We were there for lunch having our holiday celebration. The hostess was friendly and helpful. The atmosphere is attractive and welcoming. And the food was excellent. Unfortunately, the service was slow and so was the delivery of food. I had to mention to the manager that we needed our food. Also, I had to get your attention to get the bill. A 45-minute lunch took almost 75 minutes. The food at Cedar + Stone Urban TableA here are our selections and prints. Menus CauliflowerServed with spiced carrot puree. Also, green coriander-mint sauce. And forest for fork mushrooms. It was wonderful for two people to share. Main CoursesMinnesota Wild Rice SoupPerfect on a cold Minnesota day. Great taste and wonderful quality. Soup of the day – Potatoes a puree soup. Good taste and taste. Torn kale saladServed with macron almonds. And crispy apples of feta cheese honey. This is a salad I'd order again. We went here for a birthday dinner with my family and some friends. The setting is quite elegant, although it still feels like you are eating in a hotel, rather than a separate restaurant. Our service was excellent as it should be in a... high-end restaurant. We had been told that the Braised Short-Rib was spectacular, so both my wife and I asked for it. Unfortunately, we were disappointed. The meat was very tender, but not especially tasty. The accompaniments were good however, I had mine with the grains, which were very soft and tasty, and my wife had whipped yukon potatoes which were also very good. For dessert we had the doughnuts, which were tasty, but again not spectacular, and a brulee cream, which was pretty good. If you are looking for a place to go for a very nice dinner near the Mall of America, this is a very nice place, and I hope the food matches the raves I have heard from some people. Unfortunately, ours wasn't worth the high price. More price. More
