Psalm 106 1.3

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is a good 106 iPray the Lord! J Thank God Kfor is good. Ifor his unwavren love lasts forever! 2 Who can give the mighty works of the Lord or declare all his praise? 3 Blessed are those who observe justice, who do justice at all times! 4 n Remember me, O Lord, when you show favor to your people; Help me if you save them,15 so that I may look upon the prosperity of your ochos, that I may rejoice in the joy of your nation, that I may glory in your inheritance. 6 pBoth we and gour fathers have sinned; We have committed iniquity, We've done wickedness. 7 Our fathers, when they were in Egypt, did not consider your marvelous works; they did not remember the abundance of your unwaverable love, but they lifted it up by the sea by the Red Sea. 8 Yet he saved them for his name, that he might reach out to his mighty power. 9 Vrebuked the Red Sea, and it wsesched, and he xled them through the deep ass across the desert. 10 And so he imprisoned them from the hand of the enemy and sused them out of the power of the enemy. 11 And the awaters covered their adversaries; neither of them remained. 12 Then they bwith more believed his words; they csang his praise. 13 But soon they shall sing to his works; did not wait for ehis advice. 14 But they had a desire in the wilderness, and bsain God into the trial in the wilderness; 15 gave them what they asked for, but sent a waste of disease among them. 16 When the people in the camp took on Moses and Aaron, kthe holy one of the Lord, 17 I could be opened and devoured by Dathan, and applied to the society of Abiram. 18 mFire also broke out in their company; the flame burned the sinners. 19 In Horeb, they made a calf and worshipped a metal painting. 20 Oexchanged the glory of God2 for the image of an ox eating grass. 21 He pvies God, his Savior, who has done great things in Egypt, 22 marveling works in the land of Saria, and wonderful works by the Red Sea. 23 Therefore rhe said that he would destroy them—if Moses, his schosen, had not committed a crack before him, that he would avert his wrath, that he would destroy them. 24 Then they were in a pleasant land, and they did not believe in their promise. 25 They saused in their tents, and did not listen to the voice of the Lord. 26 Therefore he yraised his hand and swore to them that he would let them fall into the wilderness 27, and make their posterity among the nations, he shall ding it among the earth. 28 Then they alived ueach uneached peor, and ate the sacrifices of the abrasors; 29 they provoked the Lord to be angry with his actions, and a plague broke out between them. 30 Then cPhinehas rose and intervened, and the plague remained. 31 And this was accounted for unth again as righteousness from generation to generation forever. 32 him in the waters of Meribah, and it went ill with Moses at their expense, 33 for they fmade his spirit bitter,3 and he spoke hastily with his lips. 34 They did not see the nations, ias the Lord commanded them, 35, but they mixed with the nations and learned to do what they did. 36 They served their idols, which became unthem. 37 Lsakrilled their sons and daughters to me demons; 38 they poured out innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, which they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the earth was crisscrossed with blood. 39 Thus they reaped unclean by their deeds and pplayed the whore in their deeds. 40 Then the wrath of the Lord was aroused against the rhis of the people, and he seized his vine; 41 He put them in the hands of the nations, so that those who hated them ruled over them. 42 Their enemies suppressed them and were duped under their power. 43 uMethings delivered them, but they were rebellious in their vpurposes and were wbrought low over their iniquities. 44 However, he looked at their suffering when he heard their call. 45 For their good he memorized his covenant, and he smoaned according to the abundance of his unwaveing love. 46 He gave them bptied by all those who held them captive. 47 ci will bring us, O Lord, our God, and give us from the nations that we may thank your holy name and glory in your praise. 48 and Do not be the Lord, the God of Israel, from eternity to eternal! eA let all people say: Amen! fPray the Lord! (Psalm 107:1) (Psalm 118:1) (Psalm 136:1) (1. Chronik 16:34-36) 2 Wer kann die großen des HERRN ausreden und alle seine loblichen Werke preisen? 3 Wohl denen, die das Gebot halten und tons immerdar recht! 4 HERR, gedenke mein nach der Gnade, die du dem Volk verheißten hast; bewaise uns deine Hilfe, 5 daß wir sehen mögen die Wohlfahrt deiner Auserwählten und uns freuen, daß es deinem Volk wohl geht, und uns rühmen mit deinem Erbteil. 6 Wir haben gesündigt samt unserm Vätern; wir haben mißgehandelt und sind gottlos gewesen. (Daniel 9:5) 7 Unsre Väter in Ägypten wollten deine Wunder nicht verstehen; sie gedachten nicht deine große Güte und waren ungehorsam an Meer, am Schilfmeer. (2nd Mose 14:11-12) 8 Er half ihnen aber um seines Namens willen, daß er seine Macht bewiese. 9 Und er schalt das Schilfmeer; da ward's trocken, und führte sie durch die Tiefen wie in einer Wüste 10 und half ihnen von der Hand des, der sie haßte, und erlöste sie von der Hand des Feindes; 11 und die Wasser ersäuften ihre Widersacher, daß nicht einer übrig blieb. 12 Da glaubten sie an words and sang his praises. (Exodus 15:1) 13 But they soon forgot his works; they did not wait for his advice. 14 And they longed for the wilderness, and tempted God in the wilderness. (Genesis 11.4-6) 15 But he gave them their request, and sent them enough until they were disgusted. 