

Rukia kuchiki bleach movie

Current user rating: 90/100 (414 votes) You must enable JavaScript to vote Profile Plot Synopsis by AsianWiki Staff © Ichigo Kurosaki (Sota Fukushi) is a high school student with the ability to see ghosts. Ichigo then sees Soul Reaper Rukia Kuchiki - who came to exterminate evil spirits. At first Ichigo does not believe in Rukia, but he becomes to believe that he is being attacked by the evil spirit Hollow - which devours the human spirit. Ichigo is trying to protect his family from Hollow, but he's a long way to the weark. Rukia tries to protect Ichigo, but is wounded. In this desperate situation, Rukia transfers half of her powers to Ichigo as a last resort. Ichigo is able to exterminate Horou, but Ichigo absorbs more power than planned and Rukia gets trapped in a human body. Rukia asks Ichigo to replace her as a soul reaper until her power is restored. Ichigo agrees. One day, Ichigo's classmate Uryu Ishida fights for victory. Because of this, Hollows appears in Karakuchi city. Notes Based on the manga series BLEACH by Tite Kubo (first published August 20, 2001 in weekly shonen magazine Weekly Shonen Jump). Cast Trailers Del Bleach (live-action film) Shinigami, The Meeting Theme Mosquito Bite and Milk by Alexandros Release Date Theatrical - Japan 20. The film was released in Japanese theaters on 20. [3] The theme song for the film is Mosquito Bite and Milk by the band Alexandros. On July 23rd at the Fantasia International Film Festival in Montreal, and was released on Netflix 14. [4] Plot Masaki Kurosaki dries Ichigo Kurosaki's face. In the past, as a young Ichigo Kurosaki and his mother Masaki Kurosaki walk along the road in the rain, a passing truck sprays water on Ichigo that creeps. Asking Ichigo if he's okay, Masaki bends down and pulls out a handkerchief, which she uses to wipe down Ichigo's face before declaring that it's all better as she puts it away. Ichigo sees a girl standing next to the river. Masaki tells Ichigo refuses and claims he will walk by the side of the road so he can protect Masaki. Laughing at this, Masaki stands up and calls Ichigo her hero as Ichigo asks her if he can hold her hand, as Masaki says she hoped he would ask while extending her hand. As he takes his mother's hand, Ichigo thanks her and begins to walk across a bridge with her, only to suddenly stop at seeing a girl standing next to the crowded river several dozen feet away when he notices that she doesn't have an umbrella. A badly wounded Masaki lies on top of Ichigo. As a confused Masaki looks at the area he's staring at, cheerily states that he will give the girl his umbrella and run out, prompting Masaki to call him. Ichigo reaches the grassy area of the riverbank which the girl claims to be cold, and while Masaki catches up to Ichigo and continues to call out to him, the girl suddenly turns to look at Ichigo, who faints. Soon after, a badly injured Masaki pants heavy as she lies on top of a still unconscious Ichigo and tries to wake him up before collapsing and losing consciousness as the rain continues to pour. Ichigo confronts three teenagers over an overturned vase of flowers. In today's Karakura Town, three teenagers with skateboards stand in front of Ichigo. When one of the teens aggressively steps up to him, Ichigo headbutts him before sending him flying back and collapsing on the ground with a kick, prompting the two remaining and shocked teenagers to demand to know what his problem is. Setting his bag, Ichigo turns around and asks the teens what happened as they look at a nearby vase of flowers lying on his side and strewn about. Ichigo asks the black-haired teenager what it looks like to him as the teenager silently leans back. Ichigo clotheslines one of the teens while questioning them. As he continues not to receive an answer, Ichigo grabs the blonde teenager by the ear and angrily demands that he answer the question, leading the teenager to consent in pain and that the flowers are for a child who was run over nearby. Confirming this, Ichigo throws the teenager at his friend before clotheslining him to the ground. Ichigo walks up to the black-haired teenager, who creeps back in fear, and asks him, who knocked over the flowers, prompting the teenager to admit that it was him and his friends who did it on their skateboards when he fell on his. The teenagers apologize to an annoved Ichigo. As he smiles and confirms this as well, Ichigo kicks the black-haired teenager in some nearby bags of trash before telling all three teenagers that they will apologize to the child who is behind Ichigo with blood dripping down his face. But while Ichigo can see spirits, teenagers confusion about who they are supposed to apologize to. When Ichigo repeats himself, the teens get on their hands and knees as they begin to apologize to him, leading an embittered Ichigo to clarify that they need to apologize to the boy. Yasutora Sado knocks the blonde teen away. As for repeatedly apologizing to the boy they still can't see, the teens get up and run away with their skateboards as Ichigo picks up his bag and walks over to the boy as he assures that the teens seem to have been scared away forever. The boy thanks Ichigo, who tells him to stop hanging here and get up to heaven where he belongs as he fixes up the vase of Suddenly is is The teenager tries to hit Ichigo from behind with his skateboard. only for Yasutora Sado to pick him up at the collar and send him flying away with a punch. Isshin Kurosaki puts Ichigo in a headlock. As he watches Sado, Ichigo laughs and remarks that he is a little late, only for Sado to advise him to look his back as he walks away, for which Ichigo thanks him. That night, as Ichigo walks into the Kurosaki Clinic, he greets Karin Kurosaki and Yuzu Kurosaki, who sit at the dinner table as they tell him he is late in unison. Ichigo tries to join them, only for Isshin Kurosaki to put him in a headlock while demanding to know why he is late for dinner again. Terrified and confused by this, Ichigo points out that it's only 6p.m., prompting Isshin to release and headbutt him. Ichigo and Isshin claims that they all sit down to have dinner together as a family and rebuke him for speaking back, Ichigo claims he would have been home earlier if he hadn't been busy helping a lost soul get to heaven again, only for Isshin to declare that he doesn't care because he didn't ask Ichigo reminds him that he can't help it because he was born with the ability to see spirits. Yuzu asks them to keep it down because she tries to eat his food, while Karin tells her to ignore them. Annoyed by all this, Ichigo bid his family goodnight and heads upstairs. Isshin learns that Ichigo confides in Yuzu, but not him. Yuzu points out that he didn't eat his dinner as a surprised Isshin asks Ichigo where he's going, only to be told that his cooking sucks. As an angry Isshin tells him to go if he really feels this way and calls Ichigo ungrateful, Yuzu explains that Ichigo is stressed because he has witnessed many spirits lately, prompting Isshin to ask her how she knows this as he sits down with his food. After being told that Ichigo tells Yuzu about these things. Isshin notes that he didn't confide in him about anything, only for Yuzu to say she wouldn't either. Isshin looks to the shrine of Masaki on his wall. As Yuzu stands up to put her dishes away, a surprised Isshin asks her if she is funny, prompting Karin to accuse her father of having the communication skills of a 14-year-old before claiming that she would not confide anything sensitive to him as she leaves to clean her dishes as well. Discouraged by this, Isshin notes that his children are very disrespectful and look to the shrine of Masaki on the wall when he asks his wife where he went wrong. Upstairs in his room, Ichigo tosses his bag to the ground and walks over to his mirror as he begins to undress, only to suddenly appears in Ichigo's room. Turning around, Ichigo is stunned to find Rukia Kuchiki standing in his room. As Rukia notes, something is close and quietly going over the window, which she peers out of, Ichigo asks her what she's looking at, prompting a startled Rukia to swirl around to meet him. As Rukia notes with astonishment that he can see her, Ichigo makes fun of her historical attire and says he doesn't know what century she died in before telling her to get out of his room. Suddenly, Rukia pulls her Zanpakuto and points it at Ichigo's face, sharply shocking him. The glasses wearing Plus experience Konso. Rukia steps back, swirls her Zanpakuto and points it at Ichigo's face, sharply shocking him. turns to the forehead of a glasses wearing Plus with a string around her neck. When Plus tearfully asks her not to send him to hell, Rukia assures him that he actually goes to the Soul Society, where it is peaceful and safe. As Rukia retreats and sheathes her Zanpakuto, the confused Plus begins to emit smoke and smile as he disappears into a point of blue light that continues to disappear while Ichigo watches in stunned silence. Rukia and Ichigo look at her Denreishinki, While Ichigo asks her what just happened and what she did to Plus. Rukia is warned by her Denreishinki beeps and pulls it out. Looking at the map of the local area, it shows, Rukia sees a dot approaching her location and wonders if it's Grand Fisher, before realizing it's actually Fishbone D. When Rukia walks away while noticing that it's close and huge, a confused Ichigo asks her what she's referring to before sullenly noticing that she makes herself feel at home here. But when Ichigo tries to grab her, Rukia, who had been concentrated, pushes him back. Rukia immobilizes Ichigo with Bakudo #1. Sai. Rukia reaches out his hand and uses Bakudo #1. Sai on Ichigo, having his hands tied behind the back of blue ribbons of light. When he falls back on his bed. Ichigo angrily demands that Rukia loosen him and call her a ghost, only for Rukia to reveal that she is actually a Shinigami, that Ichigo and Rukia hear Yuzu shout for Isshin below, which made Rukia realize it's here. Ichigo asks her what she's talking about, and when Rukia doesn't answer, he gets to his feet and yells as he breaks out of his restraints with great effort before running downstairs. Fishbone D grabs Yuzu after destroying the wall. As she looks on in shock, Rukia expresses disbelief at a human being capable of breaking her magic. Downstairs, Ichigo, Karin, and Isshin find Yuzu in the living room, and when Karin asks her why she cried, Yuzu turns to them and explains that she heard a scary voice. While the rest of the family is confused about this, Isshin notes that he doesn't hear it now. Suddenly, the wall behind them explodes, sending Isshin and Karin down to the ground, and a semi-translucent Fishbone D reaches in to reach Yuzu before you pull her out of as a stunned Ichigo looks at his wounded father and sister. Ichigo confronts Fishbone D on the street outside his house. I wonder what it was, Ichigo runs after Fishbone D as Rukia arrives behind him and is shocked to discover that he can also see Hollow. As he runs outside with a baseball bat in his hand, Ichigo is shocked when he sees Fishbone D in full as the latter turns around to meet him with Yuzu in his hand and comes into view. Ichigo demands that Fishbone D let go of Yuzu and rushes at him, only to guickly be beaten into a nearby garden where he crashes through a wall. While Ichigo's soul. Rukia cuts Fishbone D's arm, freeing Yuzu. Suddenly, when she tells Ichigo to hold back, Rukia guickly runs up to Fishbone D, jumps into the air, and cuts her arm with his Zanpakuto, causing Fishbone D to roll back in pain and let go of Yuzu as Rukia lands behind him. Watch this, Ichigo runs under Yuzu and slides on her back to catch her before she hits the ground. While Fishbone D turns around to meet them with a glowing cut on his forearm, Rukia notes that Ichigo's Reiatsu must be strong if he can see a Hollow. When Ichigo expresses confusion on this, Rukia explains that Hollows eat souls like Ichigo's, and that this is what Fishbone D extends his neck as his head hurtles. towards Ichigo. Looming over Ichigo, Fishbone D declares that