

☐

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

Smoot-hawley tariff apush

Andrew Mellon During the Harding Administration Andrew Mellon was Treasury Secretary and wanted to invest in tax-exempt securities rather than in the payroll Herbert Hoover Republican and former president who ran into the election on prosperity and ban. Many people blamed him for the collapse of the stock market and the beginning of the Great Depression Albert B. Fall Secretary of the Interior during the Harding Administration; he was an scheming and convicted after participating in the Scandal Teapot Dome Robert LaFollette senator from Wisconsin, who ran for president as a candidate for the Progressive Party, but lost to Calvin Coolidge Alfred E. Smith the Democratic candidate for the 1928 election, who lost to Herbert Hoover, who supported the ban while Smith was known for drinking Ohio Gang Consisted from a group of people who were close friends of Harding. They were appointed offices in which they abused their power for their own benefit The Washington Conference Meeting of the World's Largest Powers at the time. He called for the disarmament of the great powers and reduced the number of Kellogg-Briand Pact warships promised never to wage war again and to resolve disputes in a peaceful manner; Defensive wars were allowed Fordney-McCumber Tariff Law raised taxes to an unreasonable amount: as much as 38.5%. Created in an attempt to equalize prices between foreign markets and American markets Teapot Dome Scandal One of the many scandals that occurred during Harding's administration. One of Harding's cabinet members bought an area with rich oil reserves and bribed people to take it at a higher price. The Dawes plan is trying to pay for the damage in World War I. America lent Germany the money that was to be paid to France and the British, who were going to repay America. Hawley-Smoot Tariff began as a protective measure to help farmers, but became the highest protection tariff in the history of the nation's Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) Government lending bank created to provide indirect assistance to insurance companies, banks, and railways Bonus Army Group of World War I veterans who were heavily economically affected by the Great Depression and demanded what the government owed them because of their Services Hoover-Stimson doctrine stated that the United States would not recognize any territorial acquisitions made by the Force Republican Old Guard Returns Know: Warren Harding, Ohio Gang 1. What were Warren Harding's flaws? Warren Harding possesses many flaws, it would be that he does not begin to feel moral halitosis in his corrupt associates. Hate to hurt people's feelings, especially those of his friends and because of his leadership so his associates often took advantage of it. What pro-business policies have been taken by during Harding administration. There were a lot of pro-business policies implemented during the Harding administration. Harding brought back the laissez-faire policy of allowing businesses to run wild and free and put anything else, for example, progressive movements, would be the abolition of child labour and special protection for women. The Aftermath of War Know: Railway Labor Board, American Legion, Adjusted Compensation Act 3. What effect did the war have on the post-war economy? The war has negatively affected the economy everywhere, causing a kind of post-war recession. War Industries Board was dissolved and because of laissez-faire, businessran for free. The labor movement fought and World War I veterans began to protest for benefits or wages because of their services to their country. America Seeks Benefits Without Burdens Know: Unofficial Observers, Charles Evans Hughes, Five-Power Naval Treaty, Treaty of Four Powers, Treaty of Nine Power, Kellogg-Briand Pact 4. took the U.S. leadership in disarmament in 20 years? The U.S. was not officially part of the United Nations, but there were unofficial observers who simply oversaw the league. Because the U.S. was not directly involved, unofficial observers led to the destruction of the League of Nations. They began the disarmament conference that reduced the amount of ships and weapons for all countries. Hiking Higher Rate Know: Fordney-McCumber Rate Law 5. What effects have been produced by high U.S. tariffs? The companies wanted a higher tariff for Europeans, and the Fordney-McCumber tariff gave them exactly that. It raised rates to 38.5 per cent. However, there was a problem, Europe had to pay the United States through exports, but the tariff stops exports and, as a result, the compensation from the First World War was not reimbursed. The Stench of the Know Scandal: Charles R. Forbes, Albert B. Fall, Teapot Dome, Harry M. Daugherty 6. This was [Harding's] weakness that tolerated the people and conditions that subjected the Republic to the greatest shame since President Grant's time. Explain that Harding was a good man at heart, but his good nature was his greatest weakness. He failed to see that his administration was full of corrupt people; thus, during his presidency there were many scandals, such as the Teapot Dome Scandal. Silent Cal Coolidge Know: Calvin Coolidge 7. Do nicknames, Silent Cal and Prudent Cal accurately describe the Coolidge presidency? Yes, the nicknames Silent accurately describes Coolidge himself. Was it ever ironic that such a small man ruled the United States during one of its most prosperous times. He was taciturn and, unlike most politicians, hardly said much at all. Frustrated farmers know: McNary-Haugen Bill 8. What's changed for the farmer since 1890? What's left of the same thing? During World War I farmers enjoyed a boom in trade because much food was needed because of war efforts, farmers