Minecraft doors mod

Author: Ordinastie | August 6, 2019 | 981,190 views MalisisDoors Mod 1.12.2/1.11.2 adds new animations for doors, trap doors and fence gates. It adds new multiple doors such as glass doors, prison doors, laboratory doors, factory doors and garage doors all of which have different and original animations. You can also completely build the doors with a machine that lets you choose how it looks and the way it moves. This mod has almost everything you can want in giving you more choices for your architectural entrances. And the best part is that it does not require any complicated redstone wires to configure. Screenshots and crafting recipes: Animated doors: The first goal of this mod was to improve vanilla doors behavior. They are now animated when opened or closed instead of just jumping immediately to their new state. It also makes double doors automatically open and close without the need for redstone. Trapdoors and fence gates are also animated! Tree doors and Iron Trapdoor: The new variants of wooden doors and trapdoor added by Minecraft 1.8 are available and made the same way. Glass doors: Two new sliding doors are added (wood and iron), which behave like normal doors, but instead of rotating on themselves, they slide into the block next to them. Recipes: In-game: Prison doors: A new metallic prison door that slides on the side. Can only be operated with redstone. Recipe: In-Game: Laboratory Doors: A new metallic laboratory door that slides upwards. It's not a double door. Recipe: In-game: Factory doors: A new metallic factory door that slides both up and down. Recipe: In-game: Shoji Doors: A new shoji door that glides slowly on the side. Recipe: In-game: Curtains: Simple red curtains that open with custom animation. Recipes: In-game: Saloon doors: New saloon doors that open automatically when you go through them. Recipes: In-game: Sliding trapdoors: Simple trapdoors that slide on the side with pneumatic sound. Recipes: In-game: Camo Fence Gates: A fence gate that copies the blocks on each side, given they are of the same type. Recipes: In-game: Rusty hatch: A large metallic hatch with a handle that slowly opens. Comes with rusty ladders built in. Requires 2x3x2 block space to be placed. Like trap doors, if placed on the top half of the side of the block, the door will open upwards. Recipes: In-game: Rusty Ladders: A metallic ladder that matches the built-in rusty hatch. Recipes: In-game: Garage doors: A multi-structure so that a large area can be opened with a nice animation. A garage door can be as wide and high as desired, and as long as they face the same way, a simple redstone power change will make the entire door open or close depending on the current state. Recipe: In-game: Wagon doors: A large and fancy wooden double door (4x5x1 multi-block). Note: Right-click the frame to close the doors. Recipe: In and controls: Forcefield Controller is an element that allows you to create Forcefields. Forcefields can be any size (with a limit of 100 blocks) and cannot be destroyed. Use the item on Forcefield to enable and disable it, use it while sneaking to remove it completely. Contoller displays color information while placing a Forcefield to indicate whether it can be done between the selected positions. It is self-driven, but requires some time to recharge. Please note that removing a Forcefield completely drains the energy of the controller. Recipe: In-game: Door factory and custom doors: The door factory is a self-powered machine that allows you to design your own doors. Selected their properties, such as the range type (from ten available!), the sound or speed of the animation, and then select blocks for the frame, top and bottom materials to define how they look. The top and bottom material also accept a few items for special effects: Flint and steel provide a fire effect. Ender gem shows nether portal animation. Water bucket shows running water. Low bucket shows liquid lava. Recipe: In-Game: Custom Doors: Custom Doors with Effects: Requires: Minecraft Forge MalisisCore How to Install: Make sure you've already installed Minecraft Forge and MalisisCore. Locate the minecraft application folder. In windows open Run from the Start menu, type %appdata% and click Run. On the Mac Open Finder, hold down ALT, and then click Go Library on the top menu bar. Open the Application Support folder and look for Minecraft. Place the mod you have just downloaded (jar file) in the Mods folder. MalisisDoors 1.12 and 1.12.2 offer us a complete door-making system that will allow us to create a variety of new door variants, with new designs, sounds and animations. Some of these doors will be larger than the predefined ones, others will have animations and sounds, or will be designed for a certain type of construction. This mod will allow us to make automatic doors, garage doors, folding doors, modern doors, old doors, sliding doors, hatches, trapdoors and barriers, among other varieties, which will serve to decorate one of the most important elements of any construction, entrance. Perhaps one of the most characteristic elements of this mod is door factory, which will allow us to customize our doors, combining the design of one door, with the sound of another and animation of another type of door. That is, you can make doors according to your taste or needs. How to install MalisisDoors Mod for Minecraft 1.12 and 1.12.2?
