We may use cookies to set up your experience, including analytics and service Learning more to protect your nuts is a popular game in our collection in which you take on the role of a courageous squirrel that won't return to the last enemy either killed or repelled. No one would want all their hard work to be stolen by zombies, and our protagonist squirrel is no exception. Can you help him through the many challenging stages of this game and show those monsters that this is your home and they are not welcome? The enemy goes to your garden so you have to be ready to jump right into action. U defend your nuts, your goal as a player is what the name offers to protect and protect your nuts from the waves of various undes lived enemies coming to you. Make no mistake, fluffy fur is this magic protein for weakness, because it is quite capable of using different types of weapons. This game has four weapons, each with different stats. When you first start the game, the only weapon you have is the main bow and arrow. As you kill enemies and pass levels, you can unlock more powerful weapons like a shotgun, a sniper rifle, and even a rocket launcher! All these weapons require ammunition except for a bow that has an unlimited stockpile of shooters. To play the game, click on the screen with your left mouse button to aim and charge the firepower of your weapon. Release the button to shoot the enemy. You can upgrade your weapons to improve your power with the money you collect from your fallen enemies. You can also place the wall and mines for additional protection. You have three lives in each level, and if you manage to reach level 20, you will confront the boss and put an end to that threat!
