It helped me realize, why as a man I had suffered so much in my life. It's nothing I do, I follow all the advice women give, all the ideas you like see in movies, music, I think women want a loving and caring guy, this book helps me realize. That all my suffering is due to identification with feminist ambitions. Line: The love of a man is unrequisous and loves simply for love, the love of a woman on the other side is opportunistic, there are circumstances to accept it. Cut me like a knife.... What do you like best about this story? Analogy with matrix, first made me laugh and then question the authenticity of this book. But as Rollo continued to explain throughout the book and referenced the equation, the laughter soon turned into an emotional complex set that I couldn't describe, you realised.. It's true.. We guys have been made victims and no one will trust you because, they are part of the system, and just like the matrix, they will struggle to preserve it.. What do you learn from the Rational Men you will use in your everyday life? Once you know this truth... You can't go back. You can't see the same woman and you realize, how handsome it is that your needs as a man, never matter to the world, yet you are what everyone will relish in.. Any additional comments? Thanks for this insight..... Thank you for unplugging me from this matrix.
