After Jesus fed five thousand Joh 6:1. Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, the sea of Tiberias. Joh 6:2 And a great crowd pursued him, for they saw their miracles which he had performed on those who were diseased. And Jesus walked into a mountain, and there he was his disciples. Sat down. And the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near. Joh Joh When Jesus then lifted his eyes, and saw that a great company came to him, he would go to Philip, when would we buy bread, that they could eat? And he asked him to prove it: for he himself knew what he would do. Joh 6:7 Philip answered him, two hundred paise of bread is not enough for them, that each one of them can take a little. Joh 6:8 His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, Saith for him, Joh 6:9 here is a lad, who hands five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many people? And Jesus said, Men sit down. Now there was a lot of grass in place. So the men sat in about five thousand. Joh 6:11 and Jesus took the loaves; And when he had thanked, he did deliver them to disciples and disciples who were set down; And likewise fishes as much as they will. Joh 6:12 When they were full, they said to their disciples, Gather the pieces that remain, that nothing should be lost. Joh 6:13 So they gathered them together, and filled the twelve baskets with pieces of five barley loaves, which remained above and above those who had eaten. Then those people, when they saw the miracle done by Jesus, said, It is a fact that the Prophet should come into the world. Joh 6:15 When Jesus believed that they would come and take him in a force, he went back to a mountain alone to make him king. Jesus walks at waters Joh 6:16 and when it still came, his disciples went under the sea. Joh 6:17 and entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And now it was dark, and Jesus did not come to them. Joh 6:18 and the sea arose from a great wind that caused the blow. Joh 6:19 So when they were about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and approaching the ship: and they were afraid. Joh 6:20 But he saith for those, this is me; Don't be afraid. Joh 6:21 Then they voluntarily received him in the ship: and immediately the ship was on the land whither they went. I am the bread of life after Joh 6:22 day, when the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat, to save that one in which his disciples had entered, and that Jesus had not gone with his disciples in the boat, but that his disciples had gone alone; Joh 6:23 (Howbeit there tiberias came from near to place where they came to eat bread, after god thanked him:) Joh 6:24 When people saw because Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. Joh 6:25 And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, rabbi, when you came here? Joh 6:26 Jesus answered them and said, Seriously, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw miracles, but because you had a meal of loaves, and were filling. Joh 6:27 Labor not for the flesh that is destroyed, but for the flesh that always does for everlasting life, which the Son of man will give you: For him God the Father was sealed. Joh 6:28 Then said that they talk to him, what will we do, that we can work on God's work? Joh 6:29 Jesus responded and said to them, Veryl, indeed, I say unto you, Moses did not give you that bread from heaven; But my father gave you true bread from heaven. Joh 6:33 is for God's bread that comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world. Joh 6:34 Then said that they give this bread to him, God, always to him. And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he who comes to me will never starve; And he who believes in Me will never thirst. Joh 6:36 but I told you, that you've also seen me, and don't believe. Joh 6:37 All that the Father gives me shall come to me; And to him that come to me I will cast out no wise. Joh 6:38 For I came down from heaven, not my will, but his will that sent me. Joh 6:39 and it is the desire of the Father who sent me, whatever he gave me that I should not lose anything, but it should raise it again in the last day. And it is his will that sent me, that every one who takes the Son, and believes in him, can have eternal life: and I will raise him up on the last day. Joh 6:41 The Jews then murmured at him, for he said, I have bread which came down from heaven. Joh 6:42 And he said, Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? Then how is that, I came down from heaven? Joh 6:43 Jesus responded and said to them, Murmuring is not among themselves. Joh 6:44 No man can come to me except draw the Father who has sent me: and I will raise him up on the last day. Joh 6:45 It is written in the prophets, and they shall all be taught by God. Therefore every man that heard that hand, and learned about the hand father, come to me. Joh 6:46 It is not that any man saw the Father, save him, who belongs to God, saw the Father. Joh 6:47, truly, I say unto you, he that believes in me that eternal life hands. Joh 6:48 I am the bread of life. Joh 6:49 Your father used to eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. Joh 6:50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, that a man can eat of him, and cannot die. Joh 6:51 I live bread that has come down from heaven: If any man eats this bread, he will live forever: and the bread I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Joh 6:52 The Jews, therefore, tried among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? Joh 6:53 Then Jesus said to them, Veryl, indeed, I say unto you, except you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, you have no life. Joh 6:54 Joso ate my flesh, and drank my blood, took eternal life: And I will raise him on the last day. Joh 6:55 Because my flesh is actually flesh, and my blood is actually drunk. Joh 6:56 He who eats my flesh, and drinks my blood, dwells in me, and I dwell in it. The living Father, like Joh 6:57, sent me, and I live by the Father: so he who eats me will even live by me. Joh 6:58 This is the bread that came down from heaven: no as your father used to eat manna, and is dead: he who will live forever of this bread. Joh 6:59 These things said he was in the synagogue, as he taught at Capernaum. The word of eternal life Joh 6:60 Therefore many of his disciples, when he heard it, said, This is a hard saying; Who can hear it? Joh 6:61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured about it, he said to them, Doth, does it humiliate you? What else will you see the Son of man if Joh 6:62 ascend above where he was before? Joh 6:63 It is the Spirit that is quick; The flesh is nothing: the words that I speak to you, they are the Spirit, and they are life. Joh 6:64 but some of you aren't sure that. Because Jesus knew from the very beginning who they were who did not believe, and who should deceive him. And he said, Therefore, he said, I speak unto you, that no man can come to me, except that he was not given to my father. Joh 6:66 Many of his disciples returned from that time, and no one else walked away with him. Joh 6:67 Then said, Jesus, among the twelve, will you also go away? Joh 6:68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. Joh 6:69 And we believe and make sure that you art that Christ, the son of the living God. Joh 6:70 Jesus answered them, Have I chosen you twelve, and is one of you satan? Joh 6:71 He was the son of Stak Simon of Judah Iscariot: For he was that should deceive him, being one of twelve. Twelve.