he wants Ichigo's soul before trying to grab him, leading Ichigo to guickly dodge him and run over to Rukia's side. After placing an unconscious Yuzu behind a nearby car, Ichigo joins Rukia and asks her what Fishbone D is. Rukia states that they are called Hollows, but as Ichigo asks her what they are, Fishbone D extends his neck, causing his head to trickle toward Ichigo. Leaping in front of Ichigo and pushing him back, Rukia is trapped in Fishbone D's mouth. Rukia is bloody about this and admits she may have gone too far. Fishbone D is preparing to fire a Cero at Rukia. As she pushes back against Fishbone D to release her and pull his neck back as he rolls back in pain. Running under Fishbone D as he tries to attack her, Rukia leaps into the air and tries to poke her head from above, only for Fishbone D to recline as Rukia turns over him before grabbing her mid-fall with his left hand. Fishbone D holds Rukia to blast him with a Kidō spell. Rukia tells Ichigo to become a Shinigami. As Fishbone D is sent flying back and crashes into a nearby farm, Rukia slams into of a parked car nearby and falls to the ground as Ichigo rushes to her side and asks her if she is okay. Reveals that Fishbone D D hurting her arm, Rukia claims that their souls are lost if she can't stop it, causing Ichigo to claim that she could have scared it away. But Rukia states that there is one thing they can do, and when Ichigo asks her what it is, Rukia reveals that he must become a Shinigami, shocking Ichigo, before explaining that only a Shinigami can destroy a Hollow. Fishbone D is preparing to resume its assault on Ichigo. Claiming that this is why Ichigo must become one and fight in her place, Rukia declares that it is their only chance. When Ichigo asks her how he can possibly do this, Rukia draws his attention to his Zanpakutō and explains that she will throw it into his chest so that she can instill him with her energy through it, before admitting that they will both die if it does not work. As Ichigo notes that he will surely die, Rukia frantically tells him that this is a chance they will have to take because Fishbone D is coming back and will not be kept from devouring Ichigo's soul as Fishbone D emerges from the farm. Ichigo and Rukia are preparing to start the power transfer. Watching this, Ichigo is alerted to Yuzu when she mutters that she is afraid, and as Rukia tells Ichigo that he has to decide now, Fishbone D roars and starts approaching them, prompting Ichigo to shout and grab the magazine of Rukia's Zanpakuto as he tells her to move on. Rukia sets herself up and steadies her target as Fishbone D starts running towards them before throwing her Zanpakuto into Ichigo's chest as he screams, causing a bright light to wash over them. When he reaches them, Fishbone D sticks back and strikes with his left hand, only to suddenly have his entire left arm severed by Ichigo. Ichigo splits Fishbone D in half, cleaning him. Now dressed in a Shinigami shihakushō with a massive Zanpakutō of his own, Ichigo lands behind Fishbone D as the latter's severed arm falls to the ground and dissolves, while Rukia, now wearing an all-white shihakusho, watches in shock. As Rukia notes, the size of Ichigo's Zanpakuto must mean that his Reiatsu is strong, Ichigo turns to Fishbone D, which has blue smoke billowing out of his wound, and the two charge against each other before Ichigo leaps forward and cuts through Fishbone D, which is split vertically in half and cleaned in blue light as Ichigo lands behind him. Ichigo and his family discover their damaged living room. Watching this, Rukia expresses his amazement and asks Ichigo if he is really just Human, which led him to confirm that this was the case the last time he checked. The next morning, Ichigo wakes up in cold sweats in his bed and wonders if it was all a dream, which he notes was intense as he sits up. But after going downstairs, Ichigo is shocked to find Karin and Isshin staring at the giant hole Fishbone D back into the wall of the living room and when he whether this happened last night, Ichigo is told that a one hit the house and that the driver must have run after he lost control. Ichigo learns that Yuzu can't remember what happened. When Yuzu appears behind him and wonders what happened, Ichigo kneels in front of her and asks her if she is okay, only for Yuzu to express confusion about what he thinks. Ichigo realizes she can't remember, but Yuzu is unsure what she is supposed to remember and walks over to Isshin to ask him what happened, leaving Ichigo just as confused. Later, at Karakura High School, Orihime Inoue stares at Ichigo's empty desk, prompting Tatsuki Arisawa to playfully berate her for fantasizing about him. As Orihime Inoue and Tatsuki Arisawa discuss Ichigo. Admitting that she doesn't understand what Orihime finds so great about Ichigo, Tatsuki claims he is moody and beats her as childish, before pointing out how his hair is orange on top of all this, only for Orihime to happily claim that she thinks it's adorable when Ichigo gets a whimsical look on his face, which she immediately imagines, leading to her laughing out loud and calling him cute as an embittered Tatsuki notes that she's lost it. Suddenly, Keigo Asano runs up to them. Orihime is relieved that Ichigo is okay. Keigo informs Orihime and Tatsuki that a truck crashed into the Ichigo house, to their shock, and when Orihime asks him if Ichigo is alright, Keigo sits down and melodramaticly claims that he was killed instantly, horrifying Orihime. But Ichigo disputes this, prompting the three to turn around and watch him stand behind them as Keigo greets him. While Orihime runs up to him and asks him if he is okay, Ichigo confirms this as Sado, sitting behind him, claims that Ichigo cannot be killed. As Ichigo brushes this off, Sado smiles while Orihime sinks on his knees and expresses relief. Rukia appears in Ichigo's class wearing a school uniform. While an annoved Ichigo tells Orihime not to be so dramatic. Keigo asks him how a truck crashed into his house, only for Ichigo to claim that it was actually the hand of a giant creature rather than a truck. Stunned by this claim, Orihime and Tatsuki sit in silence as Keigo asks Ichigo if he is sure he is okay, and Tatsuki notes that he might want to see a doctor as Ichigo assures them that he is fine. Suddenly, Rukia greets them, and Ichigo is shocked when he turns around to see her standing in his classroom wearing a school uniform as Orihime introduces her who has just joined their class. Rukia warns Ichigo not to make a scene. Introducing Ichigo to Rukia, Orihime sees him staring at her in shock and asking him if he knows Rukia, which he denies. Rukia goes over to Ichigo, grabs textbook from his desk, and drags him over to another desk at the collar claims that she is not sure that she has the right one as she turns to a page where she has written a warning to Ichigo not to make a scene, to his further surprise. Shortly afterwards, as they stand on the roof of the school, Ichigo Rukia asks why she can't just go back, which leads Rukia to claim that it is not very easy to return to Sjælsmark. Ichigo and Rukia discuss Rukia's lost powers. When Rukia explains that only a Shinigami can enter Soul Society and that she has lost all her Shinigami powers, Ichigo asks her where they went, prompting her to point to him and detail how he took all her powers, even though she meant only to give him half. As Ichigo asks her if this means he is a Shinigami now, Rukia goes up to him and claims that his soul has been transformed into a Shinigami soul before going in a different direction. Ichigo wonders if Rukia is no longer a Shinigami is the reason people can see her, but she clarifies that spiritual beings are invisible to humans and she is simply using a Gigai. Rukia pushes Ichigo's soul out of his body. Rukia puts on a Gokon Tekko and declares that she wants her powers back before rushing forward with her hand stretched over a shocked Ichigo, who tries to stop her, and push her soul out of the body. When Ichigo falls to the ground in his Shinigami attire, he sees his human body collapsing and asks Rukia if it's him as she pulls his Zanpakuto out of his vagina. Rukia places the hilt of Ichigo's Zanpakuto in her hand and holds the blade up to her chest while explaining that he will have to stab her in the chest to reverse the transfer of power. Rukia realizes that Ichigo cannot complete the transfer. With Ichigo protesting this, Rukia has him placing both hands on the hilt before pushing the blade against her chest as Ichigo looks away in horror. But the magazine simply affects her with a dull clattering sound, and as Ichigo slowly looks at her, a stunned Rukia realizes that it doesn't work because Ichigo's energy is too low. As a visibly concerned Rukia holds her hand up to her mouth and looks away, Ichigo gets to his feet and asks her what they will do, causing Rukia to decide to have Ichigo act as her deputy Shinigami for now, to Ichigo's confusion. Ichigo refuses to help Rukia perform her duties. Rukia explains that there are two types of souls: Pluses, the normal type of spirit that Ichigo usually sees, and Hollows, spirits who died bear a grudge that devours other souls. Describing how one of a Shinigami's tasks is sending Pluses to the Soul Society in a process called Konsō, which she performed on the glasses-wearing Plus in Ichigo's bedroom last night, Rukia states that their other duty is to find and destroy the Hollows, which Ichigo will help her fulfill. But Ichigo blankly to help Rukia and turns away as she claims that Hollows will continue to devour Plusser Plusser He doesn't. Rukia explains why Ichigo can't return his powers yet. Ichigo claims that he does not care, and informs Rukia that he only took on Fishbone D last night to protect his family and picks up his Zanpakuto, as he promises to return his powers right now so that she can perform her own duties, only for Rukia to warn him that it would not work because his Reiatsu is too low. When an annoyed Ichigo points out that she said it was strong last night, Rukia clarifies that it may work, but the trial will likely kill Ichigo in its current state, as although his soul is very pressed, his power is untrained and his body is not built to withstand such releases of power too many times. Yuzu asks Ichigo if he knows where her pajamas are. Ichigo belligerent asks Rukia when he will be strong enough, prompting her to note that Killing Hollows is an excellent way to increase one's power before informing Ichigo that he will have to undergo training to tame his Reiatsu. As Rukia asks him to accept his fate, Ichigo swears fate and begins to leave before turning around to ask Rukia if he can get his clothes back. That night, as Ichigo walks into the Kurosaki Clinic and announces his return. Yuzu comes downstairs and asks him if he knows where her pajamas are, leading Ichigo to ask her why he would know when he goes upstairs. Ichigo turns on the lights and opens the door to his closet, where he is shocked to find Rukia lying on a makeshift bed in pajamas. As Rukia indignantly asks him why he is barging into her room like this, a dumbfounded Ichigo asks her what she's doing in here wearing Yuzu's pajamas, only for Rukia to point out that she has no home or clothes of her own before reminding Ichigo that he needs her help to become a Shinigami. When Ichigo says he will gladly renounce this, Rukia claims that he cannot run away from it and has to accept it. Isshin barges into Ichigo's room and demands to know if he has anyone in here, causing Ichigo to slam the closet door shut and nervously stand in front of it. When Ichigo claims that nothing is going on here, Isshin chops him in the chest, knocks the wind out of Ichigo, and opens the closet door while asking who's in there, only to find it seemingly empty except for a pillow that confuses him. Sheepishly closing the door, Isshin warns Ichigo not to try to sneak any girls into her room and leaves as Ichigo brushes him off and asks Rukia if she's still there while addressing her as Shinigami. Ichigo pulls the door open again, Rukia reminds