Chapter 18: Faith in Jesus ChristLoadedThe page (MP3) Full Book (PDF) This page (PDF) RemarksTemeEp chapter 18: Faith in Jesus Christ, Gospel Principles (2011), 101-6Then chapter 18, Gospel Principles, 101–6Kapter 18Naute teachers: This chapter is organized under four titles. Every title is a question about religion. I could use these questions as a guide to my lesson. If classroom setup allows small groups to be discussed, consider dividing class members into groups of four. Ask each group to split parts of the chapter between each other. Then invite each person to do the following with their assigned section: (1) Read. (2) Find the scriptures that help answer the question in the title of the section. (3) Consider personal experience relating to the department. (4) Share thoughts about the section with other team members. Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is the first principle of the Gospel. It is a spiritual gift and is necessary for our salvation. King Benjamin declared: Salvation does not come to anyone... except by poke and faith on the Lord Jesus Christ (Mosiah 3:12). Religion is hope for things that do not see themselves that are true (Alma 32:21; see also Hebrew 11:1). Faith is the principle of action and power that motivates our daily functioning. Would you study and learn if we didn't believe that we could gain wisdom and knowledge? Would we work every day if we didn't hope we could achieve something with this? Would you be a farmer if I didn't expect the harvest? Every day we follow the things we hope for when we don't see the final result. That's faith. (See Hebrews 11:3.) Many biblical stories tell how great things have been achieved through religion. According to faith, Noa built an ark and saved the family from flooding (see Hebrews 11:7). Moses separated the waters of the Red Nightmare (see Hebrew 11:29). Elijah was called fire from heaven (see 1 Kings 18:17–40). Nephi called for a wash (see Helaman 11:3-5). He also asked the Lord to turn off the cooling (see Helaman 11:9–17). The sea has calmed down, visions have opened up and prayers have been held with all the power of faith. When we carefully study the Bible, we learn that faith is a strong belief of truth within our souls that motivates us for good. This causes us to ask: Who should we have faith in? Think about your daily activities. What things do you work on every day that you don't see the final results on? How does faith get you into action? We must have our faith Christ.To Jesus Christ means having such faith in Him that we obey everything he commands. When we place faith in Jesus Christ and become his obeyed disciples, Heavenly Father will forgive our sins and prepare us to return to Him.The Apostle Peter preached that there is no other name under heaven that would be given between the people, and we must be (Acts 4:12; see also Mosiah 3:17). Jacob taught that people must have complete faith in the Holy Israel [Jesus Christ], or they cannot be saved in the kingdom of God (2 Nephi 9:23). By using faith in the Savior and by poke, we make his salvation perfectly effective in our lives. Through faith we can also receive the power to overcome temptations (see Alma 37:33). We cannot believe in Jesus Christ without even believing in our Heavenly Father. If we have faith in them, we will also have faith that the Holy Spirit they send will teach us all truths and comfort us all. How can faith in Jesus Christ affect us in our family relationships? In our family relationships? How does faith in Jesus Christ affect our hope for an endeauous life? Knowing of the many blessings that come through the experience of faith in Jesus Christ, we must strive to increase faith in Him. The Savior said, If you have faith like a grain of mustard, ... nothing will be impossible for you (Matthew 5:20). Mustard is very small, but it grows into a big tree. How can we increase faith? In the same way we increase or develop any other skill. How do we develop the skills of woodwork, playing, painting, cooking, pottery or playing a musical instrument? We study and practice and work on it. We're improving with that. So it's with religion. If we want to increase faith in Jesus Christ, we must work on it. The Prophet Alma has compared the word of God to the seme that must be nurtured by faith:But see if you wake up and arouse your faculties, even by trying on my words and carrying out a fragment of faith, that, even if you can no longer than desire to believe that desire, let this desire work in you, even as long as you believe in the way that you can give a place for a part of my words. We're going to compare the word to the sem. And if you give a place to plant a seed in your heart, see if it is the right seed or a good seed, if you do not run it out of yours in faith to resist the Spirit of the Lord, be, be, it will begin to swell in your chest; and when you feel this swelling, you will start to speak within yourself – it must be that this is a good seed or that the word is good to begin to spread the soul of mine; yes, it's starting to brighten my understanding. Look, wouldn't that increase your faith? (Alma 32:27-29). Thus, we can increase faith in God by acting on our desire to have faith in him. But we should not assume that we just have to ask. In the scriptures, we are told that faith, if it does not work, is dead, alone (Jakob 2:17). The next story is about a man whose faith has been revealed by his works. This man wanted to study But he couldn't read. He prayed for heavenly father to help him read. Eventually, the teacher came to his village and asked the teacher to help him. He learned the alphabet. He studied sounds and learned to combine letters to make words. He soon read simple words. The more he practiced, the more he learned. He thanked the Lord for sending a teacher and helping him read. This man has increased his faith, humility and knowledge to such an extent that he served as branch president in the Church.President Spencer W. Kimball explained, They must be working with religion. How foolish it would be to ask the Lord to give us knowledge, but how wise to ask the Lord's help to acquire knowledge, to study constructively, to think clearly and to keep the things we have learned (Vera is before the miracle [1972], 205; italics in the original). Faith includes everything in the will to bring the things we hope for and for which we pray. President Kimball said: 'We plant the semo in the fruit in faith and soon we see a miracle of flowering. Men were often misunderstood and reversed the process. He went on to explain that many of us want to have health and power without keeping health laws. We want to have prosperity without paying for our clothes. We want to be close to the Lord, but we don't want to fast and pray. We want to have rain in time and peace in the land without observing Saturday as a holy day and without keeping the lord's other commandments. (See teaching of Church Presidents: Spencer W. Kimball [2006], 142.) An important way to increase our faith is to hear and examine the Word of the Lord. We hear the Lord's word at our church meetings. His word can be examined in the scriptures. And as not everyone believes, find and teach each other the words of wisdom; Yes, look out of the best books of the word of wisdom; learning, even after study and also by religion (D&C 88:118). What relationship do you see between our faith and our actions? Through the gift of faith miracles are forked, angels appear, other gifts of the Spirit are made, prayers are obeyed and people become sons of God (see Moroni 7:25–26, 36–37). When faith comes, it brings... apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, teachers, gifts, wisdom, knowledge, miracles, healings, languages, interpretation of languages, etc. All these occur when faith on earth appears and disappears when it disappears from the earth; for this are the effects of religion. ... And whoever has it will then acquire all the necessary knowledge and wisdom until he knows God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who sent him – who sent him – who knows him to life forever (Lectures on faith [1985], 83). What are some of the stories from the scriptures in which people became stronger because they had faith in Jesus Christ? How are they Si videl, da se je to zgodilo v tvojem življenju?
