On August 31, 2020 AB 3088 was signed into law, and as of October 1, 2020, the only program to stop deportation at the statewide site. It offers deportation protection until January 31, 2021. The text of the bill can be found here. The key elements of AB 3088 are as: -Landlords were required to send special notices to tenants with unse paid rent by September 30. This notice outlines the rights of tenants under this new law -In order to cover AB 3088, tenants must document the loss of income due to COVID, and must pay 25% of each rent due between September 1, 2020 and January 31, 2021 -Eviction for non-payment of rent can go forward if they are non-COVID related -there is a specific government-based hardship declaration form that tenants must provide to landlords: Refund provisions for unpaid rent pledged from March 1, 2020 to August 31, 2020, due to covid-related losses, in which the tenant has submitted a suitable hardship declaration, the amount owed must be converted into commercial liabilities and collectable through the court small claims rather than illegal detainer action -Thousand Oak Stop Deportation provides for a six-month repayment period No penalties or interest. Under ab 3088 regulations, that refund period will begin on March 1, 2021. Stop the positive defenses on any action brought before that time to offer. - For unpayable rent from September 1, 2020 to January 31, 2021, due to covid-related losses, where the tenant has submitted a tough notice for each month of unpaid rent, and pays, before January 31, 2021, at least 25% of the total rent due from September 1, 2020 to January 31, 2021, must be owed. To commercial debt and can be recovered through small claims courts, but cannot be used as the basis for deportation. As of February 1, 2021, normal covid-19 illegal detention laws of COVID-19 testing information are available to all residents to apply. free . No appointment required.