him that her name is Rukia Kuchiki, while Ichigo states that they are done here and asks her if she can leave him alone now. Claims that is nothing Ichigo can do about their fates being connected and that he should just accept it, Rukia tells him to not get any funny ideas just because they are cohabiting before slamming the door shut as a confused Ichigo protests her terminology before giving up. The next morning, the blanket is ripped off a sleeping Ichigo, causing him to curl up while cursing his father before seeing that it was actually Rukia's doing. Ichigo gets hit in the face by one of Rukia's baseballs. Rukia throws Ichigo's clothes at him and asks him to come with her, to his confusion. Soon after, under a bridge, Rukia aims a pitching machine at Ichigo that narrowly dodges two high-speed baseballs while holding a bat before demanding to know what Rukia is doing. As she pelts Ichigo with dozens of baseballs while he protests, Rukia declares that this is basic Shinigami training, only for Ichigo to argue that this is not training before being hit in the face by the final baseball. Angry about this, Ichigo throws down the bat and storms out with his bag as Rukia tells him they're not done yet. Keigo teases Ichigo with his relationship with Rukia. Later, at Karakura High School, as Ichigo walks into his classroom, Keigo comes up and excitedly asks if he and Rukia are dating, which Ichigo flatly denies. While Keigo sits down with Ichigo flatly denies. While Keigo for not realizing that Ichigo is just showing Rukia around. This causes Keigo to indecently ask Ichigo what he shows her, only to be silenced when Rukia appears and coldly states that she and Ichigo are nothing more than classmates before cheerfully asking Ichigo if she can talk to him. Rukia punches Ichigo hard in the stomach. Ichigo dismissively tells Rukia that she can't, only for her to hoist him up by the collar and quickly punch him in the stomach, causing Ichigo away on the pretext that he has stomach ache and needs to see the nurse, a stunned Keigo notices that she slugged him, prompting Uryū Ishida to look up from his desk. Back under the bridge, Rukia continues to coat Ichigo with baseballs, and eventually he manages to deflect two of them with the bat, to Rukia's surprise. Rukia fires two more baseballs at Ichigo, guickly dodging them before running up to her. Rukia effortlessly outmaneuvers Ichigo in their sword fight. When Ichigo claims that he has better things to do than this and declares that this is enough, Rukia knocks him to the ground with a wooden sword that she sledges beside him. As Rukia pulls out his own wooden sword, an annoyed Ichigo gets to his feet with the sword she gave him in hand and agrees to keep training before rushing at her. Ichigo flails wildly at Rukia, who guickly dodges each of his and moves behind him as she his arms, legs and head in guick succession. Grabbed his head, Ichigo swings at Rukia again, only to be hit several times from behind. Rukia pins Ichigo to the ground with his sword. As he curses in Rukia, Ichigo resumes his attack. Some time later, a visibly exhausted Ichigo continues to fight rukia under a tree near the river, where Rukia continues to outdo him. After taking a few seconds to catch his breath. Ichigo resumes clashing with Rukia and manages to match or evade her strikes until Rukia outmaneuvers him and holds her sword to his throat. You note that Rukia doesn't have many friends, and says mockingly that he can see why, which caused Rukia to turn him on his back with a strike in his legs before holding him down with his sword. Ichigo and Rukia's training is interrupted by Orihime. When Rukia claims he was only kidding before throwing Rukia out of him and holding her down as she places her sword back on his neck. Rukia declares that she does not need friends because she lives by Shinigami code, confusing Ichigo before being interrupted by the arrival of Orihime, who asks Ichigo what is going on. Getting to his feet along with Rukia, Ichigo bashfully argues that it's nothing like Orihime greets Rukia, who returns the greeting in an overly formal way. Ichigo and Rukia discuss her formal way of speaking. Ichigo quietly asks Rukia why she speaks this way, and when Rukia reveals that she got it from her book, an infidel Ichigo realizes that she has read his manga as Rukia argues that this is how modern people speak, which leads Ichigo to clarify that they are not doing so in this century. When she sees this, Orihime apologizes for interrupting and walking away, while Ichigo notes that this was awkward because Orihime is definitely going to think they are a couple. When Rukia tries to resume their education, Ichigo states that this is enough for a day. Rukia comes in and looks around the Urahara Shop. Although Rukia argues that she is not his superior and picks up his uniform as Rukia insists that he should help her get back to the Soul Society. Claiming that Rukia will do just fine in the human world and can provide fences or kendo lessons, Ichigo bids her farewell and walks away as Rukia moodily crosses her arms and sighs. Some time later, Rukia goes up to the Urahara Shop and enters it. As Rukia looks around, Kisuke Urahara asks her how her Gigai works out while pulling something out of a drawer. Rukia replaces the battery in her Denreishinki. When Urahara states that she fits right in as a high school girl, Rukia tells him not to be ridiculous, and notes that she doesn't really have a choice in the matter. Go down midtergulvet, midtergulvet, holds up a box and informs Rukia that it is a battery she needs her Denreishinki. After setting the box down on the table and opening it, Rukia removes the battery from her Denreishinki and slots in the new one before pressing her hand to the top of Denreishinki, which begins to glow purple in response as Urahara asks Rukia what her plan is. Byakuya Kuchiki orders Renji Abarai to bring Rukia in. As he reminds Rukia that she defied the Shinigami code by giving her powers to a human being, Urahara bluntly states that they will have her executed for this if they find out, and note that they should hope that they don't. Meanwhile, in a darkened room in Seireitei, Renji Abarai informs Byakuya Kuchiki that he is unable to find Rukia's Reiatsu and claims that she would never have been defeated by a poor Hollow like Fishbone D before asking Byakuya if she could really have given her powers to a human being. Byakuya orders Renji to find Rukia and bring her in if she did transfer her powers, prompting Renji to bow her head. Renji confronts Ichigo on the streets of the human world. That night in the human world, Ichigo walks down a quiet street before coming to a stop after being confronted by Renji, whom he asks who he is, prompting Renji to notice that Ichigo can see him. When Ichigo demands to know what he sensed a tall Reiatsu here that turned out to be Ichigo and asks him if he knows a young female Shinigami named Rukia who visited him. Ichigo claims not to know her, but Renji immediately looks through this and tells Ichigo to not play dumb with him before revealing that Rukia was hunting for a Hollow known as Grand Fisher. Renji pulls his Zanpakuto towards Ichigo. As Renji argues that Rukia must have been attracted to Ichigo's extraordinary power, Ichigo brings his mention of Grand Fisher, but Renji rejects this and asks him where Rukia is. When Ichigo cold says he doesn't know it, Renji advises him to stop lying and grabbing the vagina of his Zanpakuto before drawing and swinging his sword at Ichigo, who barely dodges it by leaning back. Pointing his Zanpakuto at Ichigo, staring at it in shock, a grinning Renji begins to advance on him, prompting Ichigo to move back into sync with him before falling back and running around the corner. Renji narrowly evades a Heilig Pfeil fired from behind. But as Renji begins to pursue Ichigo, he hears a whistling sound and looks behind him before narrowly avoiding a Heilig Pfeil that hurtles past him and integrates himself into a stone pillar nearby. Ser Heilig Pfeil as it spreads from behind another pillar, Renji acknowledges it as Ichigo realizes he is no longer persecuted, and looks back to see what happens. When Renji tries to move out behind the pillar, he is forced to dodge another Heilig Pfeil and expresses the amusement of a Quincy be present before Rukia is shocked to hear of Ichigo's meeting with Renji. Ichigo goes back to the scene of the confrontation, but doesn't see anyone nearby. Later that evening, as he lies in bed, Ichigo asks Rukia why she is really here, and when Rukia asks him what he thinks while lying in his closet, Ichigo states that he hates being the last person to know what is really going on. When Ichigo claims that he knows she is lying and tells her to stop hiding things from him, Rukia claims that she is not hiding anything, only to be visibly shocked in silence when Ichigo mentions that a redhead Shinigami tried to kill him, prompting Ichigo to notice that he was right. Ichigo berates Rukia for dragging him into this mess. As Rukia remains silent despite Ichigo's insistence that she speak, Ichigo opens the closet door and declares that he will do so instead, as he describes how Rukia was looking for this Grand Fisher and now has Renji looking for her before pointing out how he was almost killed for rent for Rukia hiding here. Rukia closes the door while telling Ichigo that they resume training in the morning, but Ichigo opens it again and asks if this is a joke, as he reminds Rukia that she has pulled him into a mess that he does not want to be in, only for Rukia to close the door again as she claims he needs more training. By akuya meets with Renji in the captain's quarter. Opening the door again. Ichigo asks Rukia why he should keep training, because it is not his fault that Rukia is stuck here and has to hide in a closet before asking her who gave permission for her to use her closet anyway, but a frustrated Rukia closes the door one last time and mentally states that Ichigo will die if he didn't go. Meanwhile, in his captain's guarters in Seireitei, Byakuva Renii asks if he is sure of this, prompting Renii to claim that Rukia would come out to protect Ichigo if a Hollow threatened him when Byakuva picks up his Zanpakutō and departs with him. Urvū says Ichigo is a Shinigami. The following day, at Karakura High School, Rukia leans on a railing alone at lunchtime as Orihime wonders where she lives. When Tatsuki wryly comments that she has heard Rukia live with Ichigo, a shocked Orihime asks her how she knows this, prompting Tatsuki to assure her that it is only a rumor. In his classroom, Ichigo sits down with his lunch, which he sees have the words Fight Yourself!! written on rice in seaweed, and immediately realize this is Isshin's doing as he starts to eat, only for Uryū to walk up to him and say that Ichigo is a Shinigami. Ichigo prevents Uryū from talking about rukia's true nature. As a shocked Ichigo spits the food out in his mouth. Urvu comments that this confirms his suspicions, prompting Ichigo to try to play it By telling him not to be an idiot. Point out how Ichigo has a very strong Relatsu that Only grown stronger over the last several days ever since Rukia arrived. Urvu notes that she may look like a human being, but is actually using a Gigai, only for Ichigo to cut him off by folding a hand over her mouth, which draws attention to their classmates. When Ichigo asks him who he is, Uryū pulls his hand out of his mouth and says that Ichigo has probably never noticed him. Uryū reveals the Reishi string in his Quincy Cross. Ichigo recalls, however, that Uryū was transferred to their school about a year ago before realizing that he doesn't know where Uryū was transferred from as a smiling Uryū introduces himself. Shortly afterwards, Ichigo and Uryū stand on the roof of the school when Ichigo asks Uryū how he knows about his Reiatsu. Uryū reveals that he is from the Quincy tribe and that Shinigami killed his people, and when a distrustful Ichigo calls him crazy. Removes the Uryū Quincy Cross attached to his wrist and pulls the two segments apart, revealing