Craven, president of the Guardians of the National Cemetery, is a local volunteer organization. Our only mission is to serve as an official support committee for the Washington Crossing National Cemetery, designated by the Veterans Administration. We exist exclusively for charitable and educational purposes to defend, preserve and support the Washington Crossing National Cemetery in Bucks County on behalf of united States Armed Forces veterans. All of our funds, whether they are income or capital, whether they are acquired by donation or contribution or otherwise, will be spent for this purpose. We run volunteer recruitment and training programs. We are organizing fundraising efforts to support the Washington Crossing National Cemetery to provide additional programs, beautification and commemoration programs, and the design and construction of memorials and stone monuments. We are working hard to promote national sanctuary status for the Washington Crossing National Cemetery through beautification efforts on the cemetery cemetery An example of our efforts is the creation and maintenance of an avenue of flags, composed of the American flag given by the families of veterans who received the funeral flag at the funeral service for their loved ones. We are working to increase public awareness of the mission of the National Cemeteries of the Veterans Administration. We assist staff at The Washington Crossing National Cemetery in planning and conducting major ceremonies and special events such as Veterans Day, Memorial Day and other days deemed appropriate to commemorate and honour those who have served or served in the U.S. Armed Forces, or those who have been buried in the cemetery. The Guardians of the National Cemetery cordially invite you and a guest to join us in paying tribute to the Guard of Honour at our 10th anniversary banquet. Box 343Newtown, PA 18940 I have been visiting the cemetery almost every week since my husband was buried there. Over the past two years I have seen the patterns fill up quickly, but are still in perfect condition of time, always looking perfectly maintained, well maintained. The tombs are decorated at Christmas with wreaths. I mean happy that this is my husband's last resting place, and will be mine too, because of the extensive care to maintenance. Maintenance.
