Splatoon chaos vs order reddit

in the original message. Japanese version: ... All right, all right If you take it that far, English version: That's the soul! There is also a special device for this Splatfest! Japanese version: It looks like everyone is getting this special device for Splatfest as well, so you guys get ready! English version: And since this is the final edition... I'm designing a special stage. Japanese version: Since this is the last version... I'll make sure to put a lot of ideas on the special stage, I'll be preparing this time too. I hope this helps convey how the writer wants Splatfest to finally feel and how the potential sequel will depend on which team you choose. I wish you the best in Splatfest's last 2 of Splatfest!
