That was the beauty of you, you never give up seeing me happy and the nicest thing to know is that you never let me down. Now I know it's easy to say you forgot, ours never existed, what I missed, everything for a damn mistake came awry. I feel like I love you more today than normal, for the first time the pain is vertical, it's uphill when you're not... You fall in love, you, you, again, I want to remind you that it's nice to see it, all in a cloud the color of the sky... Fall in love, you, you, again, down to earth and touch your fingers, seawater, your body with my body... It was the beauty of the sun, it was always brighter, if it was warmer. It was the most beautiful day, if you were with me. It was the beauty of today, and it's our anniversary and waiting for me to be and until I settle down to just be friends. Now I know it's easy to say you forgot, ours never existed, what I missed, all for a damn mistake came upside down I feel like I love you more today than normal, for the first time the pain is vertical, it's uphill when you're not... You fall in love, you, you, again, I want to remind you that it's nice to see it, all in a cloud the color of the sky... Fall in love, you, you, again, down to earth and touch your fingers, seawater, your body with my body... Keep falling in love with you, you're still charging, if the impulse comes from your heart. As the air you don't see, that enters you, whatever happens, I will always be what you want to fall in love with, you, you, again, I want to remind you that it's nice to see it, all in a cloud the color of the sky... Fall in love, you, you, again, down to Earth and touch your fingers, with the water of the sea. Fall in © 1996-2014, Amazon.com, Inc. or its affiliates Latest top reviews
