FORM is dedicated to providing nurturing, positive and inspiring environments for all students and their needs. The school consists of two parts - competitive dance and recreational dance. This ensures that all students work at the appropriate level for their abilities, allowing maximum benefit and engagement in each class. Together we set goals with our dancers and help them achieve these goals. TYPES OF CLASSES WE OFFER Performance team lessons: These classes are for more serious dancers who want to be part of the competition both in the team and individually. To be on our performance teams, dancers have to sit in an audition in class and have to do at least one ballet lesson and one hour of dance technique a week. Being part of our Performance Team allows students to perform regularly in both competitions and events. Recreational classes: These classes are for students just getting started, or who are simply looking for a fun and interesting way to stay healthy, tighten up lifelong friends and learn the wonderful art of dance. Workshops: All dancers are welcome and encouraged to attend FORM workshops. Workshops are a great way for students to step out of their comfort zone, expand their dance vocabulary and learn new styles from visiting teachers and choreographers. Workshops also additional students of performance skills, versatility and confidence on stage and in class. READY SET DANCE: We are excited to announce that Form will be the official ready set dance (RSD) location in Frenchs Forest from 3! RSD is a one-hour combined class of jazz, tap, hip hop, singing and music, and lots of fun! The program is used for 2-5 years of age and is supported by early learning specialists. Congratulations to Bronte for being inducted into Hamburg Ballet 2021! SPECIAL NOTICE!!!! We are delighted to announce that as a result of Bronte Barnett's successful performances at the Prix de Lausanne (Switzerland) , where she was trained and accompanied by Xanthe Geeves artistic director, Bronte was approached by a number of the company's prestigious European schools. After much thought, Bronte and her parents decided to accept the exceptional offer that the director of hamburg company and hamburg ballett school, John Neumeier, made a full scholarship (and Stipend), which is an extremely rare offer. This is a dream come true for Bronte who's been dancing at our school since she was four. Bronte has been a student of our pre-professional program at the Sydney College of Dance since 2017. She is thrilled to have this incredible opportunity to be able to work with one of the world's premieres and legendary choreographers, John Neumeier! We are incredibly proud of Bronte's achievement and the dedication and passion she has shown to achieve her goals.
