

I'm not robot

Continue

Walk thru the bible hand motions

Walking through the Bible is a teaching method that uses hand signals and/or memory cards as memory stimulants to help learn, preserve and restore important Bible events. Knowing the scripture frame and milestones helps to understand god's great story. You can learn these things by: What is Walk Thru? What is a memory card of live? Leanne testimonials: I love walking through the Bible, it only shows God's plan and is a fun and easy way to remember important issues. Thanks for saving of my husband and I enjoyed them. We may be interested in hosting a live event. Anne: We are a group of 6 and really enjoy the OT Live Video series, some members make personal purchases and inspire them to read through of themselves. Pictured below: Julius and Carol from Uganda ordered the first 8 cards in about 5 seconds flat! This free download comes in 2 different printable PDF formats. This guide provides 66 simple hand movements to help children remember all of the scriptures! For Walk Thru, the Bible, the launch of resources in a new country, is like crossing a rock across a large pond. We give as much momentum as we can, we train instructors, we install as much as possible, but it's hard to measure the distance covered until the ripples start to extend outward. We will never know how God will use these new resources, but we know he did. Read more otLIVE and nLIVE can be taught in 2.5 hours! The format for these hours is very flexible. Most people use the theme Saturday morning or Sunday morning/afternoon, but we've taught the event in a variety of time frames. We'll help you find the best system for you. Walking through the Bible is all about sparking a passion for God's word. That's why we've developed the great story of God, a comprehensive six-week study that will lead you to the story of the Bible. Designed for small groups, God's great story gives you everything you need. - DVDs for each age group, a guide filled with additional educational content and help for your pastor to put all the congregations around the study of the Word of God. Visit our Resources page to see all our useful resources! Walking through biblical events often held the stage for all churches, except any part of the church, are interested. Often in large churches, small-group school classes or Sundays will be a support force for church events. Just fill out this form, let us know the highlights and we'll call you to get started, yes, every detail. Not close at all. We know that the Old Testament may be overwhelming and confusing, that's why we break it down in important people, places and activities. That's what you'll remember. Why are our methods highly effective? Because it combines multiple learning modes simultaneously, it involves hearing, vision, movement, interaction with others, and strategic repetition. You will learn the big picture of the Old Testament or the New Testament and enjoy doing it. We promise! We believe that everyone wants not only the details of God's word, but also the comprehensive story. We have worked with churches with large staff and strong spiritual growth programs, and we have worked with churches with small employees just starting their programs. Whether your members are committed to studying the Bible or new to Christianity. Most people, no matter where they are on the walk, understand some of God's word. We will teach them in the great picture of God's story and provide a scripture frame so that they can combine the pieces together. This participatory live event will strengthen their biblical knowledge and rekindle or spark a profound passion to know and live according to god's word. Good question. It's not a general seminar class or a boring lecture. However, it's an interesting event. It helps you understand God's word and the connection between your story and story. In each of these events, a certified instructor will guide you through virtual walks through the Bible, whether you learn important people, places and biblical events in otLIVE or nLIVE, or meet people in a biblical character series, you'll experience god's stories like never before. Find your place in the story with our live events. When you decide which activity you want to do first, choose a certain date to work for your church. Our ministry advisors will assist you in all the details, ranging from choosing a model to promoting activities to connecting you with the right instructors. Help us stay connected There is no age limit for our activities. In fact, we have something for everyone of all ages and every stage of life (most children have primary age at least). See our activity description for more information we know. We talk about the participation and fun of our live events. While that sounds good for some people, others simply don't. But first, I'm sorry. We are experts in personality differences (don't believe us? And we've designed our live events to attract a wide range of people, even to those of us who don't go into the whole group. Our activities are relaxed and low-key and you can choose how involved you want to give us—we think you'll be surprised, maybe-- but only a few minutes. Trust us about this. When the event begins, you will enjoy without knowing that you are learning important people, places and activities of the Bible. Understanding God's word is the key to establishing a connection between an ethereal and distant God and a God who loves you and wants a relationship with you. While you are learning god's story, you are developing insights about you. That's what our live events do, they put pieces of the Bible together in a way that connects with your head, heart