They must cross the side scrolling stages while avoiding hazards such as enemies and pits with the help of power-ups such as the super fungus, the Starman fire flower. The game was designed by Launching Miyamoto and Takashi Tezuka and was initially designed as a farewell salute to stack games at Famicom, in anticipation of the upcoming release of the Famicom disk system, with technical impact from some of the console's previous games. It was designed with ease of access in mind, with the first tier, World 1-1, designed to showcase core mechanics.
