Call us crazy (or just obsessed with English and logic), but we think that finishing the sentence is just plain fun. What's more, they are a great way to expand your vocabulary and improve your logic skills. This is because completing a sentence, like many standardized test style questions on this site (measurement, dating, reading, understanding, etc.), are pretty much like puzzles. You have a picture of what the finished product should look like, but you still need to rearrange the pieces so you can achieve that image. Scroll down to view a full list of worksheets to complete the sentence suitable for all ages and power levels. In the worksheets to complete the printable sentence below, students must select the best words from a list of 5 answer options to fill in blank slots in sentences. Some sentences have one blank, while the other one contains two. These worksheets are very effective in improving vocabulary, syntaxing, and understanding those of pairings as syntheas road markers. Hey there! Check out this useful teacher advice! Teachers can enhance the role that links play in sentences by showing students how this pairing dictates answering some questions. For example, check the questions in the chart below. See how pairing dictates the answer to each question. Note that when the right answer is love. This is because the significance of the first item continues. However, when pairing but the correct answer is hatred. This is because the meaning of the first condition does not continue in the second item; Below you'll find our full list of completed wholesale worksheets for printing for use by teachers at home or at school. Just click on a link to open a printable PDF version of the required worksheet. Hope you find them useful. Oh hey, and don't forget: the following are samples taken from our sister site, ReadTheory. This is a powerful educational tool created to improve reading understanding for all ages and levels of ability. On this site, students can take quizzes, earn achievements, track progress, and more. And better yet, we've implemented teacher sentry where teachers can monitor Progress using strong statistical analysis.