a series of Reishi between the two segments that surprise Ichigo. Uryū forms a great Heilig Book chopped with a Heilig Pfeil. By pulling the segments further apart, causing two more strings of Reishi to form at an angle to the main string attached to the expanding handle segment, Uryū forms a large Heilig Book with a Heilig Pfeil chopped into the string that he continues to shoot into the sky. When he sees Heilig Pfeil blow apart a cloud high above them, Ichigo realizes that the arrows Renji was dodging last night came from Uryū, who notes that Ichigo understands now and explains that he can also destroy the Hollows, even if he is a human being whom he considers his sole purpose in life along with the vengeance of his tribe. Uryū points his Book at Ichigo and challenges him. Uryū reveals that he came here a year ago when he first sensed Ichigo's powers before becoming another Heilig Pfeil and aiming it at a shocked Ichigo, who puts his hands up while frantically asking Uryū what he is doing. Proclaiming that he challenges Ichigo, Uryū begins to circle him while describing how they share their world with people, Plusser, Hollows, Shinigami, and those who hate Shinigami, and states that there is a turbulent world that people cannot see before claiming that it is his duty and destiny to destroy Ichigo if he is a Shinigami. Uryū crushes a piece of Hollow bait in your fingers. As Ichigo says this is far too complicated, Uryū declares that this is where he proved once and for all that Quincy is superior to Shinigami and orders Ichigo to defend himself before firing Heilig Pfeil, which Ichigo barely dodges as it seeps past his head. Watching this, a disappointed Uryū notices that he will just have to force Ichigo to be a Shinigami and take a piece of Hollow bait as he crushes between his fingers and throws over of the roof. Elsewhere in i Rukia hears her Denreishinki beep and frantically runs out in search of Ichigo. Rukia arrives to pick up Ichigo so he can handle Hollows. Back on the roof, Ichigo comes to his feet and asks Uryū what it was, only for Uryū simply to smile and adjust his glasses in response before hiding behind the wall nearby as Rukia arrives and informs Ichigo that they are here. Rukia declares that it is time to get to work, and puts on his Gokon Tekko and pushes Ichigo's soul out of his body, despite his protests to Uryū's surprise. When his body collapses, an annoyed Ichigo asks Rukia what the problem is now when she reveals Hollows is here and tries to pull him out, only for Ichigo to resist her and ask her what he is supposed to do. Ichigo has to destroy Hollows because it is the only way he can increase his powers and return her to the Soul Society, but Ichigo claims she has him mistaken for someone who actually cares, only to suddenly stop in shock and run out after hearing a voice crying for help that he recognizes. As an annoyed and confused Rukia follows him, Uryū departs. Looking at her Denreishinki, which is filled with Hollow markers, Rukia comments on how many Hollows appear and wonder what draws them before noticing that they can attack innocent beings at any moment. Hexapodus begins to pursue the young Plus. Shortly after, as the young Plus from before runs down the street, Ichigo descends a set of stairs nearby and recognizes the Plus, which he notices doesn't get to heaven anyway. Plus stop and turn around as Hexapodus pulls himself on top of a nearby roof, prompting Ichigo to start running toward him. But Rukia tells Ichigo to come back and claims that he needs to protect all spirits and people instead of just this one Plus. As Hexapodus begins to hunt down The Plus, Rukia details, Shinigami treat everyone equally and tells Ichigo begins to collide with Hexapodus. Watch Plus turn and fall to the ground as Hexapodus catches up to him, Ichigo declares that Rukia can take her Shinigami's oath and push it as he throws his vaginas at her and runs forward. When Hexapodus sticks back to hit Plus with one of his legs, Ichigo runs up and repels his leg with a slash of his Zanpakuto before evading a subsequent strike from another leg. With Rukia pulling The Plus out of harm's way. Ichigo slashes on Hexapodus again and deflects two more of his strikes while telling Rukia that he's not so noble that he would risk his life for a stranger. Ichigo is sent flying by one of Hexapodus' attacks. Despite this, Ichigo also claims that he is not so low that does not come to the aid of someone in as he glides under Hexapodus, where he dodges several stabbing strikes from Hollow's Hollow's while counterattacking where he can. When Hexapodus backs up, a grinning Ichigo asks him if this is all he's got before the two rush at each other. Hexapodus starts poking at Ichigo with multiple legs in guick succession, forcing him to bypass them and blocking strikes where he can before sending Ichigo flying back with a powerful strike from his right front leg. Renji saves Ichigo from Hexapodus. As Ichigo crashes to the ground and looks up in shock, Hexapodus arcs over him and prepares to strike as Rukia tells Ichigo to keep an eye, only for Renji to suddenly appear and slash down through Hexapodus's body, cleansing him. Flicking the blood from his sword, Renji turns to glare at Ichigo while taunting him with his tongue, and Rukia recognizes him. Renji saunters casually towards Ichigo with his Zanpakuto over his shoulder before suddenly jumping to him with Shunpo and thrusting his blade towards Ichigo, which is left, staring at the inches from his face as he tries to grab his own Zanpakuto. Ichigo is quickly and brutally defeated by Renji. While Renji taunts him as slow and lowers his Zanpakuto, Ichigo angrily grabs and swings his Zanpakuto towards him, only for renji to move behind him and quickly overpower him in three battles, sending Ichigo down a tree. After falling to the ground, a coughing Ichigo reaches for his Zanpakuto, but Renji steps on his hand, causing Ichigo to scream in pain, and advises him not to mess with Shinigami before kicking him away with his other foot. As Ichigo lies hissing breathing on the ground, Renji notes that this was easy and approaching him while spinning his Zanpakuto around to keep it in an inverted grip. Rukia prevents Renji from guitting Ichigo. But as Renji prepares to stab Ichigo, Rukia moves between them and warns Renji to stop, prompting an irritated Renji to lower his sword before tearing at Rukia, who spins around and crouches by Ichigo's side unscathed. Renji informs Rukia that she did not dodge his strike and that he walked easy on her, and Rukia asks him why he is here, Renji states that she should know before detailing that he is here to take her back and kill the man she gave her powers to. Watching the expression on Rukia's face, Renji mockingly asks her if this is a human look. By akuya appears before Rukia and Renji. When he declares that Rukia's humanity is disgusting to look at, Renji recalls Rukia that they were both born in Rukongai and adopted by the Kuchiki Clan and states that she was trained to become an elite Shinigami before claiming that she should not look like a human being. When Renji asks Byakuya if he agrees, a shocked Rukia comes to her feet and turns around to see Byakuya standing nearby, causing her to kneel as Renji moves away. Slowly walking towards Rukia, Byakuya stops a few meters away rebukes Rukia for defying their code. Byakuya instructs Rukia to take take her power. Rukia details how she would be devoured by Fishbone D if she did not give Ichigo her power and that she only meant to transfer some of it, but Byakuya rejects this as an undignified excuse and reminds Rukia that she should know the Soul Society will demand her execution because she has committed a crime. When Byakuya claims that she needs to take her power back from Ichigo so she can be pardoned for her crime, Rukia explains that Ichigo may die if she tries to initiate the transfer in her current state, but Byakuya dismissively tells her to let him die. Byakuya and Renji leave after giving Rukia an ultimatum. Looking at Ichigo, Rukia states that it was not Ichigo's fault that she gave him his powers and asks if a Shinigami's job is to let innocent men die, only for Byakuya to patronize noting that she feels compassion for a human being. As Rukia tries to deny this, Byakuya orders her again to regain her powers and let Ichigo die before that she will be the one to die otherwise. Byakuya tells Rukia that she has until the full moon to do so and walks away with Renji as Rukia protests. After telling Renji to take Hollow to the west, Byakuya disappears with his lieutenant. Ichigo grimaces as Rukia prepares to heal him. As he watches this from the street nearby, Uryū turns around and departs. Later that day, Rukia carries a badly wounded Ichigo back to his unconscious body on the roof of Karakura High School, where he collapses. Pulling a container of fluid as she begins to rub on Ichigo's wounds as he grimaces in pain, Rukia claims that Ichigo will surely die in both body and soul if they do not heal his wounds before returning him to his body. But while Rukia keeps rubbing the liquid in his wounds, a visibly scared Ichigo asks her what they will do, to which Rukia has no answer. Masaki lies dead on top of Ichigo with serious injuries. In the past, Ichigo wakes up after trying to help the girl on the riverbank and finds her mother lying on top of him. As Ichigo tries to wake her up, he sees two massive slashes on her back and realizes that she is dead. In the present, having dreamed of this event, Ichigo wakes up in his bed to find himself wrapped in bandages with Isshin sleeping in a chair next to him. When Ichigo gets his attention, Isshin opens his eyes and expresses relief that Ichigo is awake when he notices that he was in something of an accident before revealing that one of his classmates dragged him home. Ichigo agonizes over his role in Masaki's death. While Isshin teasingly tells him to invite her over sometime, Ichigo states that he dreamed of Masaki last night, prompting Isshin to notice that it's almost the anniversary of her death as Ichigo elaborates that he dreames of her often. Grabbing a Isshin wipes Ichigo's face while admitting that he dreams of Masaki every As Isshin concludes, Ichigo claims that he failed to protect Masaki and that she died because of him, leading Isshin to silently dampen the cloth in a bowl of water, while Ichigo holds his arm over his eyes and tearfully claims that he can't protect anyone. Ichigo appears to refute Keigo's claim. But Isshin tells Ichigo that he's got it wrong, and states that the love of his life died protecting Ichigo, for which he will always be proud of her. Later, at Karakura High School, Keigo rushes into his classroom and informs Orihime and Tatsuki that Ichigo was in some kind of accident. When a shocked Orihime asks him if Ichigo is alright, Keigo melodramaticly claims that Ichigo to immediately, only for Ichigo to immediately, only for Ichigo to immediately. Sado stands up and asks Ichigo what happened to his neck. Orihime and Tatsuki talk about Ichigo's recent behavior. When Uryū looks out from his desk, Ichigo adjusts the bandages around his neck and claims that it doesn't matter until he sits at his desk, where he looks at a visibly worried Rukia as she looks out the window, to Orihime's confusion. Later that day, at Rob's Burger, Uryū sits in a booth alone while Sado walks by for a drink and briefly stares at him before moving on. Nearby, as she and Tatsuki eat their food, Orihime notes that Ichigo hasn't seemed like himself lately, prompting Tatsuki to speculate that Rukia dumped him to Orihime's shock. Rukia ponders her situation and Ichigo's readiness. When Orihime asks her if she thinks Ichigo and Rukia were dating, Tatsuki says that Orihime should have realized this even before claiming that this is her chance. Elsewhere, as she sits under a bridge with her Denreishinki in her hand, Rukia looks at the Ichigo's name displayed on her device and notes that he is not ready as she reminds Byakuya's ultimatum that she will get her powers back at the expense of Ichigo's life by