provided food and earned a good amount of money in the process. Many new inventions were created, which helped make agricultural work easier, but during the 20th farmers fell in tough times. A three-way race for the White House in 1924 Know: Robert La Follette 9. Why did Calvin Coolidge easily win the 1924 election? Calvin Coolidge easily won the 1924 election because Democrats found it difficult to define their positions and themselves at a New York Convention. Since the times were good, Coolidge has been re-elected. Floatings foreign policy 10. What are the arguments for America to cancel the debt of the First World War of European countries? The arguments for America to cancel the debt of the First World War of European countries that Germany should be worth paying its own debt. Coolidge saw that the situation for Germany was hopeless, because Germany was running out of money and suffering from inflation, which made the newly printed brands worthless. Unravelling Node Debt Know: Dawes Plan 11. What were the global repercussions of America's insistence on debt repayment? The global repercussions for America's insistence on debt repayment slate were that Britain and France were paying their debts to the US, so instead they put pressure on Germany, which could not pay. Charles Dawes came up with the Dawes plan, which said America would lend money to Germany, which would then make payments to Britain and France, which would then pay America. Herbert Hoover's Triumph, 1928 Know: Al Smith, Rum, Romanism, and Ruin 12. Why was Herbert Hoover so popular with voters as Al Smith? Herbert Hoover was much more popular with votes than Al Smith because he talked about rugged individualism, which was that America had become great of self-sufficient and powerful people and that those people were still needed in America. Smith also had a drinking problem, which was viewed down during the days of the ban. Hoover also sounded better on the radio than Smith did. President Hoover's first move knows: Farm Council, Tariff Hawley-Smoot 13. Tried Hoover to help produces positive results? Explain. Herbert Hoover's attempts to help farmers produce positive results have benefited farmers somewhat. He stet up a Federal Farm board that lent money to farmers and started Cotton Stabilization Corporation. However, the Hawley-Smoot Tariff had a lot of negative effects, which reduced tariffs, slowed trade, and moved America to isolation, which would allow Hitler to rise to power. The Great Crash Ends The Twenty Gold I Know: Black Tuesday, Brother Can you exchange a dime? 14. What were the immediate effects of the stock market collapse? The immediate effect of the stock market collapse was that the sale began and prices fell, causing stockholders to lose $40 billion in value. Business started to go out of business, unemployment skyrocketed, and more than 5,000 bands went bankrupt because people withdrew their money. Hooked on Horn of Plenty Know: Hoover Blanks, Hoovervilles 15. What were the causes that contributed to the Great Depression? The causes that contributed to the Great Depression were the huge collapse of the stock market, over the species in stock instead of land, this time around, and over production. Consumerism and American production have expanded and reached the ability of consumers to use real money to buy things. Rugged Times for Rugged Individualists Know: Rugged Individualism, The Great Humanitarian 16. affected President Hoover's beliefs the way he handled Depression? President Hoover's beliefs have hurt the way he handled Depression by taking the blame, which he did nothing to help him. His robust individualism led him to take government action and he believed that Depression was a natural part of the business cycle. He came to the conclusion to wait. Hoover Fights Great Depression Know: Muscle Shoals Bill, Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Pump-Priming, Yellow Dog Contracts 17. Is Hoover's reputation as ultra-conservative well-deserved? Explain. Hoover's reputation as an ultra-conservative is not well deserved because of the environment around him, which led him to let the government take action and went against his nature. He tried to start the economy through government spending and passed the Financial Reconstruction Corporation to borrow money to finance New Deal FDR projects. Route Bonus Army in Washington Know: Bonus Expeditionary Force, Douglas MacArthur 18. What happened to the Bonus Army? Why is that? The Bonus Army was a World War Group Veterans who wanted bonuses for saving the world for democracy and Bonus Expeditionary Force was created and consisted of people who set up camp in Washington to demand their bonuses. Riots arose in confusion and the army was required to carry out the evacuation. Japanese Militaries Attack China I Know: Manchuria, Stimson Doctrine 19. demonstrated the Japanese attack on Manchuria the weakness of the League of Nations? The Japanese attack on Manchuria demonstrated the weakness of the League of Nations because people were shocked to discover that the Kellogg-Briand Pact, which outlawed war, had been violated. He showed that the League of Nations did nothing and could not do anything. She taught, however, a lesson that weaker nations could be taken over by aggressive ones and that although free nations would complain; no action would be taken to stop aggressive nations. Hoover Pioneers Good Neighbor Politics 20. What was President Hoover's policy towards Latin America President Hoover's policy toward Latin America was one of friendship. After relations between the US and Latin America were destroyed, Hoover wanted to turn that into friendship. U.S. troops were removed from Nicaragua and Haiti, which laid the foundations of Good Neighbor's policy. Policy.