This agreement begins on the effective date, as mentioned above, and continues until ___ the sales area. The agent sells the product at the following geographical location — the agent is not authorized to sell the product outside the sales area. 5. Commission profits and payment structure. The parties agree that the agent will be compensated as follows (committee): ___ the relationship between the main broker. The company manager is engaged to the agent only for the purpose of selling the product (products) listed in Section 1. The agent may not enter into contracts and/or agreements on behalf of the director in connection with the sale of the said product. The agent may not commit principal to any other obligations at all without the director's separate permission. 7. Non-competitive. The agent will not sell a competing product to any competitor in the sales area during the duration of this agreement or for a period of ___ years after the termination of this agreement. 8- Confidentiality. During this agreement, principal may be necessary to share ownership information, including trade secrets, industrial knowledge, and other confidential information, to the agent in order for the agent to successfully sell the product. Agent Will Share any of this proprietary information at any time. The agent will not use any of this information at any time. This section remains in full effect and effect even after the agreement has been terminated by its natural termination or early termination by either party. 9- Termination. This agreement may be terminated at any time by either party on the basis of written notice to the other party. The capital is responsible for paying all commissions obtained up to the termination date. Upon termination, the contractor returns all the client's contents, materials and all work products to the customer as soon as possible, but in any case 30 (30) days after the termination date. 10. Representations and guarantees. The parties mean that they are fully entitled to conclude this agreement. The performance and obligations of any of the parties will not violate or violate the rights of any third party or any other agreement between the parties, individually, any other person, organization, trading company or any law or government regulation. Escapeability. If any provision of this Agreement is deemed null or void, in whole or in part, that part will be separated from the rest of the Convention and all other provisions must continue to be fully and enforceable as valid and enforceable. 12. Waiver. The failure of either party to exercise any right, authority or privilege under the provisions of this Agreement will not be interpreted as a waiver of any subsequent or additional exercise of that right, authority, privilege or exercise of any other right, authority or privilege. 13. Legal fees. In the event of a dispute leading to legal action, the winning party is entitled to its legal fees, including, but not limited to, the fees of its lawyers. 14. Legal and binding agreements. This agreement is legal and binding between the parties as mentioned above. This agreement may be concluded and is legal and binding both in the United States and throughout Europe. Each party means that they have the power to enter into this Agreement. Ruling law and jurisdiction. The parties agree that this agreement is subject to the State and/or country in which both parties do business. If the parties do business in different countries and/or countries, this agreement is governed by a full agreement. The parties acknowledge and agree that this agreement represents the agreement between the entire parties. If the parties wish to change, add or amend any other conditions, they must do so in writing for their signature by both parties. The parties agree on the terms and conditions described above as indicated by their signatures as follows: _____ Date: _____

By ___ if more than one sales representative participates in seeking a particular order, LiveWorld and a representative agree on a reasonable division of the total commission to arrange between or between the representatives concerned, which must reflect each representative's contribution to the commission' earnings. LiveWorld-owned sales offices are sales representatives in determining divided commissions. Split commissions. In the case of an originator's loan engaging in such work with another employee or independent contractor from N A National Mortgage, the share of the loan originator from the Committee is divided between the participating persons in accordance with their agreement, or by arbitration. Split commissions. Sometimes, instruments are sold in one REP area and engineering is done in another area. The following table will be used to determine commission payments: split commissions. At its own discretion, Global Telecommunications reserves the right to split commissions when multiple sales agents are involved in the sale or support of a product. Factors to be taken into account in the split include, but are not limited to, sales efforts and future support responsibilities expected from different agents. Divisions usually include 20% for a purchase order, 50% for system engineering, and 30% for destination. However, all these divisions will be determined by the World Trade Center separately. Split commissions. Commissions must be payable as indicated here in all transactions in which products are ordered from a territory, or not such orders are purchased by the representative provided that, in cases where a design in a function occurs in a different place and then the system is put in place, the Committee will be distributed between representatives covering the area where the design occurs (design in representative) and the representative who covers the area where the system status (system placement representative) occurs as follows the division of the committees. LogoHealth allows up to four (4) registry brokers for each policyholder to have a small or large group. If more than one selling agent of the register is applied to a group, each selling agent is entitled to his share of the commission, as intended for the logo by the policyholder, otherwise it will be paid by LogoHealth if there is only one selling agent. LogoHealth allows only one (1) broker from a record per individual Payment policy. LogoHealth allows only one general agent per holder of a small or large group document regardless of the number of sales agents. LogoHealth does not allow public agents individual direct payment policies. Split commissions. If Elantec determines, at its own discretion, that the sale of Elantec products within the Territory is the result of joint efforts by a representative and any other party or party, Elantec will allocate part of the commission otherwise paid to the representative in connection with this sale to any third party or party. Elantec divides the Committee between the representative and other parties or parties in proportions that Elantec decides is fair, and its decision to do so is final and binding on all parties concerned. Split commissions. If more than one sales representative participates in seeking a particular purchase order, VLSI LIBRARIES, at its own discretion, the commission of the purchase order may be divided between or between the representatives concerned. The total commission on the purchase order may in no way exceed the amount specified in accordance with schedule B attached to this. Split commissions. If more than one sales representative participates in seeking a particular order, Lattice, at its own discretion, may split the total commission for this order between or between the sales representatives involved. The total commission of an order will in no way exceed the total calculated commission without division. Lattice does not make commission adjustments divided on any sales that are more than ninety (90) days old, with a measure of the 90 days of shipping from the shipment of the product by Lattice to the customer (and the date of receipt of the resale report of the authorized distributor's sales distributor) to the date lattice agrees to split the commission. Split commissions. If more than one sales representative participates in seeking a particular order, the manufacturer may, at its own discretion, divide the order committee between or between the representatives concerned. In no way shall the total commission exceed the amount specified from exhibition D attached to it. Sales offices owned by the manufacturer are sales representatives in determining divided commissions. 2 2
