Posted at 12:59h in Children's Services Blog by Abbey Venable One of my many favorite children's books is a Pete the Cat title, Pete the Cat and His Four Groovy Buttons, by James Dean. The 4 groove buttons are on Pete's favorite shirt and he even has a song he sings – My buttons, my buttons, my four groove buttons. In the book when he rises at 8 .m. as the sun comes, he sits on his favorite shirt and sings his song. As Pete's day progresses, however, one after another is off his groovy buttons POP. Pete's positive attitude is inspiring and continues throughout his day as he does the math and again figures how many buttons he has left. He continues to sing his song..... To.... well, I don't want to give the WHOLE story away — please check it out. We have several Pete the Cat character books in our collection. We have Pete books in our picture book collection and also in our I Can Read collection. Pete the Cat has very good stories to share.
