nursing, Program Department, 550 West North Street, Indianapolis, I 46202 (tel: 888-634-7575 and website: www.nursingsociety.org.) The University of Arkansas College of Education and Healthcare Scholarships is offered by the university to students pursuing a major in, among other departments, the Eleanor Mann School of Nursing. The eligibility of each applicant will be determined on the back of several factors, including: Whether applicants reside in specific Arkansas counties; The discipline and program that applicants sign up to. and the applicants specified Grade Point Average (GPA) and demonstrated leadership skills. For more information on this scholarship, please contact the University of The Office of Academic Scholarships, 319 Graduate Education Building, 101 Old Main, Fayetteville, AR 72701 (tel: 479-575-4464 and website: www.uark.edu). CampusRN Arkansas Nursing Scholarship CampusRN has created a scholarship program in which an amount of $2,500 will be made available to another needy nursing student each year on the anniversary of the launch of the CampusRN regional/state edition of the website in that state. A $2,500 scholarship therefore becomes available to Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas resident nursing students when the CampusRN South Central Region edition website was launched and will be available every year on this date from then on. Requirements to be met for scholarship to be awarded include the following: The student's school must be registered with CampusRN (if a is not registered, the student can register it on the CampusRN website); and at least 100 applications for the South Central Region scholarship must be received by CampusRN before the grant will be awarded. The deadline to apply is April 1 of a given academic year, and more information can be obtained through CampusRN's website at arkansas.campusrn.com.
