Before Roger Ludlowe Middle School opened on campus in 1998, Fairfield Ludlowe High School served as a middle school when high school students went to Fairfield Warde High School. FLHS was reopened as a high school in the fall of 2003 due to overcrowding at one of fairfield’s existing high school fairfield, now called Fairfield Warde High School. The school was originally opened as Fairfield High School in Ludlowe Site, as a satellite campus of Fairfield High School in 20th and 10th grades. In the fall of 2003, the Board of Education decided that it would be called Fairfield High School South, while the existing high school would be called Fairfield High School East. The board, led by President Grace Easterby, claimed to have voted for these names to minimize competition between schools. A few months later, after much persuasion, the board voted to rename the two schools to Fairfield Ludlowe and Fairfield Warde, retaining the names before consolidation in 1987, but also preserving the reputation of the Fairfield name. [3] Honorable Mentions In 2012, the school debuted in the U.S. News & World Report Best High Schools ranking. Fairfield Ludlowe High School theatre club was the first educational institution to perform Wilder’s The Bridge of San Luis Rey. References ^ ^ Fairfield Ludlow High School. Jan 2013 um 14:03 - FAIRFIELD LUDLOWE HIGH SCHOOL closed early today due to central office wind damage and Alternative High School Closed First Selectman Mike Tetreau announced today that last night there was significant wind damage to the roof on one of the wings at Fairfield Ludlowe High School (FLHS). The FLHS will have an early release today, Thursday, January 31, 2013, at 10:15 a.m. Communication is complicated by the fact that central office has no electricity. The Central Office, which is located on Kings Highway East, and the alternative high school, which is located on Biro Street, are closed today due to a power outage. Please read further information and updates throughout the day. Aktueller Beitrag der SeiteMisie fairfield does not offer christmas tree pickup. Residents who have a private garbage collection should contact their truck to see if their truck collects trees. Residents who do not have private collectors can take the Christmas tree to WeCare Denali free of charge. A valid beach sticker A or dump sticker is required. They will be open on Saturday 9 January and Saturday 16 January from 8.m. to 1 .m. for Christmas trees and all other shipbuilding waste. For more information visit: first selectwoman Brenda Kupchick with an update on the severe weather we expect today and tomorrow, Christmas. Weather forecasts predict that heavy rains and strong winds can cause flooding and power outages. House s that are prone to basement flooding should take precautions, as heavy rains and rapid melting of snow can cause flooding. Scattered power outages are probably early Friday morning. Please plan ahead by keeping the thermostats at night Thursday. Our crisis management team is ready to work with the user interface to resolve issues as soon as possible. For information on power, phone and internet failures can be found in the FairfieldCT.org/storm. In the case of non-combustible aid, residents may be able to Police Department at 203.254.4800 . Report power outages to the user interface at 1-800-722-5584 . I hope you have a safe and merry Christmas. ?? This message was sent via FairfieldALERT.
