Staff Writer | The Jackson County Health Department examiner is tracking possible COVID-19 cases from another Independence church near where 30 confirmed cases originated last month. The department requires attendees to attend ceremonies at Courageous Life Church, 17310 E. U.S. 40, on July 26 quarantine until Sunday and be examined as soon as possible. Health officials confirmed a COVID-19 case from the building and estimated about 200 people may have been exposed on that day. The exposure notice can be made as health officials continue to monitor a case from Old Paths Baptist Church, where 30 confirmed cases originated during the week of July 19-24 and exposure could reach about 300 people. The date of quarantine drop from that position is Friday. - Inspection officer TykkäTykätty302 ihmistä on merkinnyt tämän paikakseen näyttää tietoja, joiden avulla ymmärrät sivun tarkoitusta paremmin. When we were saved, God gave us a proper mind and his work to never let anyone nor this world to still take it away from us and minipulate it back into that wrong mind!!! Lot... Lisää times when we just duck our heads and go along with the rest is considered a cool one ... time to fight for God, I am instead talked about and hated by humans and have my savior say Good Job they are good and faithful servants!