16 And they rebelled against Moses in the camp, against Aaron, the saints of the Lord. (Genesis 16.1) 17 The Earth opened and devoured Dathan and covered the belt of Abiram. 18, and the fire was lit under her band and the flame burned the wicked. 19 At Horeb they made a calf and prayed for a molten image (Exodus 32:1) 20, and turned their honor into a parable of the dude who devours the grass. (Romans 1:23) 21 They forgot God, their Savior, who did such great things in Egypt (Genesis 32:18) 22 miracles in the land of Ham and the terrible works of the Red Sea. 23 And he said that he would destroy them, where not Moses, whom he had chosen, entered into the crack before him, that he might not destroy them. (Ezekiel 13:5) 24 and they despised the dear earth, did not believe his word (Genesis 14.2-4) 25, and whispered in their tents; they did not listen to the voice of the Lord. 26 And he rose up against them on his hand, that he should lay them in the wilderness 27, and toss their seed among the nations, and disperse them into the earth. 28 And they hung on Baal-peor, and ate of the victims of the dead idols (Genesis 25:3) 29, and angered him with their works; then the plague also broke beneath them. 30 And Shehaz came and settled the matter; then the plague was controlled. 31 It was considered to him righteousness for and forever. Genesis 15:6 (Genesis 25:12) 32 And they angered him with the water of contention, and Moses was evil for their good. (Genesis 20.2) 33 For they mourned his heart, and some words came out of him. 34 Even they did not destroy the nations as the Lord called them; (Genesis 7.1-2) (Genesis 12.2-3) (Judges 1.28) 35, but they minged among the Gentiles and learned the same works 36 and served their idols; they became pitfalls. 37 And they sacrificed their sons and daughters unto the devils (Genesis 18-21) 38, and they shed the innocent blood, the blood of their sons, and their daughters, which they had sacrificed to the idols of the Canaans, that the earth should be stained with bloody debts; 39 And they were tinted with their works, and became adored by their works. 40 And the wrath of the Lord was enraged upon his people, and he took the abomination in his inheritance 41, and put them in the hands of the Gentiles that they ruled, which were a gram to them. (Judge 2.14) 42 And their enemies frightened them; and they were humbled under their hands. 43 He often delivered them; but they angered him with their nobles, and few pleased them with their inimisable 44 And he looked at their suffering when he heard their laments,45 and remembered his covenant which he had made with them, and he repented according to his great goodness, 46, and made them come to mercy before all who had caught them. 47 Help us, Yahweh, our God, and bring us together from the Gentiles, that we may thank your holy name and praise your praise. (Genesis 30.3) (1 Chronicles 16:34-36) 48 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, forever and ever, and all men say: Amen, hallelujah! (1. Chronicle 16.34-36) (Psalm 41.14) 1 Hallelujah! I thank the Lord. 2 Who can say all the great works of Jehovah and pronounce his praise enough? 3 Good to those who keep the commandments and do it forever. may your help be to us, 5, that we may see the salvation of your chosen ones, and rejoice that you are doing so well, and boast to us with those who are your own. They didn't remember your great goodness and were disobedient by the sea by the Red Sea. and led them through the depths as through the dry land of 10, and helped them from the hand of him who hated them, and redeemed them from the hands of the enemy. 12 Then they believed in his words and sang his praises. 17 The earth opened and devoured the date and covered the belt of Abiram, 18, and the fire was lit under her belt, the flame burned the wicked. 19 They made a calf upon Horeb, and prayed the molten image at 20, and exchanged the glory of God for the image of an ox that devoured the grass. 21 They God, their Savior, who has done such great things in Egypt, 22 wonders in the land of Ham, and the terrible wonders of the Red Sea. 24 And he went into the crack before him, that he may avert his wrath, that he may not destroy him. they did not believe his word 25, and muttered in tents; they did not listen to the voice of the Lord. 28 And they hanged themselves in the wilderness 27, and cast their seed among the nations, and scattered them into the earth. And the plague broke on them. there the plague was withered; 32 And they provoked the Lord to wrath by the waters of contention, and Moses was evil because of them; 33 because his mind was bitter, that they had taken ill-thinking words from him. 37 And they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to evil spirits 38, and they shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons, and daughters, which they had sacrificed to the idols of the Canaans. 39 They made themselves unclean by their works, and became apostasy by their deeds. 40 Then the wrath of the Lord was incited against his people, and his inheritance became a resistance to him. But they angered him with their plan and disappeared there because of their inimitess. and they repented of him according to his great goodness. 46 And he made them to find mercy among all who held them captive. 47 Help us, Yahweh, our God, and he will lead us together from the people, that we may praise your holy name and praise us, that we may praise you. 48 Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, forever and ever, and all men say, Amen.