and hands. Don't believe our words. Read here for an example of how Walk Thru Bible Live Events Changed Young Men's Lives. Knowing the scripture frame and milestones helps to understand god's great story. You can learn these things by: What is Walk Thru? What is a memory card of live? Leanne testimonials: I love walking through the Bible, it only shows God's plan and is a fun and easy way to remember important issues. Thanks for saving of my husband and I enjoyed them. We may be interested in hosting a live event. Anne: We are a group of 6 and really enjoy the OT Live Video series, some members make personal purchases and inspire them to read through of themselves. Pictured below: Julius and Carol from Uganda ordered the first 8 cards in about 5 seconds flat! This free download comes in 2 different printable PDF formats. This guide provides 66 simple hand movements to help children remember all of the scriptures! For Walk Thru, the Bible, the launch of resources in a new country, is like crossing a rock across a large pond. We give as much momentum as we can, we train instructors, we install as much as possible, but it's hard to measure the distance covered until the ripples start to extend outward. We will never know how God will use these new resources. We know he did. Read more otLIVE and nLIVE can be taught in 2.5 hours! The format for these hours is very flexible. Most people use the theme Saturday morning or Sunday morning/afternoon, but we've taught the event in a variety of time frames. We'll help you find the best system for you. Walking through the Bible is all about sparking a passion for God's word. That's why we've developed the great story of God, a comprehensive six-week study that will lead you to the story of the Bible. Designed for small groups, God's great story gives you everything you need. - DVDs for each age group, a guide filled with additional educational content and help for your pastor to put all the congregations around the study of the Word of God. Visit our Resources page to see all our useful resources! Walking through biblical events often organizes a stage for the entire church, unless any part of the church is interested. Often in large churches, small-group school classes or Sundays will be a support force for church events. Just fill out this form, let us know the highlights and we'll call you to get started, yes, every detail. Not close at all. We know that the Old Testament may be overwhelming and confusing, that's why we break it down in important people, places and activities. That's what you'll remember. Why are our methods highly effective? Because it combines multiple learning modes simultaneously, it involves hearing, vision, movement, interaction with others, and strategic repetition. You will learn the big picture of the Old Testament or the New Testament and enjoy doing it. We promise! We believe that everyone wants not only the details of God's word, but also the comprehensive story. We have worked with churches with large staff and strong spiritual growth programs, and we have worked with churches with small employees just starting their programs. Whether your members are committed to studying the Bible or new to Christianity. Most people, no matter where they are on the walk, understand some of God's word. We will teach them in the great picture of God's story and provide a scripture frame so that they can combine the pieces together. This participatory live event will strengthen their biblical knowledge and rekindle or spark a profound passion to know and live according to god's word. Good question. It's not a general seminar class or a boring lecture. However, it's an interesting event. This helps you understand god's word and make Between your story and your son. In each of these events, a certified instructor will guide you through virtual walks through the Bible, whether you learn important people, places and biblical events in otLIVE or nLIVE, or meet people in a biblical character series, you'll experience god's stories like never before. Find your place in the story with our live events. When you decide which activity you want to do first, choose a certain date to work for your church. Our ministry advisors will assist you in all the details, ranging from choosing a model to promoting activities to connecting you with the right instructors. Help us stay connected There is no age limit for our activities. In fact, we have something for everyone of all ages and every stage of life (most children have primary age at least). See our activity description for more information we know. We talk about the participation and fun of our live events. While that sounds good for some people, others aren't sure. We are experts in personality differences (don't believe us? And we've designed our live events to attract a wide range of people, even to those of us who don't go into the whole group. Our activities are relaxed and low-key and you can choose how involved you want to give us—we think you'll be surprised, maybe-- but only a few minutes. Trust us about this. When the event begins, you will enjoy without knowing that you are learning important people, places and activities of the Bible. Understanding God's word is the key to establishing a connection between an ethereal and distant God and a God who loves you and wants a relationship with you. While you are learning god's story, you are developing insights about you. That's what our live events do, they put pieces of the Bible together in a way that connects with your head, heart and hands. Don't believe our words. Read here for an example of how The Walk Thru Live Bible Event changed the lives of young men.