Add a photo cancelled -Dawg-Friendly night with Roanoke Rail Yard Dawgs for immediate release: July 1, 2020 TRAVIS ARMSTRONG announces return to ROANOKE Rail Yard Dawgs captain named All-SPHL Second Team in 2019-20 ROANOKE, Va. - The Roanoke Rail Yard Dawgs and linebacker Travis Armstrong was captain of the Dawgs during the 2019-20 season and was named Second All-SPHL Team in April. He appeared in 46 games and scored a career-high six goals to go along with 16 assists and 106 penalty minutes. Armstrong signed his training camp agreement and announced his return live on Rail Yard Dawgs' Facebook page. A native of Smith Falls, Ontario, the 6'5 quarterback has appeared with the Rail Yard Dawgs in each of their four previous seasons. He initially joined the team after being selected first overall in the SPHL expansion plan in 2016. Armstrong ranks second in franchise history in games played with 123, third in assists with 38 and fifth in with 55. ### ROANOKE, Va. (WDBJ) - Facebook Live is where fans of Roanoke Rail Yard Dawgs will want to be Thursday night as the valley's professional hockey franchise plans to from a brand new logo and jersey design for the upcoming season. The league's small teams change it every two years. We wanted to go a little further than that, but this is just our next iteration of the next design of The Railway Yard Dawgs, said team president Mickey Gray. Which the logo itself is still top secret, Gray said the new look won't be dramatically different from the current one, which features the team mascot, Diesel, surrounded by railroad tracks with the Mill Mountain Star on its lid. Gray said the club has been planning a change since December, and the likely uptick it will bring in merchandise sales comes at a welcome time. We're a business based on events, said Gray. We make money with games and what you can't do in the middle of a pandemic is have hockey games, so our merchandise is pretty much how we can make our money right now. With the new presentation, we hope people like it and buy jerseys and T-shirts and hats and all that. It will be a nice push to help keep the lights on and doors open, that's for sure. On the ice, the Dawgs are still finalising a list, with team re-signing winger Josh Nenadal on a new contract Wednesday. It it's not yet clear what the stands will look like if the puck drops, as scheduled in mid-December But Gray said if the capacity limits are too low, the season could be over before it starts. The reality of our situation is that we have to wait for the state and the CDC to say what is safe and reasonable for us to be able to do, Gray said. It's our job here to try to do whatever number is, I hope, work. Of course, there's a floor. If they tell us that we can only have 200 people in a game, that's not at all close to a viable number. It's something we work on every day. That's part of what made this offseason so unusual and so hectic. The Rail Yard Dawgs logo reveal is set for Thursday at 7 p.m. on Facebook Live.Copyright 2020 WDBJ. All rights reserved. ROANOKE, Va. - Call it a refresher as opposed to a rebranding, but Roanoke's minor league hockey club spruced up the only look this team has had since it was announced in November 2015. While the colours remain the same, the Roanoke Rail Yard Dawgs have upgraded the original logo and redesigned the team's jerseys ahead of the 2020-21 SPHL season. Last season we started kicking around ideas for a new logo, said Rail Yard Dawgs Vice President Alexandra We knew there were certain items we wanted to keep, such as our mascot, Diesel, and the Roanoke star, but it was time for an update, a refresh. The team began the redesign process in December 2019, but reportedly did not reconcile with a finished product until April or May 2020. A local designer, John Comstock of Magnets USA in Vinton, gets and about the new look. Comstock has been a devoted fan of the team since their first season. My family and I are huge supporters, Comstock said. The opportunity to work with the front office to create the new logo was an amazing experience and a huge honor. I can't wait to see the boys take the ice in the new uniforms and have a great season. The new touches were virtually revealed on the group's Facebook page. New items will be available for purchase on the group's merchandise website. The SPHL aims for a return in mid to late December for the 2020-21 regular season.
