External LinksThe A Love to Last website is a 2017 Filipino television series directed by Jerry Lopez-Sineneng , Frasco Mortiz, Richard I. Arellano and Rory B. Quintos, with Bea Alonzo, Ian Veneracion and Iza Calzado, with an overview cast. The series premiered on ABS-CBN's Primetime Bida evening block and worldwide on The Filipino Channel from January 9, 2017 to September 22, 2017 replacing Magpahanggang Wakas. [2] Plot The story revolves around relationships in a diverse family environment. Two different people, Andeng (Bea Alonzo), and Anton (Ian Veneracion), who will prove whether or not two broken hearts can make their love last. Cast and characters Main cast Bea Alonzo in the cast: Andrea Andeng Agoncillo-Noble, Anton's second wife and Chloe's stepmother, Lucas and Kitty. He is about 18 years younger than Anton, but matures beyond his years. Despite the age difference, he falls in love and marries Anton. He embraces his role as the matrina of three children and a supportive wife of an ambitious and successful man, whose first marriage failed because of his ambition. A career woman, she successfully balances her priorities and brings a lot of happiness to the lives of Anton and his family. Her biggest challenge is Grace, her husband's ex-wife, who is obsessed and determined to destroy their marriage, prompting Andrea's fears of infidelity and insecurities about her place in Anton's heart. This causes friction in their marriage. At some point, he almost gives up. But a casual conversation with an ex-boyfriend opens his eyes to the important piece he was giving up, and that was the family he built with her husband and children. Ian Veneracion as Anton Noble IV. Devastated after Grace leaves him and their children, he picks up the pieces of his family's broken hearts. To fill the void left by Grace's departure, it becomes a hand on Dad, his priorities and puts his career and business in second place with his Needs. Due to Anton's care, the children adapt to a happy one-parent family. After their cancellation, he becomes the most suitable bachelor in the country, but no one captures his heart except Andrea. Despite the various challenges of their individual families, their relationship prevails and is finally accepted by everyone except Grace Silverio, his haughty, selfish and egotistic ex-wife. Anton is determined to protect his second marriage from Grace's manipulations and obsession with claiming it. He is a kind-hearted man, who has difficulty putting his ex in his place, even if he tries many times. Despite everything, Grace's manipulative tactics wear out Andrea, managing to break up the marriage, but she never gives up. Just as he and his children were taking off on their private plane to Hong Kong to make a long promised holiday with his children, Andrea returns. They happily reconcile and the series ends with Andrea giving him the news of her pending pregnancy. Iza Calzado as Grace Silverio, Anton's ex-wife and mother of Chloe, Lucas and Kitty, who she left three years ago. Grace is a spoiled heiress who feels she needs to be free from her husband's dominant and dominant personality. Actually, he's got someone in L.A. Despite Anton's requests to return to Manila and the risk of losing custody of his children, he insists on cancelling. He leaves behind a 15-year-old, a 13-year-old and a 5-year-old. Three years later, after two failed relationships, Grace decides to return home to claim her husband and children. She realizes that she is still in love with him and tries everything to create a wedge between Anton and Andrea and his children, in the hope that she can win him back. His obsession becomes a major concern for his children. His last abandoned effort to win Anton by confessing that he loves and relives him back fails. Anton refuses it, but steals a passionate kiss that unfortunately is witnessed by Andrea. Anton's rejection, and Chloe's rebuke of destroying their family a second time, prompts grace to commit suicide. He survives and returns to the United States to heal. Anton promises her that the children will spend summers with her. Cast Julia Barretto as Chloe Silverio Noble. Anton and Grace's eldest son who plays the role of mother figure to his brothers when Grace leaves them. She's in a relationship with Fort, but she actually likes Tupe. She eventually chooses Tupe, but Fort remains her best friend. Chloe's priority is to ensure that her family remains intact and that her father's happiness is more important than her mother's. He is happy with Andrea's relationship with his father, and is instrumental in Lucas' change of heart for Andrea. Struggle with his father's disciplinary actions to his relationship with Tupe. Andrea successfully connects this this Chloe also sees through her mother's antics towards Andrea. He asks his mother to take a step back. Grace's obsession remains a major concern for the children, and Chloe has taken responsibility for communicating their dismay to her mother. They love and respect their mother, but they are very clear that they appreciate Andrea's importance in their lives. They love their stepmother very much and want to make sure their mother doesn't destroy the family they built with her. Ronnie Alonte as Christopher Tupe Dimayuga. Chloe's boyfriend. He is a brilliant scholar, who interned anton's company and earned the respect of his colleagues and teachers. Unfortunately, his lack of maturity in managing his first love and responsibilities pushed him into situations that made him lose his scholarship and employment. Chloe loves him deeply, tries to understand him and struggles to preserve their relationship, even though she was forbidden by her father to engage in a relationship with her boyfriend with him. Unfortunately, their disobedience caused various conflicts and pains for both of them. As Tupe leads the relationship into a downward spiral due to her immature decisions, Chloe is now understanding what it takes to maintain a relationship. He is opening his eyes to the great maturity gap that exists in his relationship with Tupe. After seeing the experience of his mother and dads fail the marriage, and the separation of his father and stepmother, he broke up with Tupe.
