It was released on August 16, 2005 in Arista Nashville. It was the Country Music Association's album of the year in 2006. [13] The album produced the singles Alcohol, When I Get Where I'm Going, The World and She's Everything. Alcohol was a number 4 hit on the Billboard Hot Country Songs charts, while the other three singles were all number one. Waitin' on a Woman was re-recorded in mid-2008 as an extra track for Paisley's 5th Gear album, and this re-recording aired in June 2008 as a single. Content Time Well Wasted's first single was Alcohol, which peaked at number 4 on the Billboard country charts in mid-2005. After that came When I Get Where I'm Going, with background vocals from Dolly Parton. This song became Paisley's fifth number one and Parton's twenty-fifth, as well as the first since Ricky Van Shelton's Rockin' Years duo in 1991. She also made her the oldest female artist to have a number one hit on the country charts. The World, the third single, became Paisley's most debuting single when it entered the charts at number 37, and was its sixth number one. Finishing the releases was She's Everything, also a number one. Waitin' on a Woman, a cut from this album, was re-recorded and released to radio in 2008, and was added to her upcoming studio album, 2007 5th Gear. After reaching number one, waitin' on a Woman's re-recording became Paisley's eighth consecutive number one, setting a new record for the country's most consecutive hits number one since nielsen SoundScan's inception in 1990. The album was released on Arista Records.Time Well Wasted spanned three singles No. 1: When I Get Where I'm Going, featuring Dolly Parton, The World and She's She's the latter of which was certified double platinum, for sales of 2 million copies. The album also features the song Waitin' on a Woman, which was later included in a re-release of Paisley's 5th Gear in 2007, as well as on her 2008 album Play. Written by Wynn Varble and Don Sampson, the melody was one of the few on the album that Paisley did not write himself. A friend of mine told me about a friend of ours who was in the hospital and wasn't well at all, Varble remembers The Boot. After hanging up with him, I talked to him and asked him how he was doing. He was in his last days, and I asked him where his wife was. He said he told her to go home, there was nothing she could do there. That title came to mind, and that little story, the scheme of it. Based on the success of Time Well Wasted, Paisley launched his first head tour, the Time Well Wasted Tour, in 2006. Sara Evans, Carrie Underwood, Sugarland, Jake Owen and Billy Currington took turns as their opening act. Time Well Wasted won Paisley an ACM Award and a CMA Awards trophy for album of the year. He also received ACM for Vocal Event of the Year and Video of the Year and a CMA for music event of the year, all for When I Get Where I'm Going. WATCH: How well do you really know Brad Paisley? Aw... these country stars were too cute as children! Children!