the full moon otherwise she will be killed. That night, as Ichigo lies in his bed, he remembers Rukia protecting him from Fishbone D the first night they met. Ichigo finds Rukia missing from his closet. Asking Rukia why she saved him that night, Ichigo notes that she gave him her Shinigami powers knowing how much trouble it would get her in, even if he was just an ordinary human. When he points out that they could both easily have wound up dead, Ichigo states that Rukia still risked his own life to save his. But as Ichigo sits up, he takes note of the continued silence and opens the closet door to find Rukia missing from her makeshift bed. Ichigo continues to search for Rukia on the street outside her house and under the bridge, but does not find her. Ichigo asks Uryū where Sjælsmark is located. Suddenly, Ichigo realizes who is know and run out, arrive at Rob's Burger shortly After quickly going upstairs, Ichigo makes his way around the room to find someone before spotting Uryū, whom he rushes over to and asks for the soul association's location. While Uryū comments on Ichigo's suddenness, Ichigo sits in front of him and reveals that he cannot find Rukia until he asks Uryū if he thinks she could have returned to the Soul Community. When Uryū asks him how to know where Rukia has gone, Ichigo insists that he tell him where Soul Field is and how to get there. Uryū reveals that he knows an exiled Shinigami. Uryū sarcastically asks Ichigo if he wants to save Rukia, and when Ichigo confidently says he could, an impressed Uryū says this is exciting, before reminding Ichigo that he would have to accept Renji, an elite swordman. When an annoved Ichigo wonders if Uryū will tell him or not, uryū admits that he has no idea how to find soul society, but as Ichigo begins to storm out, Uryū reveals that he knows someone who does and details how they are a Shinigami who was banished from the Soul Society and now lives here. Shortly afterwards, Ichigo arrives at Urahara tells Ichigo what Rukia plans to do. Inside, Ichigo declares that there must be a way to get to the Soul Society, only for Urahara to state that he does not believe Rukia returned there because she would have been executed if she did so and is not the type of person to throw her life away that way. When he places a small figure on a shelf, Urahara informs Ichigo that he is the one Rukia protects, to his surprise, and details how she will try to convince her brother to spare Ichigo's life, even if she will risk her own in the process, prompting Ichigo to realize that she will protect him again. Rukia explains his plan to Byakuya and Renji. Elsewhere, on a torii, Rukia kneels before Byakuya and Renji as she explains that Ichigo's Reiatsu will attract Grand Fisher before promising to clean it and redeem herself when it appears. As Rukia claims he let Ichigo live in return, Byakuya asks her if she has a plan. Back at Urahara sits down and opens a fan when he notices that Rukia has a good chance of being killed on the spot if she really does this because her brother Byakuya is ruthless before revealing that the favorite portal Shinigami to the Soul Society is nearby. Shortly afterwards, Ichigo runs down the street. Renji angrily declares that Ichigo is only useful as bait. On torii, Byakuya asks Rukia if she would endanger her life for the sake of a human being, which she denies, and if she would not obey her older brother's command, before demanding to know if Rukia distrusts him. Asked if Rukia would defy him to protect Ichigo, Byakuya insists that she answer him, Rukia remains silent. As he listens to this, Renji urges Rukia to simply kill Ichigo Ichigo Come back to the Soul Society so she can be pardoned, and when Rukia continues to remain silent, he angrily reminds her that Grand Fisher will devour him anyway and claims that Ichigo is only good for use as bait. Ichigo interrupts the negotiation process. Suddenly, Ichigo declares that this is enough, prompting Rukia and Renji to look at him in surprise as he stands under the nearby gate. But as Renji withdraws his Zanpakuto and prepares to strike despite Rukia's protest, Byakuya asks him to stop and smiles as he decides to let Ichigo try. With Renji protesting this, Byakuya tells Ichigo to destroy The Grand Fisher, which Ichigo agrees to do on the condition that they pardon Rukia if he succeeds. Ichigo resumes his Shinigami training with Rukia. As Rukia looks on in astonishment, Ichigo tells her that they must finish his Shinigami training so he can defeat Grand Fisher and return her powers greater than they were before. The next day, Ichigo and Rukia stand in a tree-sword park, where they nod to each other before they start sparring. While Ichigo trains with rubber cords holding him to a tree and pulling Rukia behind him on a tire attached to a rope, Rukia explains that Grand Fisher is a Hollow that Shinigami has pursued. for 54 years because it is far more powerful, agile, and deadly than any Hollow they've ever encountered. Ichigo easily deflects every baseball Rukia pitches at him. While describing how Grand Fisher uses lures to attract targets with high Reiatsu and devour their souls, meaning it will be drawn to Ichigo as his powers rise, Rukia places several glass bottles on sticks and arranges them around Ichigo, taking on a combat stance in his Shinigami form before cutting the air in front of him, only to be confused when nothing happens, to Rukia's disappointment. Rukia resumes firing baseballs out of the pitching machine at Ichigo that easily blocks and deflects every single one, and the two continue to spar with wooden swords in the park. Ichigo, Rukia drags along the ground on a deck, Orihime and Tatsuki pass the park, only to stop in surprise after seeing Ichigo severely battling Rukia with a wooden sword before being knocked down. Later, at Rob's Burger, Tatsuki Keigo confusion. When Tatsuki mentions that it looks like he was training and wonders if he's starring in a play, Keigo excitedly speculates that Ichigo will be an action TV star, as Tatsuki notes is possible because he has the body for it as Orihime calmly looks away. Rukia illustrates how Ichigo should clean the Grand As Ichigo and Rukia continue to entering the night, Rukia explains that cleansing a Hollow means redeeming it from its sins instead of killing it. Later, in Ichigo's bedroom, Rukia sits down with him and illustrates how he should attack The Grand Fisher's forehead as it can't withstand a blow there. Looking at Rukia's rabbit-like drawing, a confused Ichigo asks her if this is Grand Fisher, leading an embarrassed Rukia to admit that it's not an exact recreation. While Ichigo notes that this doesn't help much, Rukia argues that the one thing she's sure of is Grand Fisher's enormous size. Ichigo realizes he saw Grand Fisher as a kid. Ichigo mulls over how he's the one Grand Fisher has been looking for and asks Rukia how long it's been doing. When Rukia reminds me that it has stalked Ichigo since he was a child, a troubled Ichigo wonders if it is possible for him to have seen it at that age. On that no one can agree on what it looks like. But when Ichigo asks her what Grand Fisher was before he became a Hollow. Rukia reveals that it was the girl he saw the day his mother died. Sado informs Orihime about Ichigo having beaten up some bullies. As Ichigo stands up and mutters under his breath about it being the spirit of a girl, a worried Rukia asks him if he remembers anything that this just got personal when he looks at a picture of his mother. The next day, as Ichigo and Rukia continue to spar with wooden swords in the park, Sado and Orihime watch from the path nearby as Sado informs Orihime that Ichigo beat up some thugs several days ago and they swore revenge, leading her to believe that Ichigo has trained with Rukia to get ready for them if they show up again. Urahara clarifies the situation of Sado and Orihime. But Urahara reveals that Ichigo faces a much bigger fight, prompting a surprised Sado and Orihime to turn around and watch him stand next to them, noting with admiration that Ichigo still takes up the challenge, even though he knows the risk that this is his last fight. As Urahara turns and walks away, Sado and Orihime turn their attention back to Ichigo, who continues to spar with Rukia on an equal footing. The training continues into the evening, with Ichigo hoisting Rukia up on a tire swing attached to her sword and managing to spar with her even when tied to the tree with rubber restraints. Ichigo crushes all the bottles with a rotating slash. Later, as Ichigo vells while driving under the bridge with a rope tied around his waist dragging Rukia behind him on a tire, she drops his book because of the high speed he pulls her at. Finally, while Rukia watches anxiously, Ichigo stands in the middle of the ring of and concentrate before performing a rotating horizontal slash that shatters all bottles at once, causing a surprised Rukia to laugh. Expressing delight at having achieved this, Ichigo runs over to Rukia with her hand held up and having her hold her hand as well before giving her a high-five. By akuya and Renji discuss their plan for Ichigo and Rukia. Rukia congratulates Ichigo for pulling it off before asking him what he just did, prompting Ichigo to explain that it's a high-five when he gives her another. While Ichigo and Rukia laugh about this, while Ichigo invites Rukia to try one of his own and praises the subsequent attempt, Uryū watches from the path above before walking away. Meanwhile, as they walk through a cemetery, Renji asks Byakuya to claim that Ichigo will not survive regardless and is merely bait to lure Grand Fisher, which he orders Renji to destroy instead. Byakuya explains why Rukia's attachment makes her weak. Telling Renji he will kill Rukia afterwards, prompting Renji to look at him by surprise, Byakuya notes that Rukia could never kill Ichigo herself because she has grown too attached and claims that this can become a dangerous ailment for Shinigami by weakening or even killing them. That evening, Ichigo, Karin and Yuzu sit at the dinner table while Isshin declares the beginning of Masaki's annual commemoration before clapping repeatedly. When Isshin tells his children to raise their hands if they have a suggestion. Karin and Yuzu do the same. Isshin is planning Masaki's memorial service with his children. But as Karin and Yuzu try to suggest ideas, Isshin assigns Yuzu to lunch duty and Karin to help with flowers, incense, and offers as he sat down, prompting Karin to complain that he ignores them while Yuzu wonders why she raised her hand. Isshin claims that he will be on beer duty, and as Karin points out that he is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin clarifies that beer is for both himself and Masaki, causing Yuzu to gasp in understanding and Karin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin clarifies that beer is for both himself and Masaki, causing Yuzu to gasp in understanding and Karin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin clarifies that beer is for both himself and Masaki, causing Yuzu to gasp in understanding and Karin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin clarifies that beer is for both himself and Masaki, causing Yuzu to gasp in understanding and Karin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin clarifies that beer is for both himself and Masaki, causing Yuzu to gasp in understanding and Karin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin clarifies that beer is for both himself and Masaki, causing Yuzu to gasp in understanding and Karin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin clarifies that beer is for both himself and Masaki, causing Yuzu to gasp in understanding and Karin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin to proclaim that they must bring other things is not going to drink beer and Yuzu calls him selfish, Isshin to proclaim that they must be the proclaim that they must be the proclaim that the proclaim that the pr too like Ichigo watches with a smile. Ichigo looks at a framed picture of his mother. Later, when Ichigo walks into