Cubefield created by Max Abernethy in 2006, is a simple yet highly addictive game. In CubeField Online game you are a gray arrow that you control with your left and right arrow keys. But you can not control the speed but you need to avoid cubes. The gray arrow refers to the feeling that you are driving a plane with how you turn. You move above a silver platform, where the cubes appear to be on. These cubes are orange and yellow and sometimes come at you in a pattern and other times randomly. This is basically a survival game, the more you play the game the faster it gets and the more cubes appear. Scoring depends on how long you can travel without driving into other cubes. The cube game does not stop, although it seems that it has level on level for many reasons. Gameplay Of Cubefield First is you are taken into a tunnel as an environment from which it appears to be. No escape and by being released from the tunnel it refers to the assumption that you have reached a new level. Secondly, periodically throughout the cubefield game the color and style often change, again emitting the assumption that you have reached a new level as well as the increase in speed throughout the game. If 3D games are your favorite then you will love Cubefield its 3D look is remarkable with 3 dimensional boxes. A downfall for this game is there is no high score list however there is a 'Top Score' feature that tells you your personal. Best score and gives you an idea of how well you are doing, there is a number in the upper left corner of the game, which continues to grow as long as you avoid boxes. Pause the game simply by pressing the letter 'P', you can also adjust the quality of the game by selecting 'Q' on your keyboard. When to start a new game. Just go to the opening or home page and simply press your space button instead of clicking 'New Game'. Tips & Tricks It's features like this one that make the average player want to play this game like this for hours on end. The author of this game did not contain music or any sound effects in this game. Because he feels better being able to listen to your own music that you play rather than any annoying game sounds. Forward in the game is very difficult but if you get a score 999k or higher, type cubefield. Like your alias and you will get the advanced version, or a secret level that will give you shapes. Such as triangles and circles, this game sharpens your hand and eye coordination and is really fun and addicting and best of all it's free to play. Many of the online Tunnel Rush game sites have cubefield. Just remember. Watch out for those cubes and be quick with your arrow keys in this highly addictive and enjoyable online control game.
