I have 3 or 4 targets like this that are all MOA/Sub MOA with this rifle-- this is just the latest from the other day. Thanks again, Kevin Riley I recently went to the rifle range with my M1 Garand, and on target. I shot 4 enblocs, and had 28 hits, so it wasn't too bad. The gun performed well. Attached was my picture in my 82nd WWII uniform and air equipment, a goal down the range. Just assume you might want to see it. Zack I would like to thank. I received my M1 today and I'm more than happy with it. I would / would recommend you to anyone. Super Premium's online photos Grade M1 in no way show how good it is. You care about what you do and it comes in your final product.... can't wait to erase It! Lucas R. 344 St, Georges Avenue Rahway, NJ 07065 Public Marksmanship Program<Feature On Homepage>M1 Garand In my opinion, the M1 rifle is the largest battle execution ever crammed. -- General George S. Patton, Jr. Per Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) newly completed and signed between the U.S. Army and the Public Marksmanship Program, M1 Garands will be limited to eight per calendar year, per client. The CMP considers any item containing M1 receiver Garand with a serial number to become M1 Garand and will cut from the eight M1 Garand rifle limits a year. Our rifle inventory is currently limited due to our backorders log and CMP closure of 7 weeks as a result of COVID-19. Our store was fulfilled before we left quarantine and we didn't withdraw the stock because it would slow down all the process. We hope to open up the type of rifle again when we have restructured our inventory and processed the majority of our backorders. In recent years, M1 Garand, regardless of circumstances, has become a very hot collector item and strong financial investment. The popularity of M1 Garand continues to grow as hundreds of new Garand Fun matches are held across the United States each year. Over the past 65 years, most M1 rifles have been rebuilt weapons, refined, refined or repaired at least once and often several times. Most will show signs of service (often quite large) and multi-part replacement. They are rarely found with all the original parts and original finishes as sent from the manufacturer. The original rifle, even in well-used conditions, is very valuable by the collector. Click here to view videos of the Garand Collectors Association. Click here to view garand Collecto Society videos. Every M1 Garand rifle sold by the CMP is an authentic U.S. Government rifle that has been checked, headspaced, repaired if necessary and test fired for functionality. Each rifle is sent with a safety manual, one eight-round clip and a chamber safety flag. Orders filled on a basis quickly he got it. The rifle of all grades is packed for delivery solely by the fate of the draw. The gun has no import marks. Prices are subject to change. If the price has changed after the order is received, the customer will be notified before the new price Free Shipping except PO Boxes-Contact CMP for additional S&H. CMP is no longer sent to Puerto Rico. Click here to book information. Click here to read Important State or Local Requirements. These volleys may have some parts and foreign wood may be Walnut, Birch, Beech or other varieties. The gun has no import marks. Bores will generally be good with only minor insecurity; The barrel crown can be dubbed, and the nozzle can measure more than 3 on the nozzle gauge. Throat Erosion will measure more than 5. The overall appearance and condition of the shelf grade will generally be rougher than any other grade. Fair condition. The selection of manufacturers only guarantees that the recipient is produced by the listed manufacturer. Barrels and other parts may have been produced by other manufacturers. Complete Originality Certificate Rifle purchased from CMP. FIELD GRADE: (Fair to Good) Rifle Grade Field. Most of these rifles have been refined or rebuilt at least once during military service and will likely have some parts of other manufacturers. Fair to good condition. The heat will be exhibited by worn colors and mixed finishing; may have a hole in the metal part; wood will basically sound but may be used with cracks of small hair, and plenty of ding, scratches and gouges; wood does not match the color, type of wood or condition. These volleys may have some parts and foreign wood may be Walnut, Birch, Beech or other varieties. Wood may be a new Hackberry stock without a drilled hole for cleaning kits. The gun has no import marks. Bores will generally be good with only minor insecurity; the barrel crown can be dubbed, and the nozzle can measure 3 on the nozzle gauge. The Erosion throat will measure less than 5 - both in U.S. Army standards. Don't expect a gun in mint conditions in this grade. Can with new wood. The selection of manufacturers only guarantees that the recipient is produced by the listed manufacturer. Barrels and other parts may have been produced by other manufacturers. SERVICE GRADE: (Good for Excellent) Rifle Grade Service shows less and a better appearance of a Field Grade or Shelf. Good for very good conditions. The rifle heat will be exhibited with worn colors and mixed parkerized finishes. May have a hole in the metal part. Wood will either Walnut, Birch, Beech or other variety and will essentially sound but may have a crack of small hair, dings, scratches and gouges. Wood may not match the color or type of wood. Wood may be a new but usable production and shows signs of wearing a Garands Grade Service. Bores will generally be good with only minor insecurity. The crown of the barrel can be nicknamed, but the nozzle will measure 3 or less and the throat corrosion will measure less than 5. The selection of manufacturers only guarantees that the recipient is produced by the listed manufacturer. Barrels and other parts may have been produced by other manufacturers. SPECIAL CMP: (Excellent) New Grade CMP M1 Garand. The rifle consists of new production stock and handguard sets with CMP cartoons, new production bins and new web slings. Recipients and most other parts are refined USGI, but some parts may be new manufacturing. The recipient may have a hole (as seen in the picture below). See items for details. CORRECT GRADE: (Excellent) The Right Grade Rifle is the same as the Service Grade (above), but will show less wear and use. The right Grade Rifle will have all the right parts for the manufacture date with 80% or better overall original metal finish. Stocks and handguards will be walnuts and right for rifles but will have some ding, dents, scratches and marble wood finishes. Stocks will have the appropriate original inspector cartoons. The rifle bore will be excellent without significant defects and with a throat aroma of less than 4 and wearing nozzle 2 or less. Very good for very good conditions. These grades are rare and are only available occasionally in limited quantities. Due to the lack of these rifles, they will only be sold at the CMP auction site cmpauction.thecmp.org. COLLECTOR GRADE: (Excellent) Rifle Grade Collector shows barely wear or use and has 95% or better entire original metal finish. Bores the rifle is excellent with the throat aroma under 3 and the nozzle wears 2 or less. Collector Grade Rifles have all the original parts because they are from the manufacturer. Wood will have several signs of handling and small dings and scratches. Stock has appropriate inspector cartoons. Data sheets provided by the CMP shield are inserted into the buttocks traps of each Collector Grade Rifle. Very good condition - little or no use. Limited quantities are sometimes available. Due to lack of This, they will only be sold at the CMP auction site cmpauction.thecmp.org. Garand's options are now available listed below.