his bedroom, Rukia, who had been looking at her Denreishinki in his closet, asks him if he and his family are going on a picnic, prompting Ichigo to chuckle and notice that it's something like this. Looking at a picture of Masaki, Ichigo reveals that they visit his mother's grave and notice that his family loves and misses her very much before claiming he tore her away from them as he captures the picture. When Rukia asks him if it really is so important to have this family bond, Ichigo asks if she has anyone at home while lying on her Ichigo to let Rukia stay with him. Rukia reveals that she has no parents, leading Ichigo to sit up and offer to let her stay at the Kurosaki Clinic if she wants so she could at least have a friend. Keeping a smile on this, Rukia argues that such a thing is impossible because it is against the Shinigami code, only for Ichigo to slyly comment that Shinigami could loosen up a little when he falls back on his pillow. After thinking quietly with a series of emotions on her face for several seconds, Rukia thanks Ichigo and admits that what he said made her feel happy before closing the closet door as Ichigo smiles. Karin and Yuzu ask Ichigo to have them drinks. The next day, in the woods near the local cemetery, Isshin urges his daughters to continue as they and Ichigo walk up a hill. When Yuzu complains about how hard it is to climb this hill every year, Isshin takes a bag out of Karin's hand to ease her load, only for her to accuse him of being an impostor because he took it lighter. As Isshin cheerfully walks away, Karin notes that she should have had a drink and asks Ichigo to go back to the vending machine, prompting Yuzu to ask for pineapple juice as an annoyed Ichigo states that they should have thought of this at the bottom of the tray. Isshin drinks a beer in front of Masaki's grave. While Karin declares that she is thirsty now, Ichigo relents and tells them to move on as he begins to walk back with a smile. Upon coming across Rukia on the path, Ichigo asks her if she sees anything that Rukia denies when she looks at her Denreishinki. Meanwhile, on Masaki's gravestone, Isshin kneels and places a beer on the stone while claiming this is for her before drinking one of his own. When he's done, Isshin masaki asks if there's any way she can tell Ichigo that it wasn't his fault. Elsewhere, Karin and Yuzu treseed through the woods with their supplies. Grand Fisher's Lure appears before Karin and Yuzu. Suddenly, Yuzu comes to a stop and wonders what the girl does there as Karin watches Grand Fisher's Lure standing in front of them and starts crying. While Rukia rushes out with Ichigo on her beep Denreishinki informing her that Grand Fisher is close, Yuzu approaches asking Lure what's wrong, and if that's alright as Karin walks up to her side, only for Lure to suddenly stop crying and look at them blankly before screaming like tendrils of fur expanding out from behind it. On Masaki's gravestone, Isshin sits with another beer and wonders what takes his children so long. Grand Fisher is holding Karin and Yuzu hostage. Meanwhile, as Ichigo and Rukia run through the forest, they stop by encountering a pulsating mass of fur that parts to reveal Lure. With Rukia confirming it's Grand Fisher, Ichigo acknowledges Lure from the day his mother died and coldly states that he knew Grand Fisher was responsible. of it from him To reveal Karin and Yuzu are being held captive, prompting Ichigo to warn Rukia when she pulls out and puts on her Gokon Tekko. After Rukia pushes him out of his body into his Shinigami form, Ichigo pulls his Zanpakuto and charges Grand Fisher. Ichigo is apparently confronted by Masaki. Declaring that Grand Fisher killed his mother, Ichigo begins to cut through tendrils of fur in the road and frees Karin and Yuzu, who fall to the ground as Rukia runs over to them and advises Ichigo to try to get behind the Grand Fisher. Ichigo continues to cut through tendrils and eventually sticks into the mass of fur, only to look up in shock after seeing Masaki with blood dripping from her mouth on the other end of his blade. As Masaki puts his name, Ichigo expresses disbelief and pulls his Zanpakuto out of his mother, only to suddenly find herself on the riverbank where she died with her. Rukia puts Isshin to sleep with a Kido magic. Masaki begins approaching a stunned Ichigo and claims she has missed holding him as she reaches for his face, only for tendrils of fur to sprout from behind her as Rukia reveals it is an illusion. As Ichigo is sent flying back by tendrils, the furry parts to reveal The Grand Fisher himself in full. Angry about this fraud, Ichigo demands that Grand Fisher leave his mother out of this fight and charges again as Grand Fisher declares that it has been waiting for him before enveloping Ichigo in his fur and jumping away. When Isshin comes looking for his daughters, Rukia puts him to sleep with a Kido magic and runs out. Grand Fisher chases Ichigo through the street. Elsewhere, like Byakuya and Renji looking over Karakura Town from another part of the cemetery, they hear a distant crash and a roar, prompting Renii to notice that it has begun. In a commercial district of Karakura Town, as civilians walk through the street, Grand Fisher crashes through the glass archway above and begins attacking those around what appears as a small tornado to onlookers as they flee. Ichigo runs through the crowd away from Grand Fisher, who pursues him while continuing to injure the surrounding area and attack pedestrians with his fur tendrils. Ichigo cuts away one of Grand Fisher's fur tendrils. In the mall where Rob's Burger is located, several civilians run into the street as Ichigo follows them, only to turn around and cut away one of Grand Fisher's tendrils before running down the sidewalk. Smashing through the corner of the building between it and Ichigo, Grand Fisher begins to tear through the front of the shops along the street as it sends several tendrils on Ichigo, which alternates between cutting them away and continuing to run as civilians scatter around them. In a car nearby, a man sees dozens of people fleeing and looks behind him to see the Grand Fisher's tornado. The students notice the fuss Grand Fisher slams into the car, which careens into a kiosk as pedestrians run away in terror, and roars while attacking Ichigo, who slashes away one of his tendrils before being smacked in the face by another, allowing Grand Fisher to wrap a third around his ankle and throw Ichigo into a convenience store through the window. While Ichigo gets to his feet and runs from two more pursuing tendrils, Karakura High School students inside Rob's Burger brand commotion and fear as Uryū simply notices it's here. Sado catches half the metal sign on his shoulders. Suddenly, the wall behind the students explodes as Ichigo crashes through it. A berified Ichigo stands up and sees his friends staring at him and realizes that they can't see him, even if Uryū does. After seeing Grand Fisher throw a large metal sign at the window, Ichigo runs along the tables and cuts it in half as it smashes through the window. As he lands, Ichigo turns around and expresses astonishment to see Sado standing in front of the other students with half the metal sign hoisted on his shoulders and arms, which he immediately throws to the ground. Sado and Orihime realize that Ichigo was present. When two more of Grand Fisher's tendrils snake through the window, Ichigo begins to cut them away repeatedly as Sado and Orihime stare at the room where he struggles with confusion. After the tendrils retreat, Ichigo tells Sado to take care of the students for him and jump out of the window, prompting Sado to realize Ichigo was there as a surprised Orihime asks him if he felt Ichigo too. While the other students express confusion at this, Orihime claims that Ichigo stood right there as Sado helps her to her feet and orders those present to come out of the building as they observe. Ichigo blocks one of Grand Fisher's claws with his Zanpakuto. Outside, Ichigo runs through the parking lot and continues cutting away fur tendrils before sliding over the hood of a car. Catching up for Ichigo, who is forced to dodge and climbs onto the roof of another car, Grand Fisher immediately plunging into the air. When he lands on his back on top of a third card, Ichigo rolls to the ground just before the other car crashes in the third, where he immediately blocks one of Grand Fisher's claws with his Zanpakuto. A Heilig Pfeil seeps against Grand Fisher. While Rukia runs into the pavilion, Grand Fisher sinks one of his claws into Ichigo, who grunts in pain before proclaiming that he must win this fight, no matter what, as he begins to push Grand Fisher back with great effort. Suddenly, a Heilig Pfeil embeds itself in Grand Fisher's wrist, causing it to rear back and roar in pain as Ichigo and Rukia turn to watch Uryū standing on of a nearby car with his Heilig Book in hand. While his bowing is retiring, Uryū guirkyly comments that this was close, prompting Ichigo to confirm this, while Rukia expresses shock that Uryū is a Quincy. Ichigo cuts Grand Fisher's underside. Grand Fisher turns his attention to Uryū and begins to send his fur tendrils at him, causing Uryū to jump out of the car and run down the street while firing more Heilig Pfeil at Grand Fisher. While Uryū drops to one knee and starts firing Heilig Pfeil in guick succession, Grand Fisher easily dodges or blocks them with his tendrils, causing Ichigo to start advancing as he deflects or cuts through the coat with which Grand Fisher lashes him. Sliding under Grand Fisher, Ichigo lands a big slash on his underside, causing Grand Fisher to collapse. furious Grand Fisher starts to get serious. As Grand Fisher gets to his feet and curses him, Ichigo stands back-to-back with Uryū and claims he has it covered now, only for Uryū to claim that he needs Ichigo alive for the day he challenges him, causing Ichigo to smile. Suddenly, Grand Fisher throws a car towards Ichigo and Uryū, forcing them to disassemble and dodge, and the two are surprised when the wind starts to pick up when Grand Fisher stands up on his hind legs and roars. Grand Fisher's fur tendrils begin to whip around the area at high speeds, causing debris to fly around when you slam into Uryū. Ichigo has his arms and legs restrained by tendrils. Dodging another tendril, Ichigo leaps through the windshield of a nearby bus into his feet as Grand Fisher declares that his time has come. When Grand Fisher's tendrils start poking into the bus through the windows. Ichigo begins to block and divert them, but finds his movement hampered by cramped spaces around him. After shaking one of the tendrils from his Zanpakuto and ducking to avoid another, Ichigo has his wrists bound by two tendrils despite his struggles and is lifted off the floor when two more tendrils wrap around his ankles. The Heilig Pfeil embeds itself in Grand Fisher's eye. While Ichigo struggles to free himself, two large tendrils of fur encircle the bus through the interior and lift it up into the air as Grand Fisher rotates it to face perpendicular to the ground. If you see this, Uryū prepares to fire a Heilig Pfeil, and when Rukia advises him to aim for Grand Fisher's forehead, Uryū pauses for a few seconds before firing Heilig Pfeil through the bus, causing it to integrate into one of Grand Fisher's eyes as it screams in pain. While Uryū wonders if he missed it, Grand Fisher curls the bus before tearing it apart with his tendrils. Ichigo provides Fisher the final blow. But as Rukia looks at the devastation, she is shocked to see Ichigo ride a piece of rubbish up to Grand Fisher's head where he he up in the air with his Zanpakuto held down in front of him while he screamed. Ichigo recalls how he promised to protect his mother as a child, and he sinks his Zanpakuto into Grand Fisher's forehead up to the hilt, causing Hollow to scream in pain as the energy begins to flow out of the wound before jumping out while the smoke spewing out from Grand Fisher's forehead. As it falls to the ground, Grand Fisher's body dissolves in smoke. Uryū is suddenly