Hey guys! I just moved to LA and I'm trying to decide between Beverly Hills and Westwood Equinox. The location of BH is close to my home and my family and seems nice (I visited it yesterday). Westwood's location is close to my job, apparently it has a younger crowd and is about $30 cheaper per month. It will be a pain to go to on weekends though... (For some background, I'm 21 years old and plan on working out 5-6 days a week.) Do you have any insight into which club has a better reputation/any advice on which to choose? Thanks for your help!
