This section contains 633 words (about 2 pages at 400 words per page) Juli's father was a bricklayer by trade but spent his free time painting landscapes. Juli likes to see him paint. He seems to transcend his surroundings and even the world. He seems to be a spiritual experience for him. He got angry one day when he asked why he liked Bryce so much. She talks about black hair and bright blue eyes but her father says she needs to see the full landscape. Juli's father's appreciation of art and beauty encouraged his love of nature and beauty. That's why he became fascinated with the sycamore tree. Juli found the tree very lucky the day she saw the blue and white kite on the sycamore tree. He climbed up to save her and it was great to see Bryce looking up... Starring Callan McAuliffe, Madeline Carroll, Rebecca De Mornay, Anthony Edwards, John Mahoney, Penelope Ann Miller, Aidan Quinn, and Kevin Weisman, the film tells the story of two eighth grader who begin to have feelings for each other, albeit completely opposite. Flipped was released in theaters in the United States on August 6, 2010 by Warner Bros. Pictures. [3] It garnered mixed reviews from critics, and was a box office bombshell, grossing $4.3 million on a budget of $14 million. Plot In 1957, second grader Bryce Loski first moved in and met Julianna Juli Baker. When they look into each other's eyes, Juli knows it's love, but Bryce isn't so sure and tries to avoid it. Four years later in 1961, Bryce tried to get rid of by dating Sherry Stalls, who Juli thinks is unreliable. However, her best friend Garrett was attracted to Sherry and ended up telling the truth about the suggestion, therefore no That's too good. After Juli finds out they broke up, she thinks she can have it back, but they reconsider their own options as time goes on. Chet Duncan, Bryce's grandfather, moved in to live with the family. At one point, Juli falls in love with a large old sycamore tree, but her relationship doesn't last long after the tree itself is cut down, much to her dismay. However, his father gave him a painting with the same type of tree, causing him to overcome his grief. Juli was injured when she found out Bryce had thrown away the eggs she was offering, for fear of salmonella. Chet helps Juli fix her yard, while Bryce begins to develop feelings for Juli. After Juli returned home from visiting her mentally disabled uncle Daniel, she heard Bryce was supporting Garrett badmouthing her, causing her to stop having an interest in him. The Loski family invited the Bakers to dinner and once they got there, Juli confronted Bryce about what he was doing and eventually turned him down. After dinner, he apologized for his behavior. Bryce had mixed feelings afterwards, because he wasn't forgiven and he didn't care enough to hold a grudge. As the basketball auction approaches, Juli learns Sherry is planning to bid for Bryce. Bryce worries about what will happen in reality if Juli tries to start a bidding war with Sherry, but she bids for a boy named Eddie Trulock because no one is bidding for her. However, at lunchtime, Bryce can't seem to ignore Juli talking to Eddie, while he talks to Sherry. Much to his jealousy, he got up from his desk and walked towards him. He grabbed her by the shoulder and tried to kiss her, causing her to avoid him and go in contempt. After that, Juli's feelings hurt. Garrett and Bryce both ended their friendship after a dispute over July. Bryce tries to talk to Juli, but because of what he's doing, he refuses to do it. Two days later, Bryce planted a thundering sycamore tree in the front yard of the July House to show his feelings. When she saw this, she went to help him and realized that after all these years, they never started talking to each other. When they plant trees, they join hands, look into each other's eyes, and share loving smiles. Cast Callan McAuliffe as Bryce Loski Ryan Ketzner as young Bryce Madeline Carroll as Julianna Juli Baker Morgan Lily as young Juli Rebecca De Mornay as Patsy Loski Anthony Edwards as Steven Loski John Mahoney as Chet Duncan. This is Mahoney's last film before his death in 2018. Penelope Ann Miller as Trina Aidan Quinn as Richard Baker Kevin Weisman as Daniel Baker Cody Horn as Lynetta Loski Gillian Pfaff as young Lynetta Shane Harper as young Matt Baker Michael Christopher Bolten as Mark Baker Stefanie Scott as Dana Tressler Israel Broussard as Garrett Einbinder Ashley Taylor as Sherry Stalls Matthew Gold as Eddie Trulock Jake Reiner as Flipped has received mixed reviews. On review aggregator Rotten Tomatoes, the film has garnered a rotten 55% rating or 5.99/10 based on 75 reviews. The consensus reads: While not without its nostalgic charm, Rob Reiner's sometimes awkward adaptation of Wendelin Van Draanen's childhood novels doesn't reach the heights of previous directorial work such as Stand By Me. [4] On Metacritic, the film holds a 45/100 rating, showing mixed or average reviews. [5] Flipped's home media was released on DVD and Blu-ray on November 23, 2010. One day he climbed on it and for him, it felt amazing. He thought that the view was very good and he always asked people to come with him and sit and watch the view. Everyone thinks he's crazy so no one goes there with him. Juli likes to swing at the branches and he almost hurt Bryce once by swinging it. If you're wondering one day where Juli's going to be, you'll always find her in the same Sycamore Tree that belongs to hers. One day, as Bryce was walking up the hill to school, he saw a group of people near a tree. The bus hasn't come yet so Bryce went and checked it out. When he sees everyone, he finally knows what they're doing. They stare at Juli who is on top of a tree looking like a scared little mouse. After a while of thinking, Bryce finally found out what everyone was doing, the guys with the saws would cut down the trees and Juli would never move from that place. Everyone tried to get him off the tree but he wouldn't listen. Even Bryce tried but he refused Down. When Juli decides, she won't change it. He's Him trying to get people to go there with him. He even asked Bryce to come there. Bryce, come here, if we're all here, then they won't cut down trees for sure. Bryce thinks he's crazy and on the other hand, he wants to go there. But when he saw the bus around the corner and he just couldn't. He got on the bus and went to school. She didn't see him at school that day and when she got home, half of the tree was gone. He feels guilty about it. He felt guilty because he knew that he was supposed to go there. Bryce feels really bad. He tried to get it out of his mind but he couldn't. 1. Why did Juli enjoy watching her father paint?

Juli enjoys watching her father paint because her father always talks to her and she enjoys how her father's words come out soft but heavy at the same time as she paints.2. After Juli told her father about Bryce, she replied, The right lighting is everything (page 34).3. How did climbing a tree to get Bryce's kite affect July? When the kite Bryce got stuck in the tree Juli decided to climb the tree even though he wasn't very good at it. He thought the kite is a kite of good luck. While she was climbing a tree she saw a beautiful view and caused her to appreciate the tree even more.4. How did Juli begin to understand her father's belief that the whole could be greater than the sum of his parts: (p. 37)? Juli began to understand her father's belief that the whole could be greater than the sum of his parts when he climbed the sycamore tree noticing that the tree was over the roof and the clouds and wind and colors combined were magic.5. Why did Juli's plans with her father make losing trees even more difficult for her? Juli's plans with her father made the loss of the tree all the more difficult for her because she remembered how she was so excited when her father said they could climb a tree together but they never got to the 6th. Why is his father's painting of a tree so special for July? Juli's father's photo of a sycamore tree is really special to him because it reminds him of the beautiful sycamore tree that once stood on Collier Street. Street.