stabbed from behind. Ichigo lands on his hands and knees near another bus, which he sits back against as he watches Grand Fisher's body completely disappear into a point of blue light. Running over to Ichigo, a worried Rukia frantically asks him if he's okay, only for Ichigo to smile at her before looking at Uryū, who walks over to them with his Ouincy Cross in hand. When Ichigo for later, prompting an amusing Ichigo to comment on his stubborn nature before Uryū is suddenly stabbed from behind by a Zanpakuto. By akuya and Renji confront Ichigo and Rukia. While Ichigo and Rukia look on in shock, Renji stands up behind Uryū and admits that he didn't think Ichigo could really destroy Grand Fisher as Ichigo angrily tries to get to his feet. Uryū collapses, causing Renji to pull his Zanpakuto out of him and noticing that the worst thing for a Zanpakuto is Quincy blood before he cleans his sword with a slash. While Uryū coughs up blood on the ground, Renji tells Ichigo to die and points his Zanpakuto at him, and as Rukia tries to convince him to stop, Byakuya appears and tells her to stop pretending to be a human being. Byakuya orders Renji to kill Ichigo and Rukia. Walking towards Rukia, Byakuya asks her what happened to Shinigami she aspired to be, and argues that a Shinigami should not become emotionally involved with a human being before ordering Rukia to kill Ichigo. When Rukia does not respond, Byakuya states that he will not ask her again, and as she continues to remain silent, Byakuya claims that she is past being cured and orders Renji to kill them both before turning away. As Renji steps in, Ichigo gets to his feet and demands that Byakuya keep his word as he assures Rukia that he will protect her when she expresses concern for him. Renji begins to violently attack Ichigo. Though Rukia tells him to drive, Ichigo claims he will stay right here, prompting Renji to charge at him. Renji violently begins to attack Ichigo, who is immediately forced on the defensive as he blocks Renji's guick attack with his Zanpakuto pointing to the ground. As Renji pushes him back with several more strikes and tries to attack Rukia behind him, Ichigo manages to block his attacks on her at the last second by turning around to reach them as Rukia retreats, causing Renji to send Ichigo into a nearby car with a special specia proclaims that he will soon be dead and charges at him, a shouting Ichigo runs forward with his Zanpakuto dragging on the ground before attacking Renji in unison. Although the clash drives him back, Ichigo turns over and regains his footing as he dodges Renji's subsequent airstrikes. Moving back, Ichigo continues to block Renji's quick attack even when the latter forces him to his knees with a kick to the shin. Renji sends Ichigo's Zanpakuto flying towards him. As Ichigo and Renji spin away from this clash, Renji runs toward Ichigo almost parallel to the ground and resumes his attack, which Ichigo manages to block or evade, while successfully forcing Renii to block two attacks of his own. Around Ichigo as he leans back to avoid a horizontal slash from him, Renii almost cuts his hand, forcing Ichigo to let go of his Zanpakuto, which Renii sends spinning towards Ichigo with a powerful slash. Ichigo manages to grab his Zanpakuto out of the air and attack, but Renji meets this with a tap of his own that forces Ichigo to its knees while blocking it. Renji runs up the length of Ichigo's Zanpakuto. Asking Ichigo if he is kidding him, Renji knocks Ichigo into the air before pushing his Zanpakuto forward with his free hand on the blade, which sends Ichigo slipping back as he blocks it. As the top of his Zanpakuto catches on a car door lying on the ground, Ichigo turns over it and regains his footing, only for renji to drive up his Zanpakuto and prepare to stab him. Ichigo manages to swing his Zanpakuto over his head and send Renji flying behind him, jumping off the ground and slamming his feet first into an overturned truck before landing on his hand and feet as he looks up in surprise. Renji slams Ichigo's head into his knee. As Ichigo sticks back to attack, Renji rushes forward and meets him in a sword cross that drives Ichigo up into the air, where he kicks Renji in the back. Stumbling forward, an angry Renji dodges Ichigo's follow-up attack, cracking his Zanpakuto to the side before slamming Ichigo's head into his knee. With Ichigo flying back from the impact of this, Renji leaps into the air above him and slams him to the ground with his foot on Ichigo's face. Renji tries to finish Ichigo out, but Ichigo as he leaps into the air in response, sending him sliding along the ground between two buses. While a coughing and wheezing Ichigo comes to feet, Renji requires to know if this is all Ichigo has and keeps his Zanpakuto out as he claims that it is his turn. Renji declares that Ichigo is two thousand years too early to be his equal and holds his free hand up to the bottom of his Zanpakuto, which begins to glow red and transform into a large, segmented, toothed blade, which Renji refers to as his Shikai, Zabimaru. Renji presses Ichigo with attack from Zabimaru. As he tells Ichigo to hear the roar, Renji throws Zabimaru toward Ichigo, causing it to expand and reveal a stretchy thread between the segments as its tip slams into the end of the bus near Ichigo. When Renji pulls Zabimaru out towards him, Ichigo pushes the tip into the ground, but Renji pulls it up into the air and slams it into the ground next to Ichigo, who quickly jumps out from the side of one of the buses to reach the roof of the other. Narrowly deflecting another strike from Zabimaru, Ichigo is knocked down by a third as Renji attacks him from the other bus. Renji blows up the area around Ichigo. After jumping to avoid a horizontal slash by Zabimaru, Ichigo runs to the end of the bus as Renji slams Zabimaru into where he was just standing before jumping to the other bus, causing Renji to do the same while continuing to attack him. As Ichigo repeatedly ducks under Zabimaru while it hurtles at him, a grinning Renji whips Zabimaru around and wraps it around Ichigo as he continues to swing around the area before slamming him into a car. While Ichigo falls to the ground, Renji bids him farewell and hooks a car at Zabimaru before slamming it into the Ichigo location, creating a large explosion. Ichigo comes out of the flaming wreck. Rukia protects himself from the ensuing wind and debris and stares in shock at the flaming wreck and tries to approach it, but Renji lands in front of her and mockingly claims he has killed his girlfriend before claiming that there are no hard feelings involved as he levels Zabimaru on her. But Rukia's attention is alerted to noises in the wreckage as Ichigo emerges from the flames, to Rukia and Renji's surprise. As he hoists his Zanpakuto over his shoulder, a smiling Ichigo Renji tells him that he begins to believe that he will not lose to him. Ichigo gives Renji a devastating blow. While Renji assumes a combat stance, Ichigo begins to concentrate his power and assumes one as well, causing Renji to wonder if he is invincible before charging at him out of the flames. Renji sends Zabimaru hurtling towards Ichigo, pushing his Zanpakuto into the blade segments, causing the formation to crumble and being pushed back towards Renji. As Renii struggles to regain control of Zabimaru, a screaming Ichigo slashes at him, forcing Renii to block by rallving Zabimaru and sending him flying into one of the buses that crash into the other bus with the force of impact. By akuva Ichigo's Zanpakutō in place. Space, To one knee, an injured Renii prepares to resume the fight, only to discover that most of the blade of Zabimaru has been cut off by Ichigo attack. While Rukia watches in astonishment, a gasping Renji sits down as Byakuya tells him to step aside. Ichigo sees Byakuya slowly approaching him and declares that it is Byakuya's funeral and charges him as he prepares to strike, only to suddenly stop short and look back in shock to watch Byakuya effortlessly hold his Zanpakuto in place with two fingers near the tip as he claims that Ichigo is slow. Byakuya cuts through Ichigo's side in a single motion. Ichigo pulls his Zanpakuto out of Bvakuva's grip and turns around to cut on him again, but Bvakuva ducks and unsheathes his own Zanpakuto before tearing through the Ichigo side in a single fluid motion. As Byakuva resheathes his Zanpakuto, a stunned Ichigo collapses, while Rukia talked him in concern. Visibly scared, Rukia watches as Byakuya approaches her, only to stop when Ichigo tells him to wait. Watching Ichigo get to his feet, Rukia warns him to run because he is no match for Byakuya's strength, but Ichigo instead charges against Byakuya while yelling. Byakuya stops Ichigo's swing with the tip of his sword. But Byakuya simply unsheathes his blade, stops Ichigo's Zanpakutō in the air with the tip, slashes it down to integrate Ichigo's Zanpakutō into the ground, and slashes through the Ichigo side again in a quick motion, leading Ichigo to fall over again as Byakuya resheathes his Zanpakutō behind him. As Renji emerges behind some wreckage, Byakuya tells Rukia that it's time for her to wake up and start approaching her again, but stops in visible confusion and surprise when Ichigo declares that he will protect her while getting to his feet once more. Byakuya gives Ichigo a critical blow. While Byakuya looks in mild shock. a badly wounded Ichigo claims he is not finished vet and begins to stumble forward while grunting in pain and dragging his Zanpakuto to the ground behind him. With Rukia staring in worry and awe. Ichigo makes his way to Byakuya and stops several feet away from him. prompting Byakuya to narrow his eyes before rushing forward and cutting upwards through Ichigo's chest. As blood falls on a stunned Ichigo face and Rukia screams to him, Byakuya resheathes his Zanpakuto for the third time while Ichigo falls over behind him. Byakuya is preparing to deal with homicide. But as Byakuya begins to walk away, Ichigo grabs on his robes, causing his mouth to twitch as he looks down. Byakuya frees himself from Ichigo's grasp and continues to walk away, only for Ichigo to reiterate that he is not finished yet and start to get to his feet once more, prompting an impressed Renji to note that he will never give in. When Ichigo asks him, he's going, a smirking Byakuya declares that he's pathetic pulls his Zanpakuto before holding it out to stab Ichigo, who continues to stare at him defiantly for several seconds. Rukia asks Byakuya to redeem her for her sin. Byakuya moves to stab Ichigo, only for Rukia to suddenly run in and kick Ichigo away. Insulting Ichigo's status as a human being, Rukia berates him for daring to touch Byakuya's robes before promising to kill himself if Ichigo comes near Byakuya again, while the latter slowly lowers his Zanpakuto. As Ichigo tries to get back up, Rukia crashes over and pins him against a car with her foot, where she stares at him for several seconds before releasing him. Walking over to Byakuva and kneeling in front of him. Rukia claims to have awakened and asks to be saved for her sin. Rukia reveals that Ichigo will forget about her. When Byakuva asks her if she means this. Rukia pauses for several seconds before confirming this, and after several seconds of silence, Byakuya revisits his Zanpakutō and accepts this when he tells Rukia that they will return together. Rukia agrees and picks up Ichigo's Zanpakutō before kneeling in front of him and demands that he return his powers to her. Telling a barely conscious Ichigo that he can return to the normal life he has always wanted when he does, Rukia reveals that the process will make him forget everything that happened since they first met. Rukia regains his Shinigami powers. While she struggles not to crv. Rukia claims she has had enough of people and criticises Ichigo as being grumpy, childish and completely reckless before putting his hands on the hilt of his Zanpakuto. Rukia holds the blade of Ichigo's Zanpakuto up to her chest, bidding him tearfully by before pushing it into her chest, causing a bright light to shine around both