The word lot can be traced back to the Latin word Fatum, which means spoken by the Gods. On the journey down the roads of our lives, there are so many right backs we wish we had taken, and so many wrong people we wish we never had! And yet, when we reflect on all the good and bad places where we were, let's realize that the wheel was in fact rarely in our hands. Some believe that right from the day we are born, it is our destiny that drives us, leading us to where we are today. They say it's tailor-made for each of us by higher power, as a small yet significant part of the great design.
