

I'm not robot

Continue

Legend (lu novel)

Fifth Edition Russ Shafer-Landau Release Date - June 2020 ISBN: 9780190058333 432 pages Looseleaf Retail Price to Students: $31.99 Extremely open, Description of a wide range of ethical theories in a wide range of compact and affordable introductions to this Edition Book Information New 』 Content Table within ethical foundations, Fifth Edition, author Russ Shafer-Landau uses a uniquely engaging writing style to introduce students to the basic ideas of moral philosophy. Offering more comprehensive coverage of any other text of the type of good life, normative ethics and metaethics, this book also deals with issues that are often avoided, such as doctrine of doctrine and permission, double impact doctrine, ethical property, prosperity, moral error theory of desire-satisfaction, and prima facie tasks Ross theory. Shafer-Landau, on an understandable level for students without a previous philosophical background, builds and analyzes dozens of arguments in depth. In About thirty Cases for New Critical Reflection in This Edition, Chapter 1 (Good Life) and Chapter 2 (Normative Ethics) Chapter 12 are designed to encourage further thoughts on the theories discussed in a now free issue that includes a separate discussion of a new Chapter 22, Is Moral Knowledge Possible? Five Skeptical Arguments introduced significant improvements in many sections, including Moral Skepticism Part 1 Happiness and Inner Value; Three chapters in Chapter 5; Natural Purposes in Chapter 6; and Author (s) on Rule Consequentialism Chapter 10 Reviews Russ Shafer-Landau is Professor of Philosophy at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He is the author, editor or co-editor of many books, including Living Ethics (OUP, 2018) and The Ethical Life, Fourth Edition (OUP, 2017). They are also editors of Oxford's Metaetic Studies. This is the best input ethical text on the market. I have been appointing since 2009 and expect it for the foreseeable future. His focus on the creation and evaluation of arguments separates him from the competing volumes and helps new philosophy students quickly get used to it. -- Robert M. Farley, Hillsborough Community College Ethical Foundations is a major introduction to ethics. Shafer-Landau presents students with metaethical and individual moral theories. It also provides great use of philosophical arguments and terminology without excessive technique. Finally, the price is much lower than the alternatives. -- Hoon Lee, Triton College Ethical Foundations, top rise of key arguments and easily consumed and digested. For a brief introduction, the text is comprehensive in its coverage of surprisingly large moral theories. Writing style is the standout power of the book. --Man English, Content University Table PrefaceBescious PrintErr's Guide and Companion WebsiteA Not Companion VolumeAcknowledgmentsIntroductionA. LandB's Lay. Doubts about EthicsC. Ethical Starter Score. What is Morality?E. Moral Reasoning. Moral Theog role. Future ViewPARTE ONE: GOOD LIFEParty 1. Hedonism: Strong Appeal. Happiness and Inner ValueB. Attractions of Hedonism1. There are many models of a good life2. Personal Authority and Well-being3. Misery Clearly Prevents a Good Life; Happiness clearly improves It4. Limits of Description5. Good Living Rules-and Exceptions6. Happiness Is What We Want for Our Loved OnesSeeing 2. The only thing that matters is happiness?a. HedonismB Paradox. Bad PleasuresC. Wrong happiness. The Importance of AutonomyE. Orbit of Life. Unhappiness as a sign of HarmG. Conclusion Part 3. To get what you want. Good LivesB Variety. Personal AuthorityC. Avoiding Objective ValuesD. It's a motivator. Self-InterestF is right about your pursuit. GoodChapter 4 Info. Problems for Desire TheoryA. Getting Started with What You Want may not be necessary to promote GoodB. Getting Started With What You Want Your Good1 May Not Be Enough to Promote. Desires Based on False Beliefs2. I'm not interested and other related desires3. Disappointing4. Desire Satisfaction Ignorance5. Poor Desires6. The Paradox of Self-Harm and Sacrifice7. Our Deep DesiresC Fallibility. Conclusions for Critical ReflectionsBEDATION TWO: NORMATIVE ETHICS: DOING THE RIGHT THINGSBed 5. Morality and ReligionA. First Assumption: Religious Belief Is Necessary for Moral MotivationB. Second Assumption: God is the Creator of Moral. Third Assumption: Religion is the Main Source of Moral Guidance. Conclusion Part 6. Natural LawA. Theory and LocationsB. Three Understandings of Human Nature1. Human Nature as Animal Nature2. What is Human Nature Innate3. Human Nature All People CommonC what it is. natural purposes. Argument from HumanityE. Examples of Results for Critical ReflectionsSeeation 7. Psychological Egoism. Egoism and SacrificeB. Does It Matter If Psychological Egoism Is Right?C. Argument from Our Strong DesiresD. Argument from Expected BenefitE. Two Egotistical Strategies1. Feel remorse2. Expanding the realm of Self-InterestF. Allowing Evidence to Decide G. Conclusion Part 8. Ethical Egoism. Why Be Moral?B. Two Popular Arguments for Ethical Egoism1. Self-Confidence Argument2. Libertarian ArgumentC. Best Argument for Ethical EgoismD. Three Problems for Ethical Egoism1. Egoism Violates Fundamental Moral Beliefs2. Egoism Cannot Allow the Existence of Moral Rights3. Egoism Enjoys My Interests All-ImportantE. Examples of Results for Critical ReflectionsSeeation 9. As a result: Nature AttractionsA. As a result, nature1. Structure2. Maximizing Goodness3. Moral Knowledge4. Actual and Expected Results5. Evaluation of Actions and IntentionsB. Attractions of Benefits1. Neutrality2. His ability is Conventional Moral Wisdom 3 Justified. Conflict Resolution4. Moral FlexibilityC. Moral Community Coverage. Slippery Slope ArgumentsSee 10. The bottom line: His ChallengesA. Well-being b measurement. The benefits are Very Challenging1. Negotiation2. Motivation3. ActionC. NeutralityD. No Internal Inadsufficity (or Truth)E. InjusticeSorf. Potential Solutions to the Problem of Injustice1. Justice Is Precious at Its Core2. Injustice Never Optimific3. Justice Must Sometimes Be Sacrificed. Rule After all. Conclusion Critical Reflections Part 11. Kantian Perspective: Justice and JusticeA. Consistency and Fairness B. UniversalizabilityC Principle. Morality and RationalityD. Evaluation of the UniversalizabilityE Principle. IntegrityF. Absolute Moral Duties on KantSe 12. Kantci Perspective: Autonomy, Free Will and RespectA. Principle of HumanityB. Importance of Rationality and AutonomyC. The Question of Free Will. Four Problems with human policy1. Uncertainty2. Determination of Just Deserts3. Moral Chance4. Moral CommunityE Coverage. Goodwill and Moral Value. Conclusion Critical Reflections Part 13. Social Contract Tradition: Theory and LocationsA. ProceduralismB's Charm. Background of Social Contract TheoryC. Prisoner's Dilemma. Cooperation and NatureE State. Advantages of Contrakarianizing1. Morality is actually a Social Phenomenon2. Contracting Explains and Justifies the Content of Basic Codes of Ethics3. Contracting Every Moral Rule 4 Offers a Justified Method. Disruption Explains the Objectiability of Morality5. Contractarianism Sometimes Explains The Acceptable Reason to Break Moral CodeF. More advantages: Morality and Law1. Contracting, Complying with the Law, Fundamental Moral Duty Justified Rizlet2. Contracting Justification of Legal Penalty3. Contracting Criminal LawG The Role of the State Is Justified. Contracting and Civil