of them. As the light fades, Rukia stands in front of Ichigo in her Shinigami robes and sheathes her Zanpakuto before walking away with Byakuya and Renji. With tears in his eyes, Ichigo notes that he was protected again before he passed out. Ichigo wakes up without reminiscing about what happened. The next morning, a cured Ichigo wakes up in his bed and slowly sits up before going downstairs, where Karin and Yuzu sit at the dining table while greeting him and noticing that he was sleeping late. When Ichigo explains that he had a very long dream that he can't remember, his sisters look at each other and start laughing, causing Ichigo to smile as Isshin appears behind him and pats him on the shoulder. In a comment to Ichigo finally joining them, Isshin begins to fix food while telling his son to live well, eat well, and age well until his hair falls out. Isshin tells Ichigo to die smiling and make his life worth living. As he throws around an apple, Isshin tells Ichigo to die smiling and make his life worth living before patting him on again and walk away, which Ichigo to see at the shrine shrine Masaki on the wall. Later that day, at Karakura High School, Keigo Orihime and Tatsuki asked if they saw what the tornado did at the train station before claiming that Ichigo was present, prompting a concerned Orihime to ask him if Ichigo is alright. When Keigo sits down and prepares to lie about him being killed immediately, Ichigo immediately tells him to not even start as he stands nearby. Ichigo and Uryū meet each other again. While Keigo claims he knew Ichigo would be okay, Orihime greets him as Tatsuki notes that he sees something different, as Keigo believes is Ichigo asks Uryū to stop if they have ever spoken before, which leads Urvu to say that he does not believe it until he smiles and tells Ichigo that it is good to know him, which Ichigo confirms when Urvu passes away. As the rest of the students enter the classroom, Ichigo sits at his desk. Ichigo finds Rukia's warning in his textbook. Looking at Orihime, who smiles at him, Ichigo turns to face the desk where Rukia used to sit as his teacher tells the class to turn to page 196 of their textbooks. In doing so, Ichigo sees Rukia's warning not to make a scene from when she first showed up as a student, which caused him to express confusion before he smiles consciously. Cast Production Live action filmmaking was announced in the 32nd edition of the manga's 686th and final chapter. The film will be directed by Shinsuke Sato, who is best known for directing two live-action Gantz films as well as Death Note: Light Up the New World. Tite Kubo, the original author of Bleach himself is involved in the film's production. [15] Reception On its debut weekend, the film ranked fourth in Japan, selling 99,000 tickets for 135 million yen (about US$1.21 million). [1] Differences between film and manga/anime Big differences Orihime's late brother stalking her as a Hollow, Sado comes into possession of a talking parakeet and the ensuing battles against the monstrous Hollow pursue it, Ichigo inadvertently giving his body to a Mod-Soul and later fighting alongside it against a Hollow, the spiritual medium Don Kanonji comes to Karakura Town, and Sado discover his spiritual powers at the same time Orihime does are all omitted from the film's story, which are their respective revelations and ramifications. Kon is left out leaving Ichigo's body lying around lifeless when he becomes a Shinigami. When Ichigo Kurosaki helps a young Plus scare a gang of teenagers who were desecrating his shrine on a street corner, Plus is a boy instead of a girl, and Yasutora Sado intervenes when one of the teens back to attack Ichigo. When Rukia Kuchiki In his room, Ichigo immediately realizes that she is a soul, but not that she is a Shinigami, and tells her to leave instead of mistaking her for a human burglar, as he does in manga and anime. Rukia comes to the human world on a mission to find and kill Grand Fisher, only encountering Fishbone D by accident when it attacks Ichigo and his family; in manga and anime, she is explicitly on a mission to purify Fishbone D at the time, and Grand Fisher is offended incidentally at a later date, although Rukia does not receive information about him from soul society. Denreishinki takes the form of a glowing purple, glass-like object instead of a mobile phone. Ichigo is warned by Yuzu Kurosaki screaming for his father, and when he, Karin Kurosaki, and Isshin Kurosaki arrive downstairs, Yuzu explains that she heard a terrifying voice before Fishbone D suddenly breaks through the wall. In manga and anime, Fishbone D attacks Ichigo's family while he is still upstairs with Rukia, with him being warned about what happened to either Karin or Yuzu after they are wounded in the attack. Fishbone D shows the ability to fire a Cero, something first demonstrated much later by a Menos Grande in manga and anime. In addition to the gun process of transferring power from a Shinigami to a replacement, the film provides a method to completely reverse the effects by having a replacement thrown their Zanpakuto into the original Shinigami, restoring their powers and returning the replacement to their original human condition; this is only possible if the replacement can control their Reiatsu, so Ichigo must train to achieve this. In manga and anime, there is no mention of this possible. Rukia states that cleansing Hollows enhances one's Reiryoku, while training one's body refines their Reiatsu control; In manga and anime, power increases and Reiatsu control is achieved through other, more complex means. Ichigo meets Renji Abarai much earlier and alone rather than with Byakuya Kuchiki, as he did in manga and anime; Here he attacks Ichigo in his human body, but is interrupted by Uryū Ishida. Uryū's Heilig The book resembles a larger version of the metallic version he uses during the events of The Story of the Missing Agent in the manga and anime, instead of the energy-like Kojaku he used during The Death Trilogy Overture. Uryū's competition with Ichigo ends prematurely due to being interrupted by Renji and Byakuya, and no Menos Grande arrives. Rukia and Byakuya make several references to a Shinigami code, which includes the basic set of not transferring one's power to a human being, protecting all innocent lives equally, and not living with a human being in the human world; in manga and anime, the first is a law set by Central 46, the second is a conviction claimed by Rukia while convincing Ichigo to take up her Shinigami duties in location, and is never specified or implied. Hexapodus is able to hold his ground during his battle against Ichigo, and Renji arrives to kill it instead. Renji continues to attack Ichigo, and Byakuya makes his first appearance for Ichigo and Rukia afterwards. Renji reveals that both he and Rukia were adopted by Kuchiki Clan, while in manga and anime only Rukia experienced this because of her relationship with Hisana Kuchiki, which contributed to the gap between her and Renji. There is a mix of bargains and requirements between Byakuya and Rukia/Ichigo. Byakuya commands Rukia to extract her powers from Ichigo or be executed, and gives her until the next full moon for her to achieve this. Ichigo interrupts their next meeting and demands that in exchange for defeating Grand Fisher, the Soul Society absolves Rukia from her crimes, which Byakuya agrees to do, even if he later waives that agreement. In manga and anime, there is no negotiation and Grand Fisher is defeated before Renji and Byakuya arrive. Rukia heals Ichigo's injuries with a strange liquid instead of Kaidō. Uryū shows knowledge of Renji's abilities as a swordsman and Urahara's status as a exiled Shinigami, where in the manga and anime he either never directly learned this information or had it revealed to him much later. Ichigo trains hard and hone his skills to refine his power so he can defeat Grand Fisher and return Rukia's Shinigami powers to her, while in manga and anime he does not take his training seriously and only intends to protect those close to him, instead learning to fight through his many battles. Byakuya and Renji scheme to have Ichigo lure out Grand Fisher and die so that Renji can clean it and kill Rukia to grow too close to Ichigo; in manga and anime, Grand Fisher being purged is not a focal point for Shinigami, and Byakuya is firmly keen to take Rukia back to be formally executed by Gotei 13 for her crime. Isshin's tradition when visiting Masaki's tomb is changed from smoking a cigarette to drinking a beer, and he doesn't explain how the only time Masaki said he looked cool was when he did this on their first date. Yuzu is explicitly able to watch Grand Fisher's Lure, while in manga only Karin could do it when they came across it, and Yuzu could only touch Grand Fisher's body. Unlike in manga and anime, the strength of Rukia's Kidō is not diminishing as time goes by with the loss of her powers so she can put Isshin to sleep remotely. Grand Fisher and its fight receive a number of changes: Grand Fisher is confirmed to have once been the spirit of a young girl and does not possess the intelligence of his manga and anime counterparts, although it can still speak. Grand Fisher's Lure can be changed to look like a loved one without the use of Transcribed and can place his goals in an illusion to further disarm them, with Ichigo located on the river where his mother died after stabbing it. The battle is spreading toward Karakura Town's commercial district instead of being confined to the sanctuary area. Grand Fisher's fur tendrils are strong enough to create a small tornado around its body when in use, which is what the residents of Karakura Town mistake it for during and after the battle. Sado and Orihime get a hint of Ichigo's Shinigami powers during the match when it reaches Rob's Burger, where they are placed at the time. Uryū helps Ichigo during the fight. Ichigo actually defeated Grand Fisher, who in manga and anime managed to escape after the two left each other seriously injured and was later defeated by Isshin. Renji and Byakuya resume their attack on Ichigo immediately after Grand Fisher is defeated. Ichigo breaks Renji's Shikai during their fight, which he was unable to do until their rematch in Soul Society in manga and anime. Rukia draws his powers from Ichigo, who wipes his memory of her before returning to the Soul Society. Minor differences Rukia's explanation of Souls and Hollows occurs during the school after Fishbone D's attack rather than just after she meets Ichigo. Uryū rescues Ichigo, rather than Rukia, from Renji with a Heilig Pfeil aimed at the latter's head. Ichigo learns about Urahara through Uryū instead of meeting him during a conversation with Kon. Rukia being present at the cemetery is part of the plan to lure out Grand Fisher, in which in manga and anime she came together without informing Ichigo. Ichigo defeats Fishbone D by cutting him completely in half instead of just cutting through his mask. The day after each of Ichigo's struggles. Keigo falsely claims that Ichigo dies when informing his friends of recent events and Orihime believes him every time, only for Ichigo to interrupt him by showing up alive and well. Rukia's warning to Ichigo to not make a scene when she first appears in his classroom is written on the inside of a textbook instead of the palm; this allows Ichigo to potentially remember his time with her when he finds the warning again after his memoir is deleted. Ichigo and Isshin's heart-to-heart about Masaki's death occurs after Ichigo wakes up after his near-death encounter with Renji and Byakuya instead of at Masaki's grave after his battle with Grand Fisher, and Isshin's talk about Ichigo living a long life before he dies takes place at the end of the film after Rukia goes back to the Soul Society. Places Videos 映画】BLEACH】本予 告】HD】2018年7月20日(金) 公開Bleach Live Action Trailer DVD Digital [Video benefits released!] BLEACH 12.5 Release Digital Pre-Delivery Add an image to this gallery References external links Official Twitter Community content is available under CC-BY-SA unless otherwise stated. Noticed.