This event, organized by the Boxborough Minutemen, pays tribute to Boxborough's fifer Luther Blanchard who marched at the Concord Bridge at the beginning of the American Revolution. In keeping with the Fifer Day theme, the ABCC sponsored two costumed storytellers Merrill Kohlhofer and Andrea Lovett, who brought original tales of the American Revolution to life. The storyteller's tent welcomed children and adults of all ages. Click here to see the press clipping of this event.