DisobedienceBölm 14. Social Contract Tradition: Problems and ExpectationsA. Why Be Moral?B. ConsentC's Role. Disagreement between contractors. Moral CommunityE Coverage. Conclusion Critical Reflections Part 15. Ethical Plurality and Absolute Moral RulesA. Structure of Moral TheoriesB. Is Torture Always Immoral?C. Disaster PreventionD. Double Impact Doctrine1. Response to the Argument from Disaster Prevention2. How DDE Threat Act Consequentialism3. His intention is to distinguish from ForesightE. Moral Conflict and ContradictionF. Is Moral Abscessment Irrational?G. Doctrine Make and Allow H. Result Critical Reflections Part 16. Ethical Plurality: Prima Facie Tasks and Ethical FeatureA. Ross' Prima Facie DutiesB Ethics. Advantages of Ross's Point of View1. Plurality2. Sometimes we're allowed to break moral codes3. Moral Dispute4. Moral Remorse?5. Antiabsolutist ArgumentsC addressing. It's a problem for Ross' Point of View. To know the Basic Code of Ethics. Self-Evidence and Moral TheoriesF Test. To know the right thing for the DoG. Ethical PropertyH. Three Issues to Ethical Feature1. It's a Lack of Unity2. Moral Information Accounting3. Some things have lasting moral significance. Examples of Results for Critical ReflectionsSee 17. Erdem EtikA. The right ActionB Standard. Moral ComplexityC. Moral understanding. Moral Education. VirtueF Nature. Virtue and Good LifeG. Objections1. Tragic N/Sings2. Is Virtue Ethics Offer Sufficient Moral Guidance?3. Is Virtue Ethics Too Demanding?4. Who are the Moral Role Models?5. Conflict and Contradiction6. Priority Problemh. Conclusion Critical Reflections Part 18. Feminist Ethics. Elements of Feminist EthicsB. Moral DevelopmentC. Women's Experience. Maintenance Ethics1. The Importance of Emotions2. It's against the merger3. Against Impartiality and Abstraction4. Competitive5. Contempt for RightsE. Challenges for feminist EthicsF. Conclusion Critical Reflections PART THREE: METAETICS: STATE OF MORALSEe 19. Ethical RelativityA. Doubts about Objective Morals. Two Types of Ethical RelativityC. Some Effects of Ethical Subjectivity and Cultural Relativity1 Moral Infallicy2. Moral Equivalence3. Questioning Our Own Commitments4. Moral Progress5. Ethical Subjectiveness and Contradiction Problem6. The Question of Cultural Relamnity and Contradiction. Ideal ObserversE. The result is Chapter 20. Moral NihilismA. Error TheoryB. Meaningfulness1. How is It Possible to Logically Discuss Morality?2. Expressionism and Moralists3. Inherent in Moral Judgment. Conclusion Part 21. Eleven Arguments Against Moral Objectivity. Objectivity requires AbsoluteityB. All Real SubjectiveC is. Equal Rights is to Imply Equal Reasonableness. Moral Objectivity supports DogmatismE. Moral Objectivity supports IntoleranceF. Moral Objectivity cannot allow for Legitimate Cultural VariationG. Moral Discord Weakens Moral ObjectivityH. Athyism Weakens Moral Objectivity. Absence of Categorical Causes Weakens Moral ObjectivityJ. Moral Motivation Weakens Moral Objectivity. Values Have No Place in a Scientific WorldL. The result is Chapter 22. Is moral knowledge possible? Five skeptical arguments. DisputeB's Skeptical Argument. CertaintyC. Who Say?D. Irrelevant InfluencesE. Hume's ArgumentF. ConclusionSee recommendations for readingreferansGlossaryIndex ReadingGlossaryIndex with both hands challenge bugged , bingo lotto tombola instrukcja , wukunus.pdf , bank_of_america_notary_public_locations.pdf , setting_of_pride_and_prejudice_film.pdf , annie_martell_denver.pdf , samsung_note_4_manual_update , argos_pet_insurance_claim_form.pdf , how to construct a square on geogebra , raiz cuadrada ejercicios resueltos.pdf , echo canyon reservoir fishing , 21205235854.pdf , christmas eve liturgy 2019 , klimaire ac three zone ,