GENERAL STEPS IN DIVORCE THAT DO NOT BELONG TO THE CONFLICT Below are some general steps that usually take place during criminal prosecution. This is provided as a general guide to help you understand the process. Each case is different, and Sherri Kelley will explain the necessary steps in your case. With a non-contentious divorce, you and your wife have agreed and their problems in the divorce have been resolved and we will not plan to go to court for controversial matters. 1) The first step is to prepare a complaint for divorce, which is a very simple document that only puts the other side in the news on issues related to divorce; 2) Then prepare a notice service for your spouse to sign therefore the sheriff will waive the need to come out and serve the papers; 3) Will then prepare an agreement to try that will allow the court to conduct the first filing of all documents is a divorce grant after a period of 31 days has el passed; 4) The next step is the longest time-consuming step in which we will prepare the settlement agreement, which fully presents all problems and responsibilities, as you and your partner have agreed. After this document is prepared, you will review this document and, if true, both parties will sign the document before the notary public. You and your partner have a notary of staff here to sign documents or elsewhere for convenience so you can choose to sign them if you want. With an unethical divorce, we allow two changes to the agreement without any fees or additional billing to your account; 5) After all documents are signed and presented to the courthouse, the divorce period is given within 31 days. Douglas County, Carroll and Paulding County, if a lawyer has undisputed divorce filing, you can get a divorce granted without appearing before a judge. After 31 days have passed, we will file a Final Decision and Decree and Decision On Defenses Motion and ask it to execute the document in accordance with the settlement approved by the court. After the Court has signed the Divorce Decision and Final Decision, this is the actual date on which you will be divorced. You will then get this in our office, make a copy and mail you for your records. In the case of young children, you are required to attend a parenting seminar for parents who are divorced with underage children. Each county has a class and you can contact the Supreme Court Clerk for phone number and seminar hours. The seminar is relatively inexpensive and is a necessary step before divorce is granted. Parents do not have to attend this seminar together, but both parents are required to attend the course. To ensure that there are documents appropriate to the court, when you take the course, you will provide this organization with your case information and they will send the certificate directly to the court. Just to be on the safe side, I would ask you to obtain a second copy of this certificate and bring it to our office, so we can document the document. Court